SENATE

THURSDAY, May 24, 1951.

The Senate met at 10:00 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT L. CURRY, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, St. Clair, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Father, it is good for us to talk with You before the heavy business of the day begins. We want to say thanks for all the good that was in yesterday, and please, God, may today be even better than yesterday was. We thank You for this big, wide, wonderful world.

Give us a sense of appreciation for all who serve us, and if we serve others, may they then appreciate us. Let us never rest at night with the idea that we run this world alone. There are bus drivers, secretaries, mailmen, store clerks, doctors, housewives and many other humble souls. God bless much, in this day of strain and stress, all people who preach sermons without saying words.

Keep our faith so strong that we will always believe in the ultimate triumph of righteousness. May we never pick up the sour philosophy of Hamlet, "The world's out of joint, O cursed spite that I was ever born to set it right."

Father, make within us the desire to set the world right, and if we find despair in this hour, teach us the heavenly vision to know that God is always working out His plan for the world which He has made. Just use us, God, to the best we can be in that master plan. Keep our Nation strong; may our State ever be a part of the strength of the Nation. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. MALLERY, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

THURSDAY, May 24, 1951

The House met at 10:00 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William High Fryer, offered the following prayer:

O Lord, we pray Thee to bless all those who give themselves in the service of their fellowmen. Give them wisdom that is from above, which is first pure, then peaceable, gentle and easy to be entreated, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality, without hypocrisy, and grant that seeking peace in all things they may bring forth that fruit of righteousness which is sown in peace, through Jesus Christ or Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Wednesday, May 23, 1951? If not, and without objection, the Journal is approved.

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. SMITH. Mr. Speaker, there are eight what we call liquor package bills on today's calendar. A good many of them need amendments; some of them have amended the old Act rather than the new code. Rather than take up the time of the House to amend them on the floor of the House, the Minority Leader, the Chairman of the Liquor Committee, and the sponsors have agreed that these bills all be returned to the Committee for amendment, and every bill that is returned to the Committee shall be brought out as a package, if that meets with the approval of the House.

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be re-committed to the Committee on Liquor Control for the purpose of further study and possible amendment.

The motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 691, entitled:

Ordered, that the bill as amended lie over for printing.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1038, as follows:

An Act regulating the sale and use of air and spring guns providing for the licensing of those defined as dealers in air guns conferring powers and imposing duties on the Commissioner of the State Police certain courts chiefs of police of cities and sheriffs and prescribing penalties

To the end that proficiency in marksmanship and that knowledge of the proper and safe handling of firearms may be taught and encouraged among the youth of this Commonwealth while at the same time providing certain controls over the careless and irresponsible use of air guns it is deemed advisable and necessary by the General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania that air guns be sold at retail within this Commonwealth only by licensed dealers that the sale or furnishing of such guns be prohibited to persons under sixteen years of age except in the relationship of parent to children guardian to ward or teacher to student and that certain necessary restrictions be applied to the use of air guns within this Commonwealth therefore

Section 1 As used in this act

(a) The term "air gun" means any gun (rifle or pistol) by whatever the name known which is designed to expel a projectile by the action of compressed air or gas or by the action of a spring or elastic but does not mean a firearm

(b) The term "dealer" means any person engaged in the business of selling at retail leasing or renting air guns or projectiles therefore and the term "licensed dealer" means any such person licensed under the provisions of this act or any person regularly licensed to sell firearms

(c) The term "minor" means any person under the age of sixteen years

Section 2 It shall be unlawful for any dealer except a licensed dealer to sell lend lease or otherwise transfer any air gun or projectile therefor

Section 3 It shall be unlawful for any licensed dealer to sell lend lease or otherwise transfer an air gun or projectile therefor to any person whom the dealer knows or has reasonable cause to believe to be a minor

Section 4 It shall be unlawful for any person to give sell lend or otherwise transfer any air gun or projectile therefor to a minor except where the relationship of parent and child guardian and ward or adult instructor and pupil exists

Section 5 (a) It shall be unlawful for any person under the age of fourteen unless accompanied by a parent or guardian or some other member of his family twenty-one years of age or older or if between the ages of fourteen and sixteen years unless accompanied by an adult at least twenty-one years of age to carry or be in possession of any air gun on the streets alleys public roads or public lands of any city borough incorporated town or township

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to discharge any air gun from into or across any street alley or public road or sidewalk of any city borough incorporated town or township

(b) It shall be unlawful for any person to discharge any air gun from into or across any street alley or public road or sidewalk of any city borough incorporated town or township or on any public land except on a recognized target range

Section 6 (a) Any dealer desiring a license to sell lend lease or otherwise transfer air guns or projectiles therefor shall make application to the chief of police of a city and elsewhere the sheriff of the county who shall provide application forms approved by the Commissioner of the Pennsylvania State Police who shall prescribe by reasonable rules and regulations the information to be contained in such application The application for such dealer's "License to Sell Air Guns" shall be accompanied by a fee of ten dollars ($10.00) per annum which shall be paid into the city or county treasury

(b) Upon payment of the fee the chief of police of a city and elsewhere the sheriff of the county shall issue to such applicant a license to sell lease or otherwise transfer air guns or projectiles therefore and such license subject to annual payment of the license fee shall remain in force unless and until revoked in accordance with the provisions of this act Provided That no license shall be issued to any applicant within one year after the revocation of a previous license

(c) Whenever any licensee is convicted of a violation of any provision of this act it shall be the duty of the court hearing the case to notify the chief of police or sheriff who issued the "License to Sell Air Guns" within forty-eight hours after such conviction and said licensing official shall revoke such license

Section 7 Dealers who are licensed to sell firearms shall not be required to obtain the special "License to Sell Air Guns" provided for by section six but shall comply with all other provisions of this act The violation of any of the provisions of this act shall be sufficient cause for the revocation of a dealer's license to sell firearms

Section 8 Any person violating any of the provisions of this act or any rules and regulations promulgated hereunder or who makes any statement in applying for the license provided for in this act knowing such statement to be false or who falsely represents himself as being over sixteen years of age in order to purchase or otherwise obtain an air gun or projectile therefor shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding three hundred dollars ($300.00) or to undergo imprisonment not exceeding ninety (90) days or both in the case of default in payment of fine and cost by a person under the age of sixteen years the matter shall be referred to the juvenile court for disposition

Section 9 This act shall not be construed to limit the rights of political subdivisions to enact or enforce ordinances limiting or restricting the ownership possession use sale leasing lending delivery or storage of such air guns not inconsistent with the provisions of this act

Section 10 All acts and parts of acts are hereby repealed in so far as they are inconsistent with the provisions of this act

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I do not rise to oppose this bill, but to support it. In my remarks of yesterday I had suggested that . . .

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman yield. Does the gentleman have amendments to offer to this bill?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I have, but I am not going to offer them.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to discuss the bill?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I do.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I was laboring under the impression that the matter was up for final passage when I started to speak.

I suggested yesterday that it might be wise to provide in this bill that parents who bought BB guns for their children under the age of 16 and allowed them to use them, should be required to carry some type of public liability insurance, so that if the child did injure somebody, there would at least be some money available to pay for doctor bills, hospital bills, and so forth.

I talked to the sponsor of the bill and he is somewhat of the opinion that if we put too many restrictions into this bill, it will result in the whole bill falling, and the law being allowed to remain in its present position, which is not good. This bill is certainly a step forward in protecting people against injuries and I would like to see the bill pass. So, the amendments which I have had prepared I expect to discuss with the members of the Senate Committee to which this bill will go, and if something can be worked out along that line, it will be done; if it can be done without killing the bill.

On the question recurring

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Less than the majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the negative and the bill falls.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1067, as follows:

An Act to add Section 1072.1 to and to further amend Section 1073 of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 36) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by providing for the discontinuance of the office of district superintendent in any district of the third class. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 The act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" is hereby amended by adding after Section 1072 thereof a new section to read as follows:

Section 1072.1 Discontinuance of Office in Districts Third Class The board of school directors of any district of the third class now or hereafter employing a district superintendent may at the end of the term of the district superintendent then in office by a vote of the majority of all of the members of the board discontinue the office in the district subject to the approval of the Superintendent of Public Instruction. In all cases the action shall be taken and notice thereof given by registered mail to the district superintendent not less than sixty days before the expiration of the term of the district superintendent. Upon the discontinuance of the office of district superintendent the directors of the district shall become eligible to participate in the election of a county superintendent and the schools of the district shall become subject to the supervision of the county superintendent.

Section 2 Section 1073 of said act as amended by the act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1873) is hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 1073 Manner of Election Change of Class of District The boards of school directors of each district of the second or third class electing a district superintendent shall meet in convention at its regular place of meeting on the second Tuesday of April one thousand nine hundred fifty (1950) and every four years thereafter at an hour previously fixed by the board. The secretary shall mail to each member thereof at least five days beforehand a notice of the time place and purpose of such convention. Such convention shall in the same manner as a county superintendent is elected and certified elect and certify a properly qualified district superintendent to serve for four years from the first Monday of July next following his election. Whenever the term of office of any district superintendent expires he shall continue in office for a further term of four years.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(h) The powers herein conferred shall be subject to approval of Pennsylvania Public Utility Commission whenever the same is required by the Public Utility Law

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. For the purposes of the record, Mr. Speaker, I desire that the sponsor of this bill explain its legislative intent.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Ewing, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. EWING. I will be in favor of letting the bill go over, Mr. Speaker, if the gentleman wishes.

Mr. ANDREWS. I am not opposing the bill. I simply want to spread upon the record the legislative intent of the bill, which the gentleman can very briefly state. I am not opposing the bill.

Mr. EWING. The legislative intent of the bill is for a reciprocal basis with other states.

Mr. ANDREWS. Reciprocal basis as to what, Mr. Speaker?

Mr. EWING. In the ownership of pipe lines they can use the same name they are using in Pennsylvania, in Ohio, Maryland, New Jersey or any other state.

Mr. ANDREWS. And has nothing to do with the regulation of pipe lines?

Mr. EWING. Mr. Speaker, as far as I know, it does not.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1289, as follows:

An Act making a deficiency appropriation to the Judicial Department for salaries of associate judges

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The sum of sixteen thousand three hundred dollars ($16,300) or as much thereof as may be necessary is hereby specifically appropriated from the General Fund to the Judicial Department for the payment of the salaries of the associate judges for the two fiscal years beginning June 1 1949

Section 2 This act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Senate Bill No. 426, Printer's No. 148, were passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 453, as follows:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" by changing or deleting certain routes in Westmoreland County.

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows:

Section 1 The following routes established by the act approved the twenty-second day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594) entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State Highways authorizing their construction maintenance and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities persons associations and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act" and its amendments are hereby deleted as indicated or amended to read as follows:

[Route 64023 Beginning at Route 64024 .5 mile west of Sloan's School] and extending in a northerly direction by way of Pleasant Valley School and intersecting Route 348 at Pleasant View School in Westmoreland County a distance of about 2.5 miles]

[Route 64024 Beginning at Route 69 .75 mile north of Mamont and extending in a northeasterly direction down Beaver Run to Route 348 in Westmoreland County a distance of about 3.3 miles]

[Route 64025 Beginning at Route 64024 near Sloan's School and extending in a southeasterly direction to Route 228 in Westmoreland County a distance of about 0.6 mile]

Route 64036 Beginning at Route 187 near the west borough line of Export and extending northerly and northeasterly by way of [an improved road and] Franklin School to Route [64184] 69 beginning again on Route [64184] near the same point and extending easterly across Route 69 about .5 of a mile north of Montgomery School] 348 Spur thence extending in an easterly direction [along Thorn Run crossing Spur Route 348] to Route 228 near Waukena in Westmoreland County a distance of about [11.86] 8.1 miles

[Route 64253 Beginning at a point on Route 64183 about 0.4 of a mile north of its intersection with Route 64035 thence in a westerly and northwesterly direction through Salem Township to a point on Route 64036 in Westmoreland County a distance of about 2.1 miles]

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I am asked to make a short statement relative to this bill inasmuch as the passage of the bill is necessitated due to the fact that there is a great danger of curtailing the construction of the dam to provide for a public water supply for about seventy or eighty percent of the residents of Westmoreland County and some residents of surrounding counties.

On the question recurring.

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. SMITH asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

I have, Mr. Speaker, a very important announcement to make to the Members of the House. It certainly is not to my liking to make this announcement, but it is one of those things that with a gun at your head you can not do anything else about it.

I have an announcement here from the Penn Harris Hotel, a letter stating that the Pennsylvania Eastern Star organization two years ago made reservations for a Convention for their membership of two thousand for the week of June 11th. They state that they will be absolutely unable to take care of either the Members of the House or Senate because they are booked up solid.

I do not know what we can do. We cannot sleep in our automobiles. So if the House agrees I would say that we would probably have to recess for that week. However, I thought it would be proper to notify the Members now in case there are any invitations or in case they want to do anything for a week two weeks from now.

I am giving notice as of now Mr. Speaker. I do not know whether it is necessary to take a vote on it. It is entirely up to the Chair.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, the Majority Leader has said that we face a situation that we cannot do anything about. It is probably true that we cannot do anything about it immediately.

I would go along with a proposition to petition the General State Authority to construct here in Harrisburg an apartment house for the use of the Members of the Legislature and the guests that come from time to time, as a self liquidating project.

I also would be willing to support a measure that would place the hotels of Pennsylvania under the jurisdiction of the Public Utility Commission as to rates and service.

The time has come when this General Assembly should get in a position where it is not pushed around by the hotels here in Harrisburg, which, whenever there is a increase in business, become increasingly arrogant. That we should be impotent in the face of a single hotel operator is derogatory to the dignity of this General Assembly.

So I say that while we cannot sleep in automobiles this time we can initiate a long range program which will cure this intolerable hotel situation here in Harrisburg.

BILL SIGNED BY SPEAKER

Bill numbered and entitled as follows having been prepared for presentation to the Governor, and the same being correct, the title was publicly read as follows:

HOUSE BILL No. 73.

An Act to amend Article V of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by permitting school directors to attend meetings of educational or financial interest to districts and providing for the payment of their expenses

Whereupon,

The SPEAKER, in the presence of the House, signed the same.

FORMER MEMBER WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to welcome a former Member of the House, the gentleman from Berks, Honorable Chester A. Mohn.

PERMISSION TO ADD ADDITIONAL SPONSORS

Mr. CLENDENING asked and obtained unanimous consent to add additional sponsors to a resolution to be introduced by him.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. CLENDENING, BLOOM and ROBERTSON offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 24, 1951.

Whereas, Birthday anniversaries come to everyone, yet one's own anniversary has a unique significance to himself. On May 21, William C. Leonard, a stalwart Republican from Delaware County, will be privileged to watch another marker move along his journey through a full, pulsating and fruitful life; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives is happy to extend to Mr. Leonard its sincerest and friendliest felicitations on the important occasion of his birthday anniversary, and be it further

Resolved, That this milestone in his life will mark the beginning of even greater service and more desirable benefits to his community and friends as his years of health and vigor run on interminably.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Leonard.

Mr. WILLIAM C. LEONARD. Mr. Speaker, that is quite an honor to a freshman. I appreciate it and I hope to have the privilege of spending some more birthdays with you. Thank you very much.

CONGRATULATIONS

Messrs. BLOOM, CLENDENING and WILLIAM C. LEONARD offered a resolution which was read, considered and unanimously adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, May 24, 1951.

May 24, 1913 was a most important day in the life of the member James N. Robertson, for it was then he first opened his eyes to this bewildering world and realized vaguely that he would contribute his mite of steadiness to its gyrating behavior.

Brilliantly educated at Princeton—to which was added the distinctive flourish of further training at the University of Pennsylvania—Mr. Robertson elected to serve his community as a lawyer.

During World War II, he served his country magnificently in the European Theatre and emerged after four years of conflict as a Colonel in the Field Artillery.

His interest and activity in civic and political affairs logically culminated in his election to this House of Representatives as a Republic representative from Delaware County.

Nevertheless, despite this time-demanding association with civic and political groups and his active participation in the practice of law, yet his home and wife and children remain the pivotal point of his deepest interest and justifiable pride; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives salute Jim Robertson on this thirty-eighth anniversary of his birthday and wish him the most delightful returns on this gala occasion; and be it further

Resolved, That this House is sincerely hopeful that his service to the community will expand and his stature as a progressive citizen will receive state-wide recognition as many more years of vigor and constructive endeavor are vouchsafed him.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, according to that resolution I am rather important.

I want to take this opportunity of thanking the House for the resolution. The only thing I can really say is that it has been quite an honor to me to be a Member of this House. I deeply appreciate it and will long remember the friendships I have made and the discussions I have had here in this body. Thank you very much.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. SNIDER from the Committee on Agriculture and Dairy Industries, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1288, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause fifth of subsection (a) of Section 3 of the act, approved the thirteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred nine (P. L. 520), entitled "An act relating to food; defining food; providing for the protection of the public health and the prevention of fraud and deception, by prohibiting the manufacture or sale, the offering for sale or exposing for sale, or having in possession with intent to sell, of adulterated, misbranded, or deleterious foods; prescribing certain duties of the Dairy and Food Commissioner in reference thereto; and providing penalties for the violation thereof," by changing the amount of sulphur dioxide which may be used in the preparation of certain foods.

Mr. YESTER from the Committee on Banking and Building and Loan Associations, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1287, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsection B of section one thousand nine of the act, approved the fifteenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 624), entitled as amended "An Act relating to the business of banking, and to the exercise of fiduciary powers by corporations; providing for the organization of corporations with fiduciary powers, and of banking corporations, with or without fiduciary powers, including the conversion of National banks into State banks, and for the licensing of private bankers and employes' mutual banking associations; defining the rights, powers, duties, liabilities, and immunities of such corporations, of existent corporations authorized to engage in a banking business, with or without fiduciary powers, of private bankers and employes' mutual banking associations, and of the officers, directors, trustees, shareholders, attorneys, and other employes of all such corporations, employes' mutual banking associations or private bankers, or of affiliated corporations, associations, or persons; restricting the exercise of banking powers by and other corporation, association, or person, and of fiduciary powers by any other corporation; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts, prothonotaries, recorders of deeds, and certain State departments, commissions, and officers; imposing penalties; and repealing certain acts and parts of acts," by further limiting the amount which may be invested in shares of other banking institutions.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. LYONS. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Friday, May 25, 1951 at 12:01 a. m., EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12:01 p. m. EST) the House adjourned.

HARRISBURG, PA., FRIDAY, MAY 25, 1951.

No. 54.

SENATE

FRIDAY, May 25, 1951.

The Senate met at 12:01 o'clock, a. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore (M. Harvey Taylor) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. ROBERT L. CURRY, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, St. Clair, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

God, the day has been long. This is a later hour. Most of us would rather pray, now I lay me down to sleep. Yet, matters of heavy importance are before us. Let not our minds be dulled because of the hour. Grant us clear vision to see the truth as You have shown us what truth is. Let us never stumble along in the dark of doing unheavenly things. Help us keep our footsteps centered upon the pathway that is straight in life. May we strive to work together as Christian people. May we always love and be loyal to our Nation. May the affairs of our State be deep in our minds. May all that we ever do or say be for Your good, God, for the best of our Nation and for the continual glory of our State. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. YOSKO, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair invites the gentleman from Somerset, Mr. Hare, to the rostrum to preside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (Fred P. Hare) in the Chair.

HOUSE MESSAGES

HOUSE CONCURS IN SENATE BILL No. 453

The Clerk of the House of Representatives being introduced, returned to the Senate, Senate Bill No. 453, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act approved the twenty-second day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 594), entitled "An act establishing certain township roads as State highways; authorizing their construction, maintenance, and improvement under certain conditions and restrictions; limiting the obligation of the Commonwealth in the construction of certain structures located on such highways; conferring certain powers upon the Department of Highways and local authorities, persons, associations, and corporations for sharing the cost of the maintenance and construction of such highways; and making an appropriation to carry out the provisions of said act," by changing or deleting certain routes in Westmoreland County.

with the information that the House has passed the same without amendments.

HOUSE BILLS FOR CONCURRENCE

He also presented for concurrence bills of the House, as follows:

SENATE RESOLUTIONS

TRIBUTE TO NORMAN C. SCHLICHTER

Mr. WADE offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, May 25, 1951.

Whereas, the doubts and dissensions of a troubled world disrupt our morale, invade our peace of mind and leave little opportunity for a serene contemplation of the quiet beauty and the caressing solace of traditional Pennsylvania life, it becomes, indeed, a rare privilege for all of us to refresh our spirit and to regain our courage by reading the simple and sincere lines written by Norman C. Schlichter long ago in the nineties.

Pennsylvania

Pennsylvania, strong and fine,
Pennsylvania, State of mine,
Proud we breathe thy peaceful air,
Proud we see thy mountains fair.

For the wonder of our eyes
Green and high their grandsires rise;
For the quiet of the soul
Valleys beautiful unroll.

Rivers sing us music rare—
Susquehanna, Delaware, Juniata, Brandywine,—
Silver in the sun they shine.

Penn's Sylvania! Now our own!
Founder brave, forever known,
William Penn, we sing of thee,
Preacher of sweet charity.

Pennsylvania, on thine air,
With the fervency of prayer,
Rang the Bell of Liberty:
"Independence! We are free—"

Valley Forge, where winter chill
Tested faith and patriot will,
Blood of martyrs keeps thy name
Constant on the lips of fame.

Gettysburg, where Lincoln said
Truth immortal as thy dead
Sacrificed in Freedom's cause,
At thy sacred name we pause.

Pennsylvania, fair and free,
In thy beauty God we see!
All thy greatness men have wrought
By sure purpose and high thought.

Mr. Schlichter was a former resident of Duncannon. He is now advanced in age, his devoted wife is blind, and together they are quietly and uncomplainingly living their allotted years with what little resources they have at hand; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Senate acknowledges gratefully the poetic utterances of Norman C. Schlichter, dedicated to a survey of Pennsylvania's intrinsic and intangible values; and be it further Resolved That the Senate extend to Mr. and Mrs. Schlichter their best wishes that they may be privileged to spend many more blessed years in their beloved Pennsylvania.

URGING THAT THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION DETERMINE UNEXPENDED CASH BALANCES IN THE APPROPRIATIONS OF THE COMMONWEALTH AS OF MAY 31, 1951

Messrs. YOSKO and NEFF offered the following resolution which was twice read as follows:

In the Senate, May 25, 1951.

Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission determine the unexpended cash balances as of May 31, 1951 in the appropriations made to all agencies of the Commonwealth for the biennium beginning June 1, 1949 to May 31, 1951;

And Be It Further Resolved, That the Joint State Government Commission make its report to the Senate on Monday, June 4, 1951.

REQUEST THAT RULE 39 BE SUSPENDED

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Rule 39, which requires resolution be referred to an appropriate committee, be dispensed with and the Senate proceed to the consideration of the foregoing resolution.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Is there objection?

Mr. WALKER. May I say to the gentleman, Mr. President, arrangements have already been made to procure that information just as soon as it is available. We are advised by the fiscal officers that they are hopeful of having that ready for us during the week of June 4. As to whether or not it can be procured by Monday, of course, is conjecture because of the fact that it will be so soon after the completion of the fiscal period. However, the information will be available for the Senate at the earliest possible moment, and for that reason, this resolution, I do not think will be necessary. We intend to furnish that information sometime during the week of June 4 or as soon thereafter as the figures can be made available and, therefore, Mr. President, I would suggest, if the gentleman will cooperate with us, that either the resolution lay on the table or refer it to the Rules Committee until the information is available. We are just as anxious to get the information as he is, and I know it will be placed at his disposal as soon as it is available.

Mr. YOSKO Mr. President, I might say that it should not take more than twenty-four or forty-eight hours at the most for the Joint State Government Commission to compile this data from the various agencies of the Commonwealth that were given an appropriation for the biennium 1949 to 1951. That information is available in the Auditor General's Office and the State Treasurer's Office, and I think it ought to be available to us when we come back the week after next.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. The resolution is referred to the Committee on Rules.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. STEVENSON asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, at the direction of the General Assembly in the Session of 1949, the Local Government Commission was specifically directed to prepare two codes of law, one covering the third class city law, the other the county law covering the second to the eighth classes. The third class city law has been introduced and is on the Third Reading Calendar in the House at the present time.

Mr. President, today it is my privilege to present to the Senate the compilation of the county law covering the second to the eighth class counties. It is an orderly assembly of all the existing general county laws, and it represents a tremendous amount of work. We believe that this code will be a very valuable asset in the hands of the people of Pennsylvania, especially the people who deal in the county government.

Mr. President, I will not insist this evening that it be read at length on first reading. It was our intention to do so, but owing to the lateness of the hour, we thought we would not do that. We want to get this in today so that it might be printed during the interval here when the printers would have ample time to take care of it.

Mr. President, on behalf of Senator Mallery, Senator Haluska, Senator Mahaney and myself, I read in place and present to the Chair this bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Messrs. STEVENSON, MALLERY, HALUSKA and MAHANY, read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 693, entitled:

An Act to reenact, revise and amend the act approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending and consolidating the laws relating thereto."

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Messrs. MALLERY and HALUSKA read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 694, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities, boroughs, towns and townships to accumulate over a period of more than one year monies required to match State grants; and further regulating the budget taxation and appropriation powers of such political subdivisions therefor.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Mr. YOSKO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 695, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (a) of Section 412 and clause (b) of Section 615 of the act, approved the first day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 905), entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety; regulating the use of high-trackless trolley omnibuses, bicycles, pedestrians, and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth; providing for the titling, including liens, encumbrances, and legal claims; registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof, upon payment of prescribed fees; prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act; conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue, the Department of Highways, peace officers, mayors, burgesses, magistrates, aldermen, justices of the peace, the courts and the clerks thereof, owners of vehicles, and garage keepers; providing that records are admissible as evidence; imposing upon owners, counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, within the Commonwealth, liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles; imposing penalties; imposing certain costs upon counties; providing for the disposition of fines, forfeitures, fees, and miscellaneous receipts; making an appropriation and providing for refunds," by providing for the suspension of registrations, operators' licenses and learners' permits in certain cases in which vehicles are used for purposes of prostitution, assignation, pandering, fornication or other immoral purposes.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 696, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 512 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," by providing that in any prosecution for prostitution proof of the presence of that accused in a house of prostitution shall constitute prima facie proof of the commission of prostitution.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 697, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 512 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872), entitled "An act to consolidate, amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth," by authorizing the court to sentence women convicted of prostitution to undergo imprisonment in a public institution maintained by the Department of Welfare and set apart for such purpose and authorizing the court in its discretion during the continuance of the present war to sentence women convicted of prostitution to undergo imprisonment until the termination of this war.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 698, entitled:

An Act authorizing the suspension of certain local police officers for failure to discover and report badwy houses in the locality over which they have supervision or for their failure to take other appropriate action with respect thereto, in any cases in which the Pennsylvania State Police has made arrests for the keeping of such bawdy houses.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

He also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 699, entitled:

An Act providing for the establishment of a "Vice Squad" as an agency in the Pennsylvania State Police force to be used for the elimination and control of prostitution and other immoral and indecent offenses throughout the Commonwealth.

Which was committed to the Committee on State Government.

SENATE BILL No. 610 CALLED UP

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I call up for consideration at this time Senate Bill No. 610.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND
FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 610, as follows:

An Act authorizing and directing the Department of Property and Supplies to convey to the City of Pittsburgh all right title and interest of the Commonwealth to a certain street situate within the City of Pittsburgh without any liability for damages occasioned by the closing or vacating of such street by the City of Pittsburgh

Section 1 The Department of Property and Supplies is hereby authorized and directed to grant and convey to the City of Pittsburgh all the right title and interest of the Commonwealth in and to that certain street in the City of Pittsburgh as established by the act approved the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred seventy (P. L. 1048) entitled "An act relating to a certain street in the City of Pittsburgh" and as said street is therein described

Being that tract of land which the Town of Lawrenceville pursuant to the provisions of the act approved the twelfth day of April one thousand eight hundred sixty-seven (P. L. 1203) filled up and embanked an area lying between Wainwright's Island the main southeast shore of the Allegheny River and which the Commonwealth by the act approved the eighth day of April one thousand eight hundred seventy (P. L. 1048) aforesaid granted and conveyed to the City of Pittsburgh for public purposes as a street

The General Assembly finds as a fact that at the present time and for a long time past no street has existed on this said land and no need exists for any such street or other public use and the General Assembly also finds as a fact that at the present time it would be to the advantage and interest of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the City of Pittsburgh the general public and the adjoining land owners that the aforesaid land shall be made available to private ownership and use

Section 2 The City of Pittsburgh in consideration of the grant herein authorized and directed to be made shall be solely responsible for the payment of any damages occasioned by the closing or vacating of said street by the City of Pittsburgh

Section 3 Nothing herein contained shall be construed to affect or deprive any right title or interest of any person or corporation asserting title to or any interest in said land

Section 4 The deed of conveyance herein authorized shall be made without consideration and shall be approved by the Department of Justice and shall be executed by the Secretary of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

FRIDAY, May 25, 1951

The House met at 12:01 a. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Charles F. Trunk, Jr., guest Chaplain and Pastor of the Bethlehem Lutheran Church, Harrisburg, offered the following prayer:

We thank Thee, O God, that we can see Thy good works and Thy promise for the time to come. Help us to submit to Thy will which would make wars to cease and would destroy man's battle instruments. Give us quiet moments, so that in the stillness we may know that Thou are God—our God—Who will be exalted in all the earth. Teach us to seek out first Thy Kingdom and Thy Righteousness, lest we forfeit the other things which can be ours. Make us good servants of the good way, we pray Thee, through Thy Spirit. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. As there any corrections to the Journal of Thursday, May 24, 1951? If not, and without objection, the Journal is approved.

QUESTION OF INFORMATION

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a question of information.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask if there is any tentative date that the Chair or the Majority Leader can give me as to when you intend to close this Session.

My reason for asking that question is, I am on a leave of absence from my employment with Westinghouse Electric and my leave of absence for this Session terminates on June 4. I must ask for an extension and I would like to have some idea as to how far to extend my leave. Should I say Labor Day? Should I say July 4th? Should I say June 30th?

Now of course, if it is Labor Day I will just ask for a leave of absence to make three for four labor speeches.

The SPEAKER. The Chair regrets that he is unable to give the gentleman the information he desires. He would suggest however, that the gentleman ask for a leave of absence until the termination of the Session.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, until the what?

The SPEAKER. Until the termination of the Session. At what ever time that may be.

Mr. MORAN. Mr. Speaker, termination of Session. Is there any assurance that it will be in 1951?

The SPEAKER. The Chair is unable to give that assurance.

ADJOURNMENT

Mr. HOCKER. Mr. Speaker, I move that this House do now adjourn until Monday, June 4, 1951 at 3:30 p. m. EST.

The motion was agreed to, and (at 12:50 a. m. EST) the House adjourned.

Ordered, That the Clerk inform the House of Representatives accordingly.

The PRESIDENT pro tempore. The Chair invites the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Kephart, to the rostrum to preside.

The PRESIDING OFFICER (A. Evans Kephart) in the Chair.

Mr. WADE, from the Committee on State Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 1112, entitled:

An Act to amend the title of and the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of April, 1887 (P. L. 63), entitled "An act in relation to the imprisonment, government and release of convicts in the Pennsylvania Industrial Reformatory at Huntingdon," by correcting the name of said institution and of the governing board thereof, and changing the age limit of persons who may be committed to and detained therein.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. WALKER read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 700, entitled:

An Act relating to records of public officers and businesses, authorizing the reproduction, photographing, photostating and microphotographing of such records; providing for the admissibility of such reproductions in evidence and the disposition of original records.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. WADE on behalf of Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 701, entitled:

An Act to amend paragraph five of sections one of the act approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1669) entitled as amended "An Act to provide revenue for school districts of the first class by imposing a tax on persons engaging in certain businesses professions occupations trades vocations and commercial activities therein providing for its levy and collection conferring and imposing powers and duties on the Board of Public Education receiver of school taxes and school treasurer in such districts and prescribing penalties" by further defining "receipts".

Which was committed to the Committee on Education.

He also on behalf of Mr. KEPHART read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 702, entitled:

An Act making an appropriation to the Trustees of the College of Physicians, Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

An Act authorizing the capture and destruction of birds in cities of the first class in certain cases.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. YOSKO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the bill that I am about to introduce proposes to establish a separate Orphans Court in Northampton County. Northampton County is a Fourth Class County. There are eleven Fourth Class Counties in Pennsylvania. Ten of the eleven have separate Orphans Courts. The only Fourth Class County in Pennsylvania that does not have an Orphans Court is Northampton County.

Mr. President, many of the lawyers of Northampton County have been after me to introduce this bill. I suggested to them that they get the Bar Association together and have the Bar Association pass on it. A short time ago, the Bar Association met and sent me this telegram:

"At a special meeting of Northampton County Bar Association, held May 14, 1951, at eleven-thirty a. m., at the Court House, Easton, the following resolution was adopted by a two-thirds majority:

"Resolved that Northampton County Bar Association record itself in favor of a separate Orphans Court for Northampton County."

"T. E. Butterfield, Jr., Secretary."

Mr. President, they also called my attention to the fact that the Constitution of Pennsylvania, Article V, Section 22, states:

"In every county wherein the population shall exceed one hundred fifty thousand, the General Assembly shall, and in any other county may, establish a separate Orphans Court."

Northampton County has a population of approximately one hundred eighty-five thousand. Therefore, the Bar Association, joined in by the Bankers Association of Northampton County, are in favor of this bill.

Therefore, Mr. President, I read in place and present to the Chair the following bill.

BILLS INTRODUCED AND REFERRED

Mr. YOSKO read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 704, entitled:

An Act to establish a separate orphans' court in and for the County of Northampton.

Which was committed to the Committee on Judiciary General.

Mr. RUTH (By Request) read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 705, entitled:

An Act prohibiting the use of sirens similar to those employed by fire companies in sounding fire alarms, and prescribing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

Messrs. LANE and FLEMING read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 706, entitled:

An Act to add clause (m) to section 108 of the act, approved the twenty-first day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 566), entitled "An act defining the liability of an employer to pay damages for occupational disease contracted by an employee arising out of and in the course of employment; establishing an elective schedule of compensation; providing procedure for the determination of liability and compensation thereunder; imposing duties on the Department of Labor and Industry, the Workmen's Compensation Board, Workmen's Compensation Referees, and deans of medical schools; creating a medical board to determine controverted medical issues; establishing an Occupational Disease Fund in custody of the State Workmen's Insurance Board; imposing upon the Commonwealth a part of the compensation payable for certain occupational diseases; making an appropriation; and prescribing penalties," by designating diseases of the heart and tuberculosis of the respiratory system as occupational diseases when contracted or incurred by firemen or policemen.

Which was committed to the Committee on Labor and Industry.

Messrs. McMENAMIN and ROBINSON read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 707, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 448), entitled "An act relating to fish; and amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating to fish in the inland waters and the boundary lakes and boundary rivers of the Commonwealth," by reclassifying chubs measuring less than six inches in length as bait-fish.

Which was committed to the Committee on Forests and Waters, Game and Fish.

Mr. SNOWDEN read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 708, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 1207 of the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 905) entitled "An act for the protection of the public safety regulating the use of highways and the operation of vehicles tractors street cars, trackless trolley omnibuses bicycles pedestrians and the riding of animals upon the highways of this Commonwealth providing for the titling including liens encumbrances and legal claims registration of certain vehicles and licensing the operators thereof upon payment of prescribed fees prescribing and limiting the powers of local authorities to deal with the subject matter of this act conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Department of Revenue the Department of Highways peace officers the peace the courts and the clerks thereof owners of vehicles and garage keepers providing that records are admissible as evidence imposing upon owners counties cities boroughs incorporated towns townships within the Commonwealth liability for damages caused by the negligent operation of their motor vehicles imposing penalties imposing certain costs upon counties providing for the disposition of fines forfeitures fees and miscellaneous receipts making an appropriation and providing for refunds" by changing the disposition of fines and forfeitures.

Which was committed to the Committee on Highways.

Messrs. DENT and DIEHM read in place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 709, entitled:

An Act to add Section 605.1 to the act approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571) entitled "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes; creating in each such county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by cities; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employees; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds; and eliminating the triennial assessment," by providing for the furnishing to the board of abstracts of building permits at the cost of persons obtaining such permits and of information relating to improvements to real property in certain cases and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

They also read in his place and presented to the Chair Senate Bill No. 710, entitled:

An Act to add Section 408.1 to the act, approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 853), entitled "An act relating to taxation; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for all local purposes; providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation of persons, property and subjects of taxation for county purposes, and for the use of those municipal and quasi-municipal corporations which levy their taxes on county assessments and valuations; amending, revising and consolidating the law relating thereto; and repealing existing laws," by providing for the furnishing to the board of revision of taxes, the board of property assessment, appeals and review and the board for the assessment and revisions of taxes of abstracts of building permits at the cost of persons obtaining such permits and of information relating to improvements to real property in certain cases and providing penalties.

Which was committed to the Committee on Local Government.

BIRTHDAY FELICITATIONS TO THE HONORABLE M. HARVEY TAYLOR

Mr. HARE on behalf of the Majority Members offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 4, 1951.

Some years ago today, seventy-five to be exact, amidst cries demanding recognition, there arrived in the Shipoke of Harrisburg a youngster who is now well recognized and still going strong.

As a young man, he began his career with the Central Iron and Steel Company. This period in his life is noteworthy for two reasons: First, it marked the beginning of his lifelong effort to master the art of chewing tobacco. And, second, he developed the habit of always being in there pitching, which at that time was as a baseball player in the Susquehanna League. One of his memorable victories was against Millersburg on the day Bob Woodside was born, with that worthy's father umpiring the game.

In the course of time, his interests broadened and he directed his talents to the fields of politics and insurance. Always playing to win, he has compiled an impressive record of victories in these pursuits and has held innumerable local and State public and political offices. Even after this imposing career he has recently become intensely wrapped up in the building of bridges.

Indeed, he is now the President pro tem of this august body, and we are proud of his long association with the Senate of Pennsylvania; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the Senate concur), That we hereby congratulate the Honorable M. Harvey Taylor on the occasion of his 75th birthday anniversary, and on his long record of accomplishments; and be it further

Resolved, That although we cannot get Father Time to roll back twenty-five years or more so that he can further add to his laurels, we wish him good health, continued success, and many, many more Happy Birthdays.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. TAYLOR asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. TAYLOR. Mr. President and gentlemen of the Senate, like most resolutions that are introduced here, there is something wrong with this one. I am supposed to be pitching against Millersburg the day that our Attorney General was born. I was pitching in Millersburg, but I was pitching for Millersburg, and Bob's father was the umpire, so what chance did the opposing team have to beat us.

I do not know how to thank you gentlemen. As I have told you many times, the finest years of my life are the ten or eleven years I have served in this Senate. I have not only been treated wonderfully on this side of the House, but I do not think any Republican was ever given the courtesy or ever treated as kindly as you fellows over on the other side have treated me. Until I die, that will be one of my fondest memories.

Thank you so much for thinking about an old man seventy-five years old.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, it would not be fair to the Democratic Members of the Senate to let this moment pass without adding their voice to the voices of the Republicans in congratulating the President pro tempore of the Senate on having reached the seventy-fifth anniversary of his life.

Those of us who have been in politics for a good many years have learned to know Harvey Taylor through the years by reputation, and those of us who have served with him in the Senate have learned to know him by his record. I think that all of us agree on this side that his word is a word that can be trusted, that he is a man who seeks to do that which he believes to be for the best and the right, and we Democratic Senators here join with his colleagues on the other side in wishing him many many happy returns of the day.

SENATE CONCURRENT RESOLUTIONS

SENATE BILL No. 67 BE RECALLED FROM THE SECRETARY OF THE COMMONWEALTH

Mr. WOOD on behalf of Mr. KEPHART offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 4, 1951.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), that Senate Bill No. 67, Printer's No. 14, entitled "An Act proposing an amendment to article fourteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto a section abolishing county offices in Philadelphia and providing for the performance of county functions by the city of Philadelphia," be recalled from the Secretary of the Commonwealth for further amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

TIME OF NEXT MEETING

Mr. PEELOR, offered the following resolution, which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 4, 1951.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur) That when the Senate adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday June 18, 1951, at two o'clock, p.m., E.S.T.; and when the House of Representatives adjourns this week it reconvene on Monday, June 18, 1951, at three-thirty o'clock, p. m., E.S.T.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. DENT asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, at this time I would like to present to the Chair for a matter of record, with the permission of the Senate, an open letter which I addressed today to the Honorable Weldon Heyburn, Auditor General. I am sorry that the copies were not available at the proper moment during the process of the Senate, and I would like to have the letter read for the information of the Senate and made a part of the record.

June 4, 1951.

The Honorable Weldon B. Heyburn
Auditor General
Auditor General's Department
Harrisburg, Pennsylvania

Dear Senator Heyburn:

Due to the present status of the state's financial picture, it has become imperative that we have for our information the following data dealing with the budget and revenue problems of the Commonwealth. As you know, the difference between estimated and actual returns can make the difference between needed and a surplus taxation.

Due to the present method of supplying a fiscal policy on a two year basis, it has become increasingly difficult for the Legislature to determine actual revenues as against estimated revenues and actually needed funds as against expended funds. Therefore, in the spirit of trying to do our duty for the benefit of all of the people of Pennsylvania, and on behalf of the Senate Members, I respectfully request that you have prepared for me, the following information:

- (1) The complete returns as of June 1, 1950 of all general and emergency taxes, itemized as to the specific revenues from specific sources.
- (2) The complete returns as of June 1, 1951 of all general and emergency taxes, itemized as to the specific revenues from specific sources.

- (3) That such revenues be listed, as to whether or not, they are complete or partial.
- (4) A copy of the unexpended balances in various departmental funds and the funds of boards and commissions as of January, 1951.
- (5) A copy of the unexpended balances in various departmental funds and the funds of boards and commissions as of June 1, 1951.

I will appreciate your kind indulgence and request that you expedite this matter since we are late in the summer and long in Session. We have requested the information in a sincere effort to resolve the problem before the Legislature and to expedite final adjournment.

With kindest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

JOHN H. DENT,
Minority Floor Leader

C If the Department of State finds that the provisions of this article have been complied with that the certificate herein required evidencing payment of all taxes or bonus or charges is in proper form and that the applicant corporation is entitled to an amended certificate of authority it shall upon payment of the filing fee forthwith but not prior to the day specified in the advertisement heretofore required by this section endorse its approval upon the application [shall file the application and] issue to the applicant corporation an amended certificate of authority setting forth the desired changes to which the application shall be attached and shall make and retain a copy thereof the amended certificate of authority shall be recorded in the office of the recorder of deeds of the county in which the original certificate of authority was recorded.

Section 11 Section nine hundred twelve of said act as amended by the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2838) is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 912 Service of Process. Any foreign nonprofit corporation which shall have done any business in this Commonwealth without procuring a certificate of authority to do so from the Department of State shall be conclusively presumed to have designated the Secretary of the Commonwealth as its true and lawful attorney authorized to accept on its behalf service of process in any action arising out of acts or omissions of such corporation within this Commonwealth. Service of process against a foreign nonprofit corporation upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall be made by the sheriff of Dauphin County by leaving the fee the plaintiff is required by law to pay to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for this service and two copies of the process at the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth. The sheriff shall make due return of his service of the process to the court magistrate or justice of the peace issuing the same. Such process may be issued by any court magistrate or justice of the peace having jurisdiction of the subject matter of the controversy in any county of the Commonwealth in which the corporation shall have its registered office or in the county in which the right of action arose. When legal process against any such corporation has been served upon the Secretary of the Commonwealth he shall immediately send by mail postage prepaid one copy of such process directed to the corporation at its registered address. If the corporation shall have no registered address the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall immediately send by mail postage prepaid one copy of such process directed to the corporation in care of the Secretary of State or the corresponding official of the state or place under the statutes or common law of which it was formed or is existing if known to the secretary. The fee paid by the plaintiff to the Secretary of the Commonwealth at the time of the service shall be taxed in the plaintiff's costs if he prevails in the suit necessitating the service of the process. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall keep a record of the day and hour of the service of such process on him and a certified copy of such record shall be sufficient evidence thereof. The service of process on the Secretary of the Commonwealth under this section shall be of the same legal force and validity as if the process had been served on the corporation and the authority for such service of process shall continue in force as long as any liability remains outstanding against the corporation in this Commonwealth. Nothing herein contained shall limit or affect the right to serve any process notice or demand required or permitted by law to be served upon a foreign corporation in any other manner now or hereafter permitted by law.

BILL ON THIRD READING AND
FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 604, as follows:

An Act authorizing the conversion into mutual life insurance companies of certain fraternal beneficial societies orders or associations or certain fraternal benefit societies incorporated under the laws of this Commonwealth outlining the procedure and defining the rights of dissenting certificate holders

Section 1 Any fraternal beneficial society order or association or any fraternal benefit society incorporated under any law of this Commonwealth which has outstanding death benefit certificates or certificates of life insurance in an amount of more than one million dollars ($1,000,000) issued to not less than four hundred (400) members which has a surplus of more than two hundred thousand dollars ($200,000) which is now subject to supervision by the Insurance Department and which does not operate an orphanage sanatorium hospital home for the aged or similar institution may convert itself into a mutual life insurance company in the following manner and subject to the following provisions

(a) The board of directors of any such beneficial society order or association or any such fraternal benefit society shall adopt a resolution expressing an intention to convert the society order or association into a mutual life insurance company under this act

(b) A copy of such resolution shall be sent by mail to every member of the society order or association together with a form on which such member may express his dissent from the conversion and a notice that unless the dissent of the member is received at the home office of the society order or association within thirty (30) days from the date of the notice the member's assent will be presumed. Such notice and form shall be mailed in an envelope bearing the return address of the society order or association and a direction that it be returned to the society order or association if undelivered to the addressee within ten (10) days of the date of mailing. Undelivered notices shall be counted as dissents

(c) Unless a majority of the members dissent within the thirty-day period the society order or association (hereinafter called the applicant) may file with the Insurance Commissioner articles of agreement for incorporation as a mutual life insurance company which shall meet the requirements for the incorporation of mutual life insurance companies incorporated under the act of May 17 1921 (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies, Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" except that the death benefit certificates or certificates of life insurance in force and the surplus shall be in lieu of the applications for insurance and the guarantee fund required in the case of incorporations under that act

(d) The articles of agreement shall be signed by the officers and a majority of the directors of the applicant

(e) The Insurance Commissioner shall examine the articles of agreement as in other cases shall satisfy himself after examination that the applicant is financially qualified to be a mutual life insurance company and when so satisfied shall approve the same shall certify in duplicate that all the requirements of this act have been complied with shall submit the articles of agreement to the Attorney General for examination who if he finds the same to be in accordance with the provisions of this act and not inconsistent with the Constitution of this Commonwealth or of the United States shall certify the same in duplicate to the Governor with his approval endorsed thereon. Thereupon the Governor shall in case he approves the same endorse his approval thereon in duplicate and cause letters patent to issue erecting the subscribers and their associates into a body corporate under the name designated in the articles of agreement

(f) Upon the issuance of the letters patent by the Governor the applicant shall turn over to the new mutual life insurance company all of its assets subject to the payment of all of its liabilities including pro rata refunds of contributions or dues on any certificates which it no longer has the right to issue and it shall advertise once a week for four (4) weeks in a newspaper of general circulation in any county in this Commonwealth in which it maintained an office and in the state capitol of any other state in which it was authorized to do business the fact of the conversion together with the statement that any dissenting certificate holder who desires to cancel his certificate may do so by delivering it on or before a specified date (which shall not be later than six months after the date of the letters patent) to the new mutual life insurance company and receive the pro rata unearned dues or contributions for such certificate and if the certificate has a non-forfeiture value such value

(g) The new mutual life insurance company shall satisfy the Insurance Commissioner after an examination that it has paid all amounts due to any dissenting certificate holders and all liabilities on certificates which it is required to cancel and upon being so satisfied the Insurance Commissioner shall certify that fact to the Secretary of the Commonwealth who shall issue a certificate of dissolution of the former fraternal beneficial society order or association or fraternal benefit society whereupon the former fraternal beneficial society order or association or fraternal society shall cease to exist

Section 2 Mutual life insurance companies formed under this act shall have and may exercise all the rights and privileges and shall be subject to all the requirements of mutual life insurance companies formed under the act of May 17 1921 (P. L. 682) aforesaid but shall exercise no rights or privileges which other mutual life insurance companies may not exercise

Section 3 This act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

BILLS ON THIRD READING AND FINAL PASSAGE

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 613, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Governor on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to enter into compact or agreement with the State of New Jersey authorizing the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the New Jersey Turnpike Authority to select a location for a bridge across the Delaware River and acting alone or in conjunction with each other to construct finance operate and maintain such bridge including the power to fix and collect tolls and authorizing the Governor to apply on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for its consent thereto

Section 1 The Governor is hereby authorized to enter into a compact on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey in substantially the following form

Compact

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and

The State of New Jersey

Authorizing the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the New Jersey Turnpike Authority acting alone or in conjunction with each other to construct finance operate and maintain a bridge across the Delaware River

Whereas In order to facilitate vehicular traffic between the eastern and western section of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission heretofore created by the provisions of the Act of Assembly approved the twenty-first day of May 1937 (P. L. 774) has been authorized and empowered by the provisions of said act and of the supplements and amendments thereto to construct operate and maintain a turnpike from a point on the western boundary line of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point at the City of Philadelphia and pursuant thereto is engaged in the construction operation and maintenance of the Pennsylvania Turnpike System to carry vehicular traffic from the Pennsylvania-Ohio state line across the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to a point at King of Prussia in Montgomery County Pennsylvania and has been further authorized and empowered by an Act of Assembly to construct operate and maintain an extension of the Pennsylvania Turnpike System to carry vehicular traffic to a point on or near the Delaware River between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey and there to construct operate and maintain either alone or in conjunction with the New Jersey Turnpike Authority or to contract with the New Jersey Turnpike Authority for the construction operation and maintenance of a bridge across the Delaware River pursuant to such compact as may be entered into between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey and

Whereas The New Jersey Turnpike Authority heretofore created by the New Jersey Turnpike Authority Act of 1948 (Ch 454 P. L. 1948) has been authorized to construct and is constructing a turnpike project across the State of New Jersey from a point at State Highway Route No 6 approximately three miles westerly from the westerly end of the George Washington Bridge to a point in the County of Salem at or near Deepwater to a connection with a new bridge across the Delaware River now under construction and has been further authorized and empowered to construct operate and maintain an extension to a point on or near the Delaware River between the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and there to construct operate and maintain either alone or in conjunction with the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission or to contract with the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission for the construction operation and maintenance of a bridge across the Delaware River to connect with the Pennsylvania Turnpike System pursuant to such compact as may be entered into between the State of New Jersey and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and

Whereas It is necessary that a bridge be provided across the Delaware River in order to form a connection between the Pennsylvania Turnpike System and the New Jersey turnpike and that provision be made for the financing construction operation and maintenance of said bridge under such agreement or agreements as may be entered into between the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the New Jersey Turnpike Authority

Now Therefore The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey do hereby solemnly covenant and agree with each other as follows

Article I

The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the New Jersey Turnpike Authority acting in cooperation with each other are hereby authorized and empowered in accordance with such agreement or agreements as shall be entered into pursuant to Article II hereof to select the location for and to prepare the necessary plans for the financing construction administration operation and maintenance of and to finance construct operate and maintain such bridge across the Delaware River as the commission and the authority may deem feasible and expedient to provide a connection between the Pennsylvania Turnpike System and the New Jersey turnpike to advance the interests of both States and to facilitate public travel

Article II

The Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the New Jersey Turnpike Authority shall be and are hereby authorized and empowered to enter into an agreement or agreements not in conflict or inconsistent with the provisions of Articles I and III hereof setting forth in detail the location of such bridge and by whom and in what manner the bridge shall be financed constructed operated and maintained including the manner of fixing and collecting tolls and providing for joint action by said commission and authority where such joint action is deemed by them to be necessary or advisable and setting forth the manner in which any such joint action may be effected

Article III

This compact shall be construed as granting supplemental and additional powers to the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and to the New Jersey Turnpike Authority and shall not be construed as being in derogation of any other powers of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and New Jersey Turnpike Authority provided however that (a) all acts and proceedings of said commission with respect to such bridge and its location construction financing operation and maintenance shall not be in conflict or inconsistent with statutes of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania creating or granting powers to said Commission (b) all acts and proceedings of said Authority with respect to such bridge and its location construction financing operation and maintenance shall not be in conflict or inconsistent with statutes of the

State of New Jersey creating or granting powers to said authority and (c) the construction of a bridge at the location selected shall not be in contravention of any applicable provision of any compact or agreement entered into by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey which shall be in force and effect at the time of the construction of such bridge

Article IV

1 This compact shall enter into force and become effective and binding between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey when (a) it has been adopted and enacted into law by the respective Legislatures of the said Commonwealth and State and (b) it has been signed by the respective Governors of the said Commonwealth and State after authorization thereof by their respective Legislatures and has been attested by the respective Secretaries of State of the said Commonwealth and State and the respective Seals of the said Commonwealth and State have been affixed thereto and (c) the Congress of the United States of America has consented thereto

2 This compact shall be signed attested and sealed in five originals one each of said originals to be forwarded to the Governors of the said Commonwealth and State for filing in accordance with the laws of the said Commonwealth and State one each of said originals to be deposited in the office of the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission and the office of the New Jersey Turnpike Authority and one of said originals to be deposited with the Secretary of State of the United States of America

In Witness Whereof and in evidence of the adoption and enactment into law of this compact by the Legislatures of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey the Governors of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey do hereby in accordance with authority conferred by the Legislatures of their respective States sign this compact in five originals as attested by the respective Secretaries of State of the said Commonwealth and State and have caused the respective Seals of the said Commonwealth and State to be hereunto affixed this day of 19

Section 2 Upon The coming into force of said compact as therein provided such compact shall be and become binding and shall have the force and effect of a statute of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission shall thereupon become vested with all the powers rights and privileges and be subject to the duties and obligations contained in said compact as though the same were specifically authorized and imposed by statute and the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania shall be bound by all of the obligations assumed by it under said compact and the Governor shall transmit an original signed copy thereof to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for filing in his office

Section 3 The Governor is hereby authorized to apply on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for its consent to and approval of this compact In the absence of such consent and approval the Pennsylvania Turnpike Commission shall have all of the powers which the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey may confer upon it without the consent and approval of the Congress

Section 4 This act shall become effective immediately upon its signing by the Governor and the passage by the State of New Jersey of a substantially similar act embodying the compact between the said Commonwealth and State hereinabove set forth

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to order,

The Senate proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 636, as follows:

An Act to amend subsection (a) of Section 9 of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1828) entitled "An act concerning the investment powers and duties of guardians committees trustees and other fiduciaries except personal representatives and prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made and retained by such fiduciaries" by authorizing investments in common stocks and similar securities of unincorporated associations meeting certain qualifications and eliminating the requirement that stock and similar securities must be listed on an exchange as to the stock and securities of banks and insurance and investment companies

Section 1 Subsection (a) of Section 9 of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1828) entitled "An act concerning the investment powers and duties of guardians committees trustees and other fiduciaries except personal representatives and prescribing the nature and kind of investments which may be made and retained by such fiduciaries" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 9 Stocks

(a) Preferred and Common Stock Preferred and common stock of any corporation organized under the laws of the United States or of any commonwealth or state thereof or of the District of Columbia shall be an authorized investment if

(1) purchase in the exercise of that degree of judgment and care under the circumstances then prevailing which men of prudence discretion and intelligence exercise in the management of their own affairs not in regard to speculation but in regard to the permanent disposition of their funds considering the probable income to be derived therefrom as well as the probable safety of their capital

(2) in the case of preferred stock the corporation issuing the stock has earned a net profit in eight of the preceding ten fiscal years as reflected in its statements and during each of the preceding ten fiscal years has paid dividends in the specified amounts upon all its preferred stock if any outstanding during such year [and]

(3) in the case of common stock the corporation issuing the stock has earned a net profit in twelve of the preceding fifteen fiscal years as reflected in its statements and during each of the preceding ten fiscal years has paid dividends in the specified amounts upon all its preferred stock if any outstanding during said year and in each of at least twelve of the preceding fifteen fiscal years has paid dividends in some amount upon all its common stock if any outstanding during such year and

(4) in the case of any stock other than stock of a bank or insurance company or of an investment company (as hereinafter defined) the stock is listed or traded (or if unlisted or not entitled to trading privileges shall be eligible for listing and application for such listing shall have been made) on the New York Stock Exchange or any other exchange approved by the Secretary of Banking

Ordered, That the Clerk present said bill to the House of Representatives for concurrence.

BILL RECOMMENDED

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I move that Senate Bill No. 644, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 402 of the act approved the ninth day of April one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 343) entitled "An act relating to the finances of the State government providing for the settlement assessment collection and lien of taxes bonus and all other accounts due the Commonwealth the collection and recovery of fees and other money or property due or belonging to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof including escheated property and the proceeds of its sale the custody and disbursement or other disposition of funds and securities belonging to or in the possession of the Commonwealth and the settlement of claims against the Commonwealth the resettlement of accounts and appeals to the courts refunds of moneys erroneously paid to the Commonwealth auditing the accounts of the Commonwealth and all agencies thereof of all public officers collecting moneys payable to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof and all receipts of appropriations from the Commonwealth and imposing penalties affecting every department board commission and officer of the State government every political subdivision of the State and certain officers of such subdivisions every person association and corporation required to pay assess or collect taxes or to make returns or reports under the laws imposing taxes for State purposes or to pay license fees or other moneys to the Commonwealth or any agency thereof every State depository and every debtor or creditor of the Commonwealth" by further providing for distribution of copies of audits made by the Department of Auditor General be recommitted to the Committee on State Government.

Mr. HARE. Mr. President, I second the motion.

On the question,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I desire to oppose the motion to recommit this bill to the Committee on State Government because this bill, Mr. President, does nothing more than direct the Auditor General of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to send a copy of audit reports of the various departments, boards and commissions to the fact-finding body of the Legislature, the Joint State Government Commission. I personally cannot see any harm in sending a copy of audit reports to the Joint State Government Commission, but I can see a lot of good from sending a copy of audit reports to that agency of the Legislature because, after all, what is it? It is a fact-finding body. It is the fact-finding body of the Legislature. It is the job of the Joint State Government Commission to analyze the expenditures of the various departments, boards and commissions of the Commonwealth, and if it does not have these audit reports available to it, it certainly cannot do the job.

I know that the bill propose to send this bill back to Committee will. Copies of the audit reports go to the Governor's Office. If you want to see a copy of an audit report, go to the Governor's Office and they will let you have it. Now how much trouble it is to do that. You have to get an appointment to get in, and if the audit reports are used over there, it just doesn't become a

Mr. President, the Auditor General's Department. The Auditor General's Department is the auditing department of this Commonwealth that spends over a billion dollars every year. At least, it has for the last two bienniums, called upon during this Session to appropriate two hundred million dollars for the next two years. What does the Auditor General's Department do? It does nothing more than audit the accounts of the various departments, boards and commissions that get and spend this money to determine just how it was spent. Are we going to say now that the fact-finding body of the Legislature that ought to have access to these figures when they need them cannot get copies of these reports? Why, to me that is silly and I am surprised by this action that was just taken.

We give the Joint State Government Commission, at least during the last biennium, we gave them two hundred fifty thousand dollars and a fifty thousand dollar deficiency appropriation to do a job for us. Frankly, if the Joint State Government Commission had these audit reports before it, perhaps they have developed a set of figures for us in connection with this budget that would not have been in this great difficulty that we are experiencing here.

Mr. President, I say again, I think the Joint State Government Commission ought to have these reports. As a matter of fact, I will tell you how this came about. There is a subcommittee functioning under the State Government Committee in connection with the bill to create an accountant general in Pennsylvania, and I happen to be on that committee, with Senator Diehm and Senator Wade, and we met up in the Joint State Government Commission after we came back from reviewing the system that they have in New Jersey. We wanted to discuss this bill to see how it could be amended to satisfy some of the objections. We invited Mr. Heyburn to this meeting, and during the course of the discussion we got on the question of audit reports, and it was at his suggestion he is the fellow that does the work, he is the fellow that will have to do the work—it was at his suggestion that this bill be drafted so that he would have authority to make an extra copy and send it to the Joint State Government Commission, so that there was agreement all around so far as the drafting of this bill is concerned.

I say it is a good bill, Members of this Senate, and I say the Joint State Government Commission ought to have this information, and I ask the Members of this Senate to vote against this motion to recommit and to pass this bill.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I pray the indulgence of the gentlemen of the Senate in discussing the motion, because of the rules of the Senate which prohibit debate on the subject matter now before us. Therefore I am somewhat embarrassed to discuss the matter in violation of the rules of the Senate; I am doubly embarrassed because I am a member of the Rules Committee, and I am thrice embarrassed because at the moment I happen to be Chairman of that Committee. Therefore, if the Senate will indulge me in the very bad form as Chairman of the Rules Committee violating the rules of the Senate, may I say to the gentleman, Senator Yosko, that the motion to recommit has nothing to do with discussing the merits of the bill. There is some factual information we would like to have the Committee get and discuss with the Chairman of the Committee. There is certainly no attempt on my part to permanently eliminate the legislation that is before the Senate under the heading of Senate Bill No. 664. The gentleman, Senator Yosko, of course, is a member of the State Government Committee, and I know he will be very constructive and alert in seeing to it that the necessary information is gathered.

Mr. President, there is no desire to kill the legislation. It is merely to promote the expeditious operation of gathering the information necessary to permit us to act on the bill, and if he will just give us his confidence in the matter, we will try to remedy some of the things that are troubling us. There is no attempt at all to kill the bill, Senator. We are sending it back until we get the information desired.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I join Senator Yosko in opposing the motion to send the bill back to committee, and although we have a great deal of confidence in the statement made by the Majority Leader that this bill is not being sent back to be killed but for possible amendment and further study, I think all of us know the usual fate of a bill that is as controversial as this may be when it is sent back to committee.

Mr. President, I might say that the proper parliamentary maneuver, if you want to amend or correct certain inequalities that may be in the bill, would be to have the bill go over in order to prepare the necessary changes. This is a very serious matter. I do not know how many men in the Senate paid attention to the letter that I just addressed to the Auditor General, but it seems a sad state of affairs when a Member of the Senate cannot get any information to help him determine whether or not the policies that are followed are proper for the people of the Commonwealth, or whether his vote is being cast in the best interests of the Commonwealth, unless he beseeches by letter and petitions personally to a cabinet officer, who can very readily discard the letter by throwing it in the wastebasket and carrying no weight whatsoever. The only reason I did not put it in the form of a resolution, Mr. President, was because the resolution would have been killed by placing it upon the table or sending it to committee.

Mr. President, I do not think that this Legislature can any longer ignore the facts as they present themselves to us every biennium. The House Ways and Means Committee of the Federal Congress receives a copy of every audit made of the Federal Budget in the Federal system of Government, and by receiving these audit reports against the Administration's wishes and against the Administration's recommendations, they were able to take $7,000,000,000 from the request of the President of the United States for needed appropriations. They did this by having before them the audits, and they discovered that they could cut 5½ billion dollars from the requested appropriation by the President, because the corporate net income was going to produce, from all indications, at least 5½ billion more than the estimate.

Mr. President, I believe Senator Yosko has given us an opportunity here to vote upon a piece of legislation to determine whether or not we are serious in trying to find out the budget problems of this Commonwealth and to resolve them to the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth.

Mr. President and Members of the Senate, there are many of us upon this Senate floor who have had a great deal of time to think over the past week that we were at home, and we are wondering whether or not we were right in our stand against the taxes, but how can we know whether we are right, no matter how sincere we try to be, if we do not have some sort of a record figure before us with the data that cannot be colored but must be factual?

Mr. President, I see by the records in the papers that the House has presented to the floor for a vote $60,000,000 worth of appropriations for the school teachers salary increases in the Commonwealth. Now, by inference it appears that the Members of the Democratic Party are against these increases. We do not know, Mr. President, whether there is sufficient money or whether we have to have new taxes to pay them this money. At this moment I want to say that under the present conditions, if that bill is passed by the House, and passed by the Senate and signed by the Governor, I for one will not let that legislation interfere with my thinking upon the tax situation in the Commonwealth, and unless we get this information from time to time, how can we vote intelligently?

Mr. President, I have petitioned the Auditor General to give me that information. If I get it, it will be available to every Member of the Senate. I know it will be factual if I can get it, I know it will be honest if I can get it, and I know that whatever is determined by the figures that he gives me will have to determine the policy of the twenty members of the Democratic Caucus who have allowed me to be their spokesman in this matter. I want it clearly understood that whether this bill is going back to be amended or whether it is going back to be killed, the same process of government is being served, to keep the Legislature in ignorance. The Legislature, since I have been in this Senate, has voted in ignorance when it comes to the budget problems of the Commonwealth. You say, "Why do you put it in the hands of the Joint State Government Commission?" Because the Joint State Government Commission was created as an arm of the Legislature, a fact-finding body, to give to us factual information to help us determine the right process and the right legislation to be passed for the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth, and, Mr. President, I say this advisedly, that unless we do have some agency that is beholden to the Members of the Legislature primarily, we cannot get the information that we must have.

Mr. President, already over the week-end I see two or three different stories coming out of the Budget Director's Office on how much the surplus will be. I might say at this moment that when I stood on the Senate floor two years ago I was roundly razed because I said the pop tax was not needed, that the surplus would be greater by two than what the pop tax would bring in, and I am happy to see, by the Budget Director's own figures, that I was right. The pop people and the children of Pennsylvania were assessed a twenty-seven million dollar tax that under the Constitution, they should not and could not have been taxed if we would have been in possession of the knowledge that we are trying to get here and the facts that we have to have.

Mr. President, Senator Yosko's bill ought to stay upon the Calendar. I do not say it is perfect. There may be some changes that have to be made to make it workable, but let us make the changes here within the bright light of the Senate and not deep down in the recesses of a committee that I assure this Senate will see to it that the bill will never see the light of day again, because I have been here too long to be fooled by that one.

I think the time has come when the Executive Branch of Government must no longer interfere with the Legislative Branch when it is trying to get the information necessary to follow the recommendations of the Executive Branch. How many men in this room know how much money has come in as of June 1st on the corporate net income tax? How many persons in this room know that there are discrepancies that appear in the budget that show the different collections for the same tax item and the same budget figures? How can we be sure of what we are doing? We are not reaching out, Mr. President, at this time and just taxing on the old basis. We are trying to pass new taxation in Pennsylvania, and before we step into new taxation, I for one, and speaking for twenty Democratic Senators, will vote against every piece of new tax legislation until we get the facts to know whether or not the money is needed, and when it is given to the various departments, where it is spent.

Why, Mr. President, we have information that shows that some of the budgetary appropriations for various departments were as much as 75% underspent as of the first of January, 1951, and yet right now, in June, we are asked to pass appropriations in a like or greater amount for the same departments. How can we justify our position before the people when we completely ignore the facts and do not take into consideration the things that we ought to have? No member of this Senate is qualified to vote on the budget or upon the tax program for Pennsylvania unless he is in possession, or an agency of the Senate, such as the Joint State Government Commission, is in possession of the information needed to give us the right road to travel. I for one oppose with all the strength at my command this motion to send this bill back to committee and I think that it would be disastrous to have this become a strict party vote, showing, if you vote that way, that the Republicans know what is right but the Democrats do what is right.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I just want to make this one further observation. We appropriated in the last biennium to the Department of the Auditor General $2,120,000 to compile facts and figures relative to appropriations that we made to the departments, boards and commissions for the last two years. Are we going to say now after these figures are compiled, and they are compiled, after spending this money to compile these figures, that the arm of the Legislature, the Joint State Government Commission, should be denied this information so that they could compile some statistics for the information of the Legislature?

Mr. President, I repeat, if this bill is sent back to committee, it is just plain silly.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, speaking on behalf of one who is not only silly but ignorant, may I say to the gentleman, and I say this in all kindness, that the thought that the bill is going to be killed I do not think merits serious consideration, because in my preliminary remarks, Mr. President, I very carefully told the gentleman from Northampton that under no circumstances were we sending the bill back to be killed. I think the gentleman fully realizes the fact that there is no party line in the desire of Members of the General Assembly to obtain all information possible with regard to every problem upon which we are called upon to vote, especially the fiscal picture which has caused considerable debate, confusion and a variety of statements here on Capitol Hill.

Mr. President, if the gentleman from Northampton will just bear with us, I say to him again in all seriousness that this does not mean that the bill is killed. We are seriously trying to get some information, and I think that the thing could be handled much better in committee than on the floor.

I think the gentleman from Westmoreland will agree with me that we have a somewhat unanimity of purpose in attempting to obtain information that will guide us both in making statements on the floor that will stand up like a strong pillar, regardless of the passage of time, and for that reason I again say to the gentleman from Northampton, directly, so that indirectly my voice bounces on over to the gentleman from Westmoreland, if he will bear with me, I assure him this bill is not being sent back to be killed. It is being sent back so that an adequate picture can be presented to both the Democratic and Republican Caucuses so that they can fully act on the bill.

Mr. President, I appreciate the information given to us by the gentleman from Northampton with regard to the position of the Auditor General, and I appreciate the fiscal comments of the gentleman from Westmoreland, but again may I say to you, gentlemen, this bill is not being sent back for the purpose of being killed.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Walker.

The PRESIDING OFFICER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Walker, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WALKER. It is always a pleasure, Mr. President.

Mr. DENT. Senator Walker, if the bill is sent back to committee and the committee refuses to bring it to the floor again, what can you do to help keep your promise that this bill is not going to be killed?

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I appreciate the tenor of the question, and may I say to the gentleman, that it is a smirch on the escutcheon of my record, the idea of the gentleman suggesting that I have fallen so low in stature that the distinguished gentleman who is the Chairman of that Committee, will not listen to the recommendations of the Majority Floor Leader.

Mr. President, may I say to the gentleman from Westmoreland that every Republican on that committee will be very happy to follow out any recommendation that is made by their Leader.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, I appreciate the very frank answer, and just as frankly I will say to him, "My dear John, the bill is going back to be killed."

And the question recurring,

Will the Senate agree to the motion?

Mr. BARR. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

Mr. LANE. Mr. President, I ask for a roll call.

The yeas and nays were required by Mr BARR and Mr. LANE and were as follows, viz:

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

MONDAY, June 4, 1951

The House met at 3:30 p. m. EST.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Reverend William Hugh Fryer, offered the following prayer:

Grant to us, Lord, we beseech Thee, a clearer vision and a more steadfast will; save us from indolence that shrinks from labor, the carelessness which takes no heed of great issues, and the fear which will not face the tasks that seem too hard for us. Give us the spirit of sacrifice, that we may be willing to spend and be spent in the service of our fellowmen; through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The SPEAKER. Are there any corrections to the Journal of Friday, May 25, 1951? If not, and without objection, the Journal is approved.

NOT VOTING—1

Jones, P. F.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 752, entitled:

An Act to add Section 3 to the act approved the nineteenth day of May one thousand eight hundred eighty-seven (P. L. 138) entitled "An act providing for payment of costs in criminal cases by the proper county" by making costs payable by the county to aldermen and justices of the peace due and payable at the end of each calendar month

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Crawford, Mr. Kent, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. KENT. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to ask the gentleman if he will explain the reason back of this bill. What is being accomplished by it?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, under the present law when a justice of peace or an alderman has a complaint or an information sworn out before him on a criminal case, and he then disposes of it and binds the defendant over to court, he is compelled to wait until the case is disposed of by the County court until he can recover his costs.

He is through with the case when he sends his transcript to the Clerk of Courts, and in many cases he is compelled to wait several months or even a year before he can collect his costs, even though his services have been completed. In many cases the case is never disposed of and he never gets his costs.

These bills simply put it on a current basis so that every month he can collect the costs which are due him on the cases for which he has filed the transcripts both in case of misdemeanors and felonies.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell me whether the county controller does not audit these costs which are put on record in connection with the return of the cases by the alderman and justice of peace?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I believe that is correct. In my county the County Solicitor audits and approves the cost sheets which are submitted by the aldermen.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, would not the gentleman agree then that it would be rather impractical to require the payment of these costs at the end of the month in which the cases are returned? Would it not be better to allow a period of about thirty days so that these might be properly audited before they are paid out?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, I cannot agree with that. I cannot see the difference between a thirty day period and a month. The County Solicitor would be available to audit them upon request at any time.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, what I am trying to point out to the gentleman—and I will put it in the form of a question—as I read the bill these costs must be paid to the alderman or justice of peace who returns the case at the end of the calendar month in which he returned them. If the case is returned two days before the end of a month, does your bill not require payment of those costs two days later?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, that is right.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, do you not think that that would interfere with the orderly method of auditing these matters before they are paid? For example, suppose an alderman would return costs on seven different warrants issued to the same person in a case where they might have been consolidated into two warrants, which I believe is one of the functions of the audit. Do you not believe there should be some lapse of time—more than two days before the cases are returned and the costs are paid?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, in some circumstances it might be; I would not be prepared to say that it would not be.

However, my experience has been that all you have to do is to walk into the County Solicitor's office and he will look it over and audit it immediately and either approve it or disapprove it. It is not anything that requires a great period of time.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, would the gentleman agree to have House Bill 752 and House Bill 754 passed over until tomorrow?

Mr. KENT. Mr. Speaker, yes, I will be glad to.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will withdraw its decision to the bill having been agreed to on third reading.

BILLS PASSED OVER

There being no objection

House Bill No. 752, Printer's No. 386 and

were passed over at the request of Mr. KENT.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 996, as follows:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Woodville State Hospital to sell at public sale and convey a certain tract of land in Collier Township Allegheny County Pennsylvania owned by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and providing for the disposition of the proceeds of the purchase monies. The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 The Secretary of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of the Woodville State Hospital is hereby authorized on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to sell at public sale to the highest bidder and to make and execute a deed conveying the following herein described tract of land now used in conjunction with the Woodville State Hospital situate in Collier Township Allegheny County Pennsylvania

All that certain parcel or tract of land situate in Collier Township Allegheny County Pennsylvania more particularly described as follows to wit

Beginning at the corner common to land now of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania (Woodville State Hospital) and land now of the Duquesne Light Company thence by line of land of the Duquesne Light Company South 77° 25' East a distance of 186.65 feet a point on the side line of State Highway Legislative Route No. 108 thence in a southerly direction by the side line of said State Highway Legislative Route No. 108 by the arc of a circle bearing to the right having a radius of 3244.17 feet for an arc distance of 270.50 feet to a point thence through land of which this is a part the following two bearings and distances North 77° 25' West for a distance of 172.35 feet to a point and North 12° 35' East 270.00 feet to the point of the place of beginning containing an area of 1.125 acres title to which became vested in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by virtue of the Act of Assembly approved the 29th day of September one thousand nine hundred thirty-eight

Section 2 The monies received as the purchase price shall be paid into the General Fund of the State Treasury

Section 3 The deed of conveyance shall be approved by the Department of Justice and shall be executed by the Secretary of Property and Supplies in the name of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate one of the sponsors of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will one of the sponsors of the bill permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman tell us what the difference is between this bill and House Bill 933 on page 14 of the calendar which we passed a few minutes ago?

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Mr. Speaker, the first bill is for the sale of approximately an acre of land, good farm land adjoining the present Duquesne Light Company, for which they have agreed to pay $5,000 an acre of land worth approximately $800. The other is for about 12 acres of land which floods about four times every year—impossible to work. The purchaser desires it as a place to fill for his concrete plant works, which will return that 12 acres to the tax list of Collier Township.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, do I understand that these are two different tracts of land?

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Mr. Speaker, they are two different tracts of land. There are 1400 acres at Woodville. This is on the front and these two pieces of land are approximately a mile apart.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haudenshield.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Haudenshield, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Mr. Speaker, I shall be delighted I am sure.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, the bill as originally drawn, as I recall, provided for a sale to the Duquesne Light Company.

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Yes sir.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, has that been eliminated?

Mr. HAUDENSHIELD. Mr. Speaker, that has been eliminated and the Duquesne Light Company will have to bid along with any others that may come in; the same with the other piece of land to the Concrete Products Company.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

NOT VOTING—1

Jones, P. F.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 1282, as follows:

An Act authorizing the courts of common pleas of the several counties upon application therefor to place documents defined as historical documents in the custody of certain associations maintaining facilities for public display of historical writings conferring powers and imposing duties on county officers

Section 1 As used in this act the term "historical document" means any document which is at least fifty (50) years old and which is in the custody of a county office

Section 2 Any non-profit public quasi-public or private association incorporated or unincorporated situated within the county where the historical documents are filed which maintains a museum building or facilities used for the exhibit of historical writings and which shall have adequate facilities for the display and preservation of such documents may petition the court of common pleas of the county wherein such document or documents are filed for the transfer of the custody of such documents for the purpose of their public display Upon the filing of any petition the court shall fix a time for a hearing and prescribe such notice to be given as shall acquaint similar organizations with the filing of the petition

Section 3 After the filing of such petition any other association meeting the requirements set forth in section two may intervene as a party petitioner with the same effect as if it had been the original petitioner and the court after hearing may award custody of any historical document or documents to any such association for such term and upon such conditions as the court shall prescribe

Section 4 Upon the granting of a petition transferring custody of any historical documents the officer having custody of such document shall substitute in his files a certified copy of such document which shall be of the same force and effect as the original document

Section 5 In the event that any association to which custody of an historical document has been transferred ceases to exhibit and properly preserve such document the officer in whose office such document was originally filed may petition the court of common pleas for the termination of the custody of such document by such association and if it be determined that such document has not been publicly exhibited and adequately preserved the court shall order its return to the proper county office

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Jurisdiction and Powers

Section 201 Register's Jurisdiction Within the county for which he has been elected or appointed the register shall have jurisdiction of the probate of wills the grant of letters to a personal representative and any other matter as provided by law

Section 202 Deputy Register Every register shall appoint a deputy or two deputies who shall have power to perform the duties of the office in his behalf and for whose conduct he and his surety shall be accountable. In case of a vacancy in the office of register the first deputy shall exercise all the powers of the register until a successor is appointed or elected

Section 203 Witnesses Testimony The register shall have power to

(1) Subpoenas Issue a subpoena to any person in any county of the Commonwealth to appear or produce papers or records before him

(2) Administering Oaths Administer oaths and affirmations to parties and witnesses appearing before him and to designate any clerk or clerks in his employ to administer such oaths and affirmations to parties and witnesses appearing before them

(3) Depositions Issue commissions or rules to take the depositions of witnesses in another county or outside of the Commonwealth The practice relating thereto shall conform to the practice in the local orphans' court

Section 204 Witness Fees Witnesses appearing before the register in obedience to the register's subpoena shall be entitled to the same fees and mileage as are allowed by law to witnesses in the orphans' court

Section 205 Enforcement of Subpoenas Orders and Costs Should any person refuse to comply with any subpoena or order of the register or to pay all costs the register shall forthwith certify the record of the proceedings to the court The court upon petition of any party in interest shall compel payment of the costs and shall enforce obedience to the subpoena or order in the same manner as in cases of subpoenas and orders issued or made by the court

Section 206 Caveat

(a) Bond When a caveat has been filed the register shall not delay the probate of a will or the grant of letters for more than ten days after the filing of the petition for probate or for grant of letters or after the filing of the caveat which ever shall be later unless within such ten-day period a party in interest shall file with the register his bond in the name of the Commonwealth with sufficient surety in such amount not less than five hundred dollars or more than five thousand dollars as the register considers necessary conditioned for the payment of any costs which may be decreed against the caveator

(b) Failure to Give Bond If no bond is filed within the ten-day period the caveat shall be considered abandoned except as the register for cause shown shall extend the time

(c) Costs The register or the court upon appeal shall determine the amount of costs occasioned by a caveat and direct by whom they shall be paid If all or part of the costs shall be finally decreed to be paid by the caveator any party interested in the costs may bring suit on the caveator's bond as provided by law

Section 207 Certification of Records to Court Whenever a caveat shall be filed or a dispute shall arise before the register concerning the probate of a will the grant of letters or the performance of any other function by the register he may certify or the court upon petition of any party in interest may direct the register at any stage of the proceeding to certify the entire record to the court which shall proceed to a determination of the issue in dispute No letters of administration pendente lite shall be granted by the register after proceedings have been removed to the court except by leave of court

Section 208 Appeals

(a) When Allowed Any party in interest who is aggrieved by a decree of the register or a fiduciary whose estate or trust is so aggrieved may appeal therefrom to the court within two years of the decree provided that the executor designated in an instrument shall not by virtue of such designation be deemed a party in interest who may appeal from a decree refusing probate of it The court upon petition of a party in interest may limit the time for appeal to six months

(b) Bond Anyone appealing from a decree of the register shall within ten days after filing his appeal file with the register his bond in the name of the Commonwealth with sufficient surety in such amount not less than five hundred dollars or more than five thousand dollars as the register considers necessary conditioned for the payment of any costs that may be decreed against him If no bond is filed within the ten-day period the appeal shall be considered abandoned

(c) Effect of Appeal No appeal from a decree of the register shall suspend the powers or prejudice the acts of a personal representative to whom letters have been granted

(d) Excepted Appeals This section shall not apply to appeals for inheritance tax purposes nor to appeals specially regulated by law

Section 209 Bill of Costs The court may establish a bill of costs to be charged for the services of the register not otherwise provided by law

Probate

Section 301 Place of Probate The will of a decedent domiciled in the Commonwealth at the time of his death shall be probated only before the register of the county where the decedent had his last family or principal residence If the decedent had no domicile in the Commonwealth his will may be probated before the register of any county where any of his property is located

Section 302 Manner of Probate All wills shall be proved by the oaths or affirmations of two competent witnesses and

(1) Will Signed by Testator In the case of a will to which the testator signed his name proof by subscribing witnesses if there are such shall be preferred to the extent that they are readily available and proof of the signature of the testator shall be preferred to proof of the signature of a subscribing witness

(2) Will Signed by Mark or by Another In the case of a will signed by mark or by another in behalf of the testator the proof must be by subscribing witnesses except to the extent that the register is satisfied that such proof cannot be adduced by the exercise of reasonable diligence In that event other proof of the execution of the will including proof of the subscribers' signatures may be accepted and proof of the signature of a witness who has subscribed to an attestation clause shall be prima facie proof that the facts recited in the attestation clause are true

(3) Nuncupative Will In the case of a nuncupative will the witnesses shall have been present when the will was declared and shall have reduced it to writing or directed it to be reduced to writing

Section 303 Limit of Time for Probate

(a) Original Probate A will other than a nuncupative will may be offered for probate at any time

(b) Conclusiveness of Original Probate The probate of a will shall be conclusive as to all property real or personal devised or bequeathed by it unless an appeal shall be taken from the probate as provided in Section 208

(c) Effect Upon Grantee or Mortgagee A will offered for original or subsequent probate more than two years after the decedent's death shall be void against a bona fide grantee or mortgagee of real estate of the decedent if the conveyance or mortgage is recorded before the will is offered for probate This subsection shall not apply to a will of a person dying before the effective date of this act offered for original probate within three years after the decedent's death

Section 304 Nuncupative Wills A nuncupative will shall not be admitted to probate nor shall letters thereon be issued unless notice has first been given to those who would be entitled to the estate in case of intestacy

Section 305 Wills in Foreign Language A writing not in English shall not be filed for probate or for any other purpose in the office of the register unless there is attached to it and filed with it a translation into English sworn to be correct The register shall attach the translation to the original and shall file them in his office and in all cases where a recording is now or hereafter may be required both the original and the translation shall be recorded A writing filed in violation of this section shall not constitute notice to any person

Section 306 Wills Probated Outside the Commonwealth A duly authenticated copy of a will proved outside of the Commonwealth according to the law of the place of probate may be offered for probate before any register having jurisdiction and letters testamentary or of administration with a will annexed may be granted thereon as though the original will had been offered before such register If in addition to such copy there shall be produced a duly authenticated copy of the record of the probate proceeding of the original instrument the will shall be entitled to probate in this Commonwealth and appropriate letters shall be issued thereon without the production or examination of the witnesses to prove such will unless the record shows or it is satisfactorily proved that an essential requirement of Pennsylvania law for a valid will has not been met In such event the probate proceedings may be supplemented by the submission of additional evidence to the register

Section 307 Enforcing Production of Will The register at the request of any party in interest shall issue a citation to any person alleged to have possession or control of a will of a decedent requiring him to show cause why it should not be deposited with him In the absence of good cause shown the register shall order the will to be deposited with him

Letters—Accounts

Section 401 Bonds of Personal Representatives If any register shall grant letters without having taken such bond as may be required by law he and his surety shall be liable to pay all damages which shall accrue to any person by reason thereof Nothing herein stated shall be deemed to relieve the personal representative from liability which would otherwise be imposed upon him by law

Section 402 Revocation of Letters

(a) When No Will The register may revoke letters of administration granted by him whenever it appears that the person to whom letters were granted is not entitled thereto

(b) When A Will The register may amend or revoke letters testamentary or of administration granted by him not in conformity with the provisions of a will admitted to probate

Section 403 Transmission of Accounts to the Court All accounts filed with the register shall be transmitted to the court for audit and confirmation on dates fixed by the court by general rule or special order and shall be advertised as required by law

ARTICLE V

Records and Certified Copies

Section 501 Wills All probated wills shall be indexed and recorded by the register and shall remain in his office except for the period required to be in the custody of a higher court The recording may be accomplished by photographic or other mechanical process

Section 502 Inventories and Appraisements The register shall index and record all inventories and appraisements filed with him The recording may be accomplished by photographic or other mechanical process

Section 503 Certified Copies Every register upon the request of any person paying the fee therefor shall make and certify under the seal of his office true copies of his records or of papers filed with him or of proceedings before him Such certified copies shall be as good evidence as the original in any judicial proceeding in the Commonwealth

Section 504 Recording Proceedings in Another County Copies of wills and probate proceedings and records of the grant of letters of administration and any lawful action taken pursuant thereto duly certified by the register may be filed in the office of the register in any county where real estate of the testator is located The register with whom such papers are filed shall forthwith record the same and the record thereof shall be as valid and effectual in law as the original will after probate or its duly certified copy or its record would be for all purposes of vesting title of evidence and of notice

ARTICLE VI

Repealer

NOT VOTING—1

Jones, P. F.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 119, as follows:

An Act regulating the suspension removal furloughing and reinstatement of police officers in boroughs and townships of the first class having police forces of less than three members and in townships of the second class

The General Assembly of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania hereby enacts as follows

Section 1 This act shall apply to each township of the second class to each borough and township of the first class having a police force of less than three members and not subject to sections one thousand one hundred sixty-five through one thousand one hundred ninety of the act approved the fourth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519) known as "The Borough Code" and their amendments nor to sections six hundred twenty-five through six hundred fifty of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206) known as "The First Class Township Code" and their amendments

Section 2 Removals No person employed as a regular full time police officer in any police department of any township of the second class or any borough or township of the first class within the scope of this act shall be suspended or removed except for the following reasons (1) physical or mental disability affecting his ability to continue in service in which cases the person shall receive an honorable discharge from service (2) neglect or violation of any official duty (3) violating of any law of this Commonwealth which provides that such violation constitutes a misdemeanor or felony (4) inefficiency neglect intemperance disobedience of orders or conduct unbecoming an officer (5) intoxication while on duty A person so employed shall not be removed for religious racial or political reasons A written statement of any charges made against any person so employed shall be furnished to such person within five days after the same are filed

Section 3 Reduction in Number of Police If for reasons of economy or other reasons it shall be deemed necessary by any township of the second class or any borough or township of the first class within the scope of this act to reduce the number of paid employes of the police department then such political subdivision shall apply the following procedure (a) If there are any employes eligible for retirement under the terms of any retirement or pension law then such reduction in numbers shall be made by retirement if the party to be retired is sixty-five years of age or over (b) If the number of paid employes in the police force eligible to retirement is sufficient to effect the necessary reduction in number or if there are no persons eligible for retirement or if no retirement or pension fund exists then the reduction shall be effected by furloughing the man or men including probationers last appointed to said police force Such removal shall be accomplished by furloughing in numerical order commencing with the man last appointed until such reduction shall have been accomplished In the event the said police force shall again be increased the employes furloughed shall be reinstated in the order of their seniority in the service

Section 4 Hearings on Dismissals If the person sought to be suspended or removed shall demand a public hearing the demand shall be made to the appointing authority Such person may make written answers to any charges filed against him The appointing authority shall grant him a public hearing which shall be held within a period of ten days from the filing of charges in writing and written answers thereto filed within five days and may be continued by the appointing authority for cause or at the request of the accused At any such hearing the person against whom the charges are made may be present in person and by counsel The appointing authority may suspend any such person without pay pending the determination of the charges against him but in the event the appointing authority fails to uphold the charges then the person sought to be suspended or removed shall be reinstated with full pay for the period during which he was suspended and no charges shall be officially recorded against his record No order of suspension made by the appointing authority shall be for a longer period than one year

A written record of all testimony taken at such hearings shall be filed with and preserved by the appointing authority which record shall be sealed and not be available for public inspection in the event the charges are dismissed

Section 5 The suspended or dismissed employe shall have the right to appeal to the court of common pleas of the county in which he was employed

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

NOT VOTING—1

Jones, P. P.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senat Bill No. 126, entitled:

An Act to amend the act approved the seventeenth day of May one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 682) entitled "An act relating to insurance amending revising and consolidating the law providing for the incorporation of insurance companies and the regulation supervision and protection of home and foreign insurance companies Lloyds associations reciprocal and inter-insurance exchanges and fire insurance rating bureaus and the regulation and supervision of insurance carried by such companies associations and exchanges including insurance carried, by the State Workmen's Insurance Fund providing penalties and repealing existing laws" by further regulating insurance companies associations and inter-insurance exchanges and their powers investments policy provisions joint policies premium tax returns the licensing of foreign companies and repealing existing law.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I rise to ascertain from anyone who knows, first, whether this is a Department bill, and second, what it is designed to do?

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, this bill contains rather extensive amendments to the present insurance company law.

At the public hearing on this bill, I think about an hour of time was consumed explaining each detailed amendment. These amendments were agreed to by the Department and by all segments of the insurance industry. They affect the public little but rather affect the working of the Department and the insurance companies in the interest of the public.

It would be time consuming for me to try and tell you what all the amendments are. I will be glad to explain the most important amendments in detail if the Minority Leader so desires.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like to know the meaning of the ominous clause "not specifically designated in the code." What does that mean?

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, I will have to get the bill, I am sorry I do not have it. Just a moment. Now, if you will give me the page and line number.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I just have a memorandum on the bill. I trust the gentleman's memory.

The exact language is, "and not specifically designated in the code," and it deals with a clause concerning risks that are not specifically mentioned in the code. I do not have the line.

Mr. STIMMEL. Mr. Speaker, I regret that unless I know to what section that applies, I cannot very well give the definition. May I say that all through this bill you will find it quite technical. I do not know if I can answer each specific question of the gentleman at a moment's notice.

If the gentleman desires to have this bill passed over and discuss it with me separately so that I can be prepared to answer each question, I shall be glad to do so.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I will be very glad to prepare my questions in writing and submit them to the gentleman.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 153, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 209 of Article II of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 364) entitled "An act relating to business corporations defining and providing for the organization merger consolidation reorganization winding up and dissolution of such corporations conferring certain rights powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and shareholders prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the second class within the provisions of this act prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign business corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas and certain State departments commissions and officers authorizing certain State departments boards commissions or officers to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations" by authorizing cemetery and burial corporations to transfer trust funds to corporate fiduciaries with the approval of the Orphans' Court and by providing for the filing of accounts by such fiduciaries and the audit and confirmation thereof by said court

Section 1 Section 209 of Article II of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 364) entitled "An act relating to business corporations defining and providing for the organization merger consolidation reorganization winding up and dissolution of such corporations conferring certain rights powers duties and immunities upon them and their officers and shareholders prescribing the conditions on which such corporations may exercise their powers providing for the inclusion of certain existing corporations of the second class within the provisions of this act prescribing the terms and conditions upon which foreign business corporations may be admitted or may continue to do business within the Commonwealth conferring powers and imposing duties on the courts of common pleas and certain State departments commissions and officers authorizing certain State departments boards commissions or officers to collect fees for services required to be rendered by this act imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts relating to corporations" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 209 Cemetery and Burial Corporations In the case of the incorporation of a cemetery or burial corporation as a business corporation the articles shall in addition to the information heretofore required by this article contain a provision that a sum equal to at least one-tenth of the gross amount of the funds arising from the sale of lots in the burial ground or cemetery of the corporation shall be set apart for the perpetual care and preservation of the grounds and the repair and renewal of the buildings and property of such corporation that such sum shall be invested by the board of directors in securities which are legal investments for trustees under the laws of this Commonwealth and that the income arising therefrom shall be applied by the board of directors to the foregoing purposes Provided however That any such cemetery or burial corporation may by appropriate action of its stockholders and board of directors and with the approval of the Orphans' Court of the county in which the cemetery or burial grounds are situated transfer any of such funds to one or more bank or trust companies trust companies or national banking associations having fiduciary powers as trustee and with like investment restrictions said transfer to be either revocable or absolute and irrevocable and upon the transfer of any such funds the cemetery or burial corporation shall be relieved of all liability for the investment and reinvestment thereof The corporate trustee shall pay semi-annually the net income from the said funds to the cemetery or burial corporation for the purposes above expressed and shall file accounts in the Orphans' Court of the county in which the cemetery grounds are situated which accounts shall be filed triennially and at such other times as the said court may direct and which accounts shall be audited adjudicated and confirmed by said court upon such notice to the parties in interest as the said court may determine

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon its final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Section 1 Section 620 of the act approved the fifth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-three (P. L. 457) entitled "An act relating to the business of building and loan associations providing for the organization and voluntary dissolution of such associations defining the rights powers duties liabilities and immunities of such associations and of their officers directors shareholders solicitors and other employees prohibiting the transaction of business in this Commonwealth by foreign building and loan associations conferring powers and imposing duties upon the courts of recorders of deeds and certain State departments commissions and officers establishing limitations of actions imposing penalties and repealing certain acts and parts of acts" as last amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 485) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 620 Reserve for Contingent Losses Every association shall set aside each year not less than five per centum and not more than [twenty] twenty-five per centum of its net profits for such year unless the department in writing approves the setting aside of a lesser or a greater amount as a reserve for contingent losses until the total amount of such reserve shall equal at least five per centum and not more than twenty per centum of the assets of such association unless the department in writing approves the creation of a total reserve of a lesser or a greater amount The department may at any time require any association to set aside such additional amount as the department shall deem necessary to safeguard the interests of the shareholders of such association Such reserve for contingent losses may be loaned or invested in the same manner as is authorized by this act in the case of other funds of the association

If due to a reduction of the assets of an association or due to any other cause whatsoever the reserve for contingent losses shall exceed twenty per centum of the assets of the association or if the department has authorized or directed the creation of a reserve for contingent losses in excess of such twenty per centum and such reserve exceeds such amount authorized or directed by the department the amount above such twenty per centum or such other amount as has been authorized or directed by the department shall be transferred at the next regular meeting of the board of directors to the general profit account of the association

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

An Act to further amend section four hundred eleven of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by changing the shooting restrictions on regulated shooting grounds

Section 1 Section four hundred eleven of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An Act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" as last amended by the act approved the eighth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 409) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 411 Shooting Restrictions on Regulated Grounds Such permits shall entitle the holder or holders thereof and their guests to kill or take by shooting only not to exceed seventy-five per centum of the pheasants bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission and chukar partridges and ninety per centum of the mallard or black ducks propagated or purchased and released on the premises each year said propagation or release to be established to the satisfaction of the commission

All game birds released on said regulated shooting grounds shall be full-winged and fully able to care for themselves in a wild state and wherever the commission deems it desirable all mature birds released shall bear a metal leg band of a type approved by it Such propagated or released birds may be taken without regard to sex or age or daily or season bag limits so long as not more than the specified percentages herein enumerated are taken during the shooting period below authorized

(a) The period for taking domestically produced pheasants bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission [and] chukar partridges and mallard or black ducks more than two generations removed from the wild on regulated shooting grounds in areas where wild ringneck pheasant sand bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission thrive and normally produce a shootable supply of such birds shall begin on the date and hour of the general State-wide open season for [small] such game birds as fixed by the act or the commission and continue [tol] through the [thirty-first] last day of [December inclusive] February next following Sundays excepted unless otherwise provided in paragraph (b) below

(b) The period for taking such ringneck pheasants bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission [and] chukar partridges and mallard or black ducks more than two generations removed from the wild on regulated shooting grounds established in areas [other than those stipulated in paragraph (a) above] where wild ringneck pheasants and bobwhite quail of the subspecies approved by the commission do not thrive and normally produce a shootable supply of such birds or which are commercially operated and are open to public use shall [be fixed by the commission without regard to the general State-wide open season for small game the period so fixed to be certified to the holders of such permits at least thirty days in advance of the season]

(c) The period for taking domestically produced mallard or black ducks less than two generations removed from the wild on all regulated shooting grounds [unless otherwise fixed and so certified by the commission] shall conform with the season established for waterfowl hunting by Federal regulations in effect for the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania

All species of game other than those specified found on the premises covered by such regulated shooting grounds permits may be taken on said premises only under the general provisions of the law governing seasons bag limits etc

Every person hunting on such regulated shooting grounds or participating in a shoot held under a regulated shooting grounds permit shall be possessed of a resident or nonresident hunter's license for the current year as required by law

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House has passed the same with amendments in which the concurrence of the Senate is requested.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 426, as follows:

An Act to amend section seven hundred twenty-one of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by changing the period for retriever trials

Section 1 Section seven hundred twenty-one of the act approved the third day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1225) entitled "An act concerning game and other wild birds and wild animals and amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 721 Permits for Retriever Trials It shall be lawful to hold field meets or trials for retrieving dogs where the skill of such animals is demonstrated by retrieving dead and wounded game birds or animals which have been propagated or otherwise legally acquired and released on the day of the trials on premises owned or controlled by the club or individual conducting same and shot for such purpose at any time during daylight hours Sundays excepted from the [fifteenth] first day of October to the thirty-first day of [December] March next following after having secured a permit as herein required

Such permits may be issued by the director upon proper application and the payment of a fee of ten dollars for each day upon which such trials shall be conducted A representative of the commission shall supervise all such trials and enforce any rules and regulations of the commission governing the same

Such permits shall authorize the holders thereof to kill all of the birds or animals specifically released by the permittee on the day of the trials or from the hand while the trials are in progress under the observation of an official representative of the commission

The person or persons designated by the committee in charge to do the shooting for such trials shall be known as the official gun or guns and no other person shall be permitted to kill or attempt to kill any of the birds or animals released for such trials Birds or animals so released may be killed during the above period without regard to sex or numbers

Before any game killed under the provisions of this section shall be consumed on the premises or removed therefrom the official representative of the commission shall attach a tag to each birds or animal killed such tags to be numbered consecutively and supplied by the commission at reasonable cost and shall contain such information as the commission may require Said tags shall remain attached to the individual birds or animals until prepared for consumption and shall not be used more than once

It is unlawful for any person to hold conduct or to participate in a retriever trial before the permit required by this section has been secured or for any person to possess or remove from the shooting grounds any birds or animals killed which have not been tagged as herein required or for any person to sell or purchase or attempt to sell or purchase any birds or animals killed in conformity with the provisions of this section

Participants in such a recognized retriever trial shall not be required to be possessed of either a hunter's license or a tag while participating in such trial

Any person who shall violate any provisions of this section shall upon conviction be sentenced to pay a fine of fifty dollars and costs of prosecution for each offense

Section 2 The provisions of this act shall become effective immediately upon final enactment

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 433, Printer's No. 252
was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 464, as follows:

An Act to add Section 17.1 to the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1092) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for service of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repealing existing laws" by regulating the amendment of article of incorporation and providing for fees

Section 1 The act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1092) entitled "An act defining fraternal benefit societies and their status authorizing such societies to create subordinate lodges and to pay benefits to members and their beneficiaries from funds collected and regulating such benefits and collections providing for the organization and incorporation of such societies and for their supervision regulation and examination by the Insurance Commissioner and for the admission of foreign societies designating tables of mortality as a basis for rates of contribution requiring all societies to make annual and other reports and appointing the Insurance Commissioner as attorney for services of process providing penalties for any violations of the act exempting such societies from taxation and certain other societies from its provisions and requiring beneficial associations other than fraternal benefit societies to report to and be supervised by the Insurance Commissioner and repealing existing laws" is hereby amended by adding after Section 17 thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 17.1 Amendment of Articles of Incorporation Authorized Any domestic fraternal benefit society subject to the provisions of this act in the manner hereinafter provided may amend its articles of incorporation for any purposes not inconsistent with the provisions of this act Provided however That such society at its option may change the location of its principal office in the manner prescribed in section thirty-seven of this act

First Before articles of amendment are filed with the Secretary of the Commonwealth a resolution authorizing the proposed amendment or amendments shall be adopted by the supreme legislative or governing body of the society at a regular or special meeting duly convened in the manner prescribed in its constitution and laws for making amendments to its constitution or laws The resolution shall contain the language of the proposed amendment or amendments by providing that the original articles of incorporation and all amendments thereto if any shall be amended so as to read as therein set forth in full or that any provision thereof shall be amended so as to read as therein set forth in full or that the matter stated in the resolution be added to or stricken from the articles of incorporation

Second Articles of amendment shall be executed in duplicate under the seal of the society and signed and attested by at least two duly authorized officers thereof and shall set forth

(1) The name of the society and the address including street and number if any of its principal office

(2) The act of Assembly under which the society was formed the date when the Governor approved the articles of incorporation and caused letters patent to issue the dates and places where the original articles of incorporation were recorded and a reference by book and page number to the particular record books kept in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth and in the office of the county recorder of deeds respectively wherein the original articles of incorporation were recorded Provided however that in the event the society was incorporated by a decree of court then and in such case the articles of amendment shall set forth the name and location of the court the court term and number of the case the date when the court signed the decree of incorporation and the date when and place where the original articles of incorporation were recorded and a reference by book and page number to the particular record book kept in the office of the county recorder of deeds wherein the original articles of incorporation were recorded

(3) The time and place of the meeting of the supreme legislative or governing body of the society and the total vote for and against by which the resolution authorizing the articles of amendment was adopted which approval vote shall be not less than the vote required to amend the constitution and laws of the society

(4) The text of the resolution

Third If a proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation is for the purpose of changing the corporate name the society shall first make application to the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the registration of the proposed new corporate name The application shall set forth the name of the society and the address including street and number if any of its principal office the date on which the Governor approved the articles of incorporation and caused letters patent to issue the act under which it was incorporated and the new corporate name which the society desires to use Provided however That in the event the society was incorporated by a decree of court then and in such case the application shall set forth the name of the society and the address including street and number if any of its principal office the name and location of the court the court term and number of the case the date on which the court signed the decree of incorporation the act under which the society was incorporated and the proposed new corporate name which the society desires to use If the Secretary of the Commonwealth finds that the proposed new name is available for corporate use he shall register and reserve the name for a period of six months (6) months and shall issue to the society a certificate that the proposed new corporate name has been duly registered If the proposed new name is not available for corporate use the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall refuse to register such name and shall forthwith notify the society of this fact Upon application of any party interested either for or against the proposed amendment to the articles of incorporation the Secretary of the Commonwealth shall include in any certificate issued by him under this section any information desired as to the names registered with the Department of State

Fourth The articles of amendment executed in duplicate as aforesaid and in the case of a proposed change of the corporate name the certificate from the Secretary of the Commonwealth relating to the registration of the proposed new corporate name shall be filed by the society with the Secretary of the Commonwealth at the time mentioned in the advertisements as hereinafter provided.

Fifth The society shall advertise its intention to apply for approval of the articles of amendment in the same manner with respect to the newspapers designated and the number of insertions of the advertisements therein as is prescribed in this act with respect to notice of intention to apply for articles of incorporation and shall set forth briefly

(1) The name of the society and the address including street and number if any of its principal office

(2) A statement that the application is to be made under the provisions of this act

(3) The character and nature of the proposed amendment

(4) The date on which the articles of amendment will be filed in the office of the Secretary of the Commonwealth which shall be not less than five days after the advertisements appear and also the time thereafter for filing which shall not be more than fifteen (15) days for filing objections with the Insurance Commissioner to said proposed amendments

Sixth The Insurance Commissioner shall consider the proposed articles of amendment and may make such examination and require such further information as he deems advisable. In case any objections are filed he shall fix a time for a hearing of which at least five days' notice shall be given to the society and to the objectors. If the Insurance Commissioner shall be satisfied that the society has complied with the provisions of this section he shall certify the same on the articles of amendment in duplicate and submit the same to the Attorney General for examination and if found by the Attorney General to be in accordance with the provisions of this act and not inconsistent with the Constitutions of this Commonwealth and of the United States he shall certify the same on the articles of amendment in duplicate with his approval endorsed to the Governor

Upon receipt of such articles of amendment in duplicate certified and approved as aforesaid the Governor shall in case he approved the same endorse his approval thereon in duplicate and forward the same to the Secretary of the Commonwealth who shall cause the articles of amendment aforesaid together with the proceedings had thereon to be recorded in a book kept for that purpose

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall return one counterpart of said articles of amendment with all endorsement thereon to the society which shall have the same recorded in the recorder's office of the county in which the principal office of said society is located. Provided however That in the event the society was incorporated by a decree of court then and in such case the society shall file its said counterpart of the articles of amendments after recording the same in the county recorder's office aforesaid among the records of the court which incorporated the society

The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall certify the other counterpart of said articles of amendment with all endorsements thereon and file the same in the office of the Insurance Commissioner and certified copies of the same may be used in evidence for or against the society with the same effect as the original

Seventh The Insurance Commissioner shall charge and collect fees as follows For filing articles of amendment twenty-five dollars for each copy thereof forty cents per folio and one dollar for certifying the same. The Secretary of the Commonwealth shall collect such fees as are due and payable for like or equivalent services. All fees collected shall be transmitted daily into the State Treasury through the Department of Revenue

Eighth The provisions of this section shall be severable and if any of the provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision of the court shall not affect the validity of the remaining provisions of this section. It is hereby declared as a legislative intent that this section would have been adopted by the General Assembly had such unconstitution provisions not been included therein

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

E All shares of the same type standing on the books of an association at the close of a dividend period including shares for which notices of withdrawal have been given but which have not been paid shall participate with all other shares of the same type equally in dividends pro rata to the average amount including previously credited dividends standing to the credit of each share during the dividend period [However the] Provided however That unless the by-laws otherwise provide an association shall not be required to credit dividends on accounts with a balance of less than twenty-five dollars ($25) on a dividend declaration date or to optional payment shares issued under a Christmas club vacation club or other similar plan whereby they shall automatically be listed for withdrawal no later than fifteen months after the date of issuance The board of directors may fix a date in each month for determining the date of investment of share payments in which event such share payments received by the association on or before such determination date shall receive dividends as though invested for the entire month and such share payments received subsequent to such determination date shall receive dividends as though invested during the next succeeding month Provided however That the board of directors may permit investments of one hundred dollars ($100) or more to receive dividends calculated from the date of actual receipt by the association in any event And provided further That in the case of installment shares upon which fines are charged for arrearages all payments of dues may for dividend purposes be considered as having been paid when due

Section 2 Clause (2) and (4) of subsection A and sub-sections B and D of Section 903 of said act subsections A and D of which were last amended by the act approved the fifteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 485) and subsection B of which was last amended by the act approved the twentieth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 656) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 903 Security for Mortgage Loans A An association shall grant mortgage loans to its shareholders or to any person intending to become a shareholder upon the following security only

* * * * *

(2) The bond of the borrower secured by the transfer and pledge to the association of one direct reduction loan share in such association which belongs to the borrower and further secured by a mortgage upon real property which belongs to the borrower such mortgage being for at least the full amount of the loan [Provided That an association may accept and hold additional collateral of any kind if the loan meets all of the requirements of this act and could have been legally made without the additional collateral] That mortgage contract shall provide for monthly payments starting not later than sixty days after the advance of the loan Provided however That on any mortgage loan granted to finance new construction an association may postpone the first monthly payment until completion of the improvement but not later than twelve months after the date of the first advance made on the loan A loan secured in this manner shall be known as a direct reduction mortgage loan and the mortgage securing such loan as a direct reduction mortgage

* * * * *

(4) The bond of the borrower secured by a mortgage upon real property which belongs to the borrower without monthly amortization for a term not exceeding ten years Provided That the loan except as hereinafter provided does not together with any other loans held by such association upon such property exceed fifty per centum of the fair market value of such property And provided further That if such a loan is made for a term not exceeding one year and for the purpose of financing new construction it may be made in an amount not to exceed eighty per centum of the fair market value of a one to four family property or seventy per centum of the fair market value of a five or six family property And provided further That the aggregate amount of all all loans [so] made pursuant to the provisions of this subsection to all persons and corporations shall not exceed fifteen per centum of the total assets of such association

B An association shall not grant any mortgage loan unless the mortgage securing such loan (1) is a first lien upon unencumbered improved real property the improvement being a dwelling for not more than [four] six families which is used or to be used in whole or in part for residential purposes or upon real property upon which such a building is in the process of construction situated anywhere within the Commonwealth or within fifty miles of a boundary thereof or where it is not a first lien upon such property every equal or prior lien is owned by the association and (2) does not together with any other lien held by such association upon such property exceed eighty per centum of the fair market value of [such real property plus] a one to four family property or seventy per centum of the fair market value of a five or six family property Provided however That any mortgage loan may be increased by the withdrawal value upon the day of the granting of such loan of shares to be assigned or pledged to the association by the borrower or by any other shareholder as additional security for such loans [Provided however That shares of the association owned by any shareholder may be] Any additional shares assigned or pledged as additional collateral security for the mortgage loan [and in such event the mortgage loan granted upon such property may be increased by the withdrawal value of the additional pledged shares to an amount not to exceed a maximum total mortgage loan of ninety per centum of the fair market value of such real property and the association may release this additional collateral by the borrower or any other shareholder may be released by the association whenever the mortgage loan otherwise meets all of the requirements of this act and could be legally made at the time of release without the requirement of additional collateral. Provided also That an association may accept and hold additional collateral of any kind if the loan meets all of the requirements of this act and could have been legally made without such additional collateral. An association shall not take any lien upon real property as security for a mortgage loan if such lien is in status equal to any lien owned by any other corporation or person.

Without regard to the limitations set forth in this subsection an association may grant any mortgage loan which is insured or guaranteed in whole or in part by the United States or any instrumentality thereof or if there is a commitment to so insure or guarantee. Provided That the real estate security therefor shall be a building used or to be used in whole or in part for residential purposes situated within the Commonwealth or within fifty miles of a boundary thereof.

The provisions of this subsection shall not be construed to apply to a purchase money mortgage taken by an association upon real property owned by it nor to the readjustment or refinancing in any other manner of a mortgage loan owed to the association upon the effective date of this act.

* * * * *

D An association shall not [upon the security of any one piece of real property] grant mortgage loans totaling more than [twenty] twenty-five thousand dollars upon the security of any one to four family property or forty thousand dollars upon the security of any five or six family property.

BILL PASSED OVER

There being no objection

Senate Bill No. 527, Printer's No. 181 was passed over at the request of the SPEAKER.

BILLS ON THIRD READING POSTPONED

Agreeably to order,

The bill having been called up from the postponed calendar by Mr. DOWLING.

The House resumed the consideration on third reading of House Bill No. 937, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 83) entitled "An act for the protection of public health by regulating the serving of milk for drinking purposes to patrons of hotels restaurants lunch rooms fountains and dining cars and providing penalties" by permitting the purchase and sale of milk in bulk for use in certain automatic milk dispensing machines.

Section 1 Section 3 of the act approved the twenty-sixth day of March one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 83) entitled "An act for the protection of the public health by regulating the serving of milk for drinking purposes to patrons of hotels restaurants lunch rooms fountains and dining cars and providing penalties" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 3 Nothing contained in this act shall be construed to prevent or prohibit the owner or lessee of any hotel restaurant lunch room fountain or dining car or other person from purchasing milk in bulk for uses other than for serving patrons with milk for drinking purposes nor to prevent the sale and serving of cream skimmed milk or buttermilk from bulk if the same is pure and wholesome and is sold and served as cream skimmed milk or buttermilk nor shall it prevent or prohibit the sale of mixed drinks at soda fountains nor shall it prevent or prohibit the purchase or sale of milk in bulk to be sold for drinking purposes from automatic milk dispensing machines which have been approved by the Department of Agriculture

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, it is with quite a little reluctance that I take the time of the House to debate this bill. But I believe that it is a matter that should be thoroughly discussed before it is voted upon.

We have spent many years in trying to bring about a good health program in the state of Pennsylvania and I believe that probably this is one of the biggest steps toward breaking down our public safety, as far as the health laws are concerned, that we have had in many years, for this reason: milk can be a very clean and very nutritious food or it can be a very unsanitary and anything but good food.

If these dispensing units were to be properly cared for they could very well be possibly all right. But it would necessitate thorough cleaning and sterilization at least every twenty-four hours, and it would be impossible to police all the many places that would be using this type of dispensing that often. The fact is it would be impossible to check it every thirty days, I think. And within twenty-four hours you could have the finest bacterial culture that you ever wanted to lay eyes on if it were passed up as far as cleaning is concerned.

I have a letter here from the city of Altoona in which they refer to this bill as a very dangerous piece of legislation.

There is one from the city of Harrisburg; one from a hospital opposing it.

In this bill we say that we will legislate to allow the use of certain dispensing units. Here again we are called upon to legislate in the state the use of certain units which put certain manufacturers into business.

Probably there is some labor saving in this; that seems to be the main cry. Why we have not heard a lot from organized labor against it I do not know. But I do know that it definitely is against the best interests of the Commonwealth. I do not believe that they could manufacture any dispensing unit that could be absolutely free from the dangers that I have spoken about.

If the sponsors of the bill want to ask me any questions about it I will try and answer them. I spent many years in this, in laboratory work and I think I speak with some authority. I do not pretend to be an expert but have a little better than general knowledge of it.

Mr. READINGER. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. Not being an expert on milk, but being a great consumer of it, as I am sure the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, is, since we have both suffered over a period of years from stomach ulcers, I thought I should add a few remarks to the debate on this bill.

I have been informed that forty-five states have passed legislation which makes lawful the use of these so-called milk dispensing machines. I have also been informed that there are five or six companies which makes these machines, and I presume that at least some of them are scientifically designed to eliminate the lack of sanitation which Mr. Waterhouse seems to be worried about.

I understand one company at least makes a dispenser which has a tube which is sealed into the can at the dairy when the milk is processed, and which cannot be soiled or made unsanitary in any way because of its method of construction until such time as it is placed into the cooling equipment in these restaurants or cafeterias.

I also understand that this tube is the only outlet before the milk touches the glass into which it is drawn. In other words it does not run through a spigot or faucet in the stationary dispenser in the restaurant, and for that reason I fail to see how the bacteria which might be detrimental could accumulate even though the restaurant keeper were careless enough not to clean it thoroughly every time he changed the can of milk.

It seems to me that we should be very pleased to know that there is something in the air by which we can get a reduced price on something. Everywhere I go I seem to spend more money on everything I eat, drink, and even the hotel I sleep in. If this bill is to reduce milk even two cents or three cents a glass, as I said before I am a large milk drinker,—I would be very happy. This is not only equipment that could be used in restaurants but it would apply to cafeterias and any place where large amounts of milk are drunk—I used that word in its proper sense, I think.

I would like to point out that the Health and Sanitation Committee of the House is composed of men who have a very great interest in the welfare and the health of the people of this state. They considered this bill very thoroughly, reported it out to us, and it is here now for action. I think all of us could safely vote for this bill with no fear that there will be any disease or anything else brought about by it. The committee gives it its blessing.

I say it will save the consumers of Pennsylvania a great deal of money in the buying of their milk; I say that it will encourage the production of more milk. The farmers will benefit by selling more milk if these devices are allowed to be used. So far as I can learn the only persons who might be hurt in any way are the bottling companies. As you know the present law requires milk by the glass to be sold from a bottle.

I would like to point out one other thing while we are talking about sanitation. If you have ever bought a glass of milk in a restaurant in a municipality where the law or the ordinances require that bottle caps must be covered with cellophane, you will believe when you look at the bottle that it must be absolutely clean and sanitary. But if you watch the waitress or the clerk who serves the bottle of milk to you, you will very often find her taking the cellophane off, putting her four fingers on the edge of the bottle to pull the paper cap off the bottle, and then pouring it in your glass. If the girls' or the boys' hands are clean, it is fine, but if they are not clean it could be very, very unsanitary. I am asking you to vote for this bill.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Gleason.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I think when Mr. Readinger used the word drunk he had it right. He meant there had been a lot of drunks milked.

But getting on to this question of the milk dispenser, the milk companies tell me that they can sell their milk a two and a half cents a quart less when they use this dispenser.

Being a milk producer and interested in the other producers in the state, we sell our milk on a basis of grade 1, 2 and 3 milk. Now, when you dispense milk out of a dispenser or out of a bottle or over the counter in any way, that is classed as No. 1 milk. Right now I am shipping 25 thousand pounds of milk. In April I only ran about 65 per cent of class 1 milk, which netted me $5.48 a hundred for class 1 milk.

Now class 2 milk drops down to $3.56 of which I had around twenty some per cent, and I had 10 per cent of class 3 milk which dropped down to $2.91 a hundred.

If we can sell, or the restaurants and hotels and schools can sell more milk, that is going to put the farmers' pay check up in a higher bracket because he is selling more class 1 milk. That is why I am interested in this bill. Schools can use it, hospitals can use it if they desire.

In response to Mr. Waterhouse about sanitation, I think in the state right now we are allowing the cream to be dumped out of the cream dispenser and put in the little bottles and served on the table. I cannot see where that is so sanitary.

Also your milk-shakes; you go into a drug store or up to a counter, and they get milk out of a can. They wash that milk shake container in water, rinse it out a little, mix one up, set it on the table and you pour it out. I do not know where there is any sanitation in that. I cannot see where we have a milk dispenser that is put in the milk plant and sterilized and sealed in the milk plant, why that is going to be such a detriment to the health of the people.

I do not care what the other 45 states are doing, it is what we do. If we can sell more milk in this state, I am for the bill.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to interrogate the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Erie, Mr. Waterhouse, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask Mr. Waterhouse whether or not he is familiar with the inspections that are made of the equipment around farms having to do with milk?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, I would say that all depended upon where the farms were shipping. If they were shipping into the New York milk shed, or if they were shipping to some condensary the inspection is entirely different.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, let us assume that we are shipping into the New York milk shed.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, I would say I am fairly familiar with the inspection.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman from Erie tell us how often the equipment is inspected?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, there is no set time that an Inspector will call on any of the producing dairies. He might call today, he might not call for thirty days, he might be back tomorrow.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask the gentleman whether or not he knows how often the milking machinery equipment about the farm is inspected.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, the machine is inspected at the same time the other facilities are inspected, such as your stables, your floors and ceilings and what have you.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman if he knows how often that takes place in the course of a year.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in reply to the gentleman, I think I covered that in saying that it might happen once a month, or it might happen two or three times, depending on what they find in their inspection stops. I would say that if an Inspector stopped and inspected your dairy, and did not find it as he thought it should be, he would tell you what to do, and he might be back tomorrow, or it might be a week from then; and then he might inspect your dairy much oftener than he might mine.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask the gentleman whether they are regular visits or just how those visits are made.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, they cover all dairies, or plan to cover them, depending upon the number of dairies allotted to each inspector at given intervals. But as I say, if they are sure that a fellow is complying with the rules and regulations they do not pay as much attention to him as they do to violators.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, is the gentleman willing to concede that there is a possible contamination source at that equipment about the farms?

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, there is no question about that. That is entirely possible; that is what your sterilization is for.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I have no further questions of Mr. Waterhouse, and I wish to thank the gentleman very much.

Mr. Speaker, I feel that the Members of this House are entitled to know something about the sponsorship of this bill.

I introduced this bill by request. The Pennsylvania Restaurant Association is interested in the passage of this bill.

There are several reasons why they are interested in the passage of this bill. I should say at the outset that I do not represent, as a lawyer, this association, neither do I represent any of the equipment manufacturers who will furnish the equipment if this bill is enacted into law.

The several points that have been given to me by the restaurant association with respect to this bill are these:

The first is that it permits you to buy milk much cheaper. It uses bulk milk instead of the individual containers.

The second provision is that it saves refrigeration costs. The milk temperature is thermostatically controlled, and it holds the temperature of the milk exactly at the degree that is desired.

The third, and I assume, the most compelling reason is that it increases milk sales. It gives the customers a more sanitary and better tasting glass of milk.

There are more than forty states in the United States that dispense milk from machines. Metropolitan centers such as Chicago, New York City and Washington, D. C., have been dispensing milk from these machines.

Some of the leading restaurant chains in the Metropolitan area of New York City such as the Thompson system, the Waldorf system, the Bicher's system, use these machines.

Hospitals such as the Brooklyn Hospital in Brooklyn, New York, the Flower Hospital in New York City, the Mercy Hospital in Chicago, Illinois, the Methodist Hospital in Peoria, Illinois, use these milk dispensing machines.

There are a number of schools and institutions using these machines such as New York University, Walton School in New York City, the University of Illinois and the Illinois Institute of Technology.

Many department stores in urban centers use these machines, such as R. H. Macy and Company, Inc., Gimbel Brothers, Lord and Taylor, B. Altman and Company.

Many industrial cafeterias, such as the Mutual Life Insurance Company, the New York Life Insurance Company and the Metropolitan Life Insurance Company use these machines about their places of business.

I wish in all fairness to state that the Health Director of my city has addressed several letters to me criticizing this bill.

I also have received a letter from the health authorities of the city of Altoona.

I have also received a letter and a telegram from Herbert M. Packer, the chief of the Division of Housing and Sanitation of the Department of Public Health in Philadelphia urgently recommending favorable consideration of this bill. It says,

"As a health officer I have always felt that the present law was basically wrong, and believe that House Bill No. 937 will correct this condition."

The large chain of restaurants, Horn and Hardart Baking Company in the city of Philadelphia have also urgently requested the passage of this bill.

Finally in the city of Pittsburgh the health authority, I. Hope Alexander, M. D., through his health engineer, H. J. Dunsmore, has written to the Committee urgently asking for the passage of this bill.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire of the gentleman as to how this temperature is going to be maintained while the milk is in transit, or how it is going to be maintained in many places, such as circuses, carnivals, and what have you; how are they going to keep this dispensing unit cold as well as the tubes that the milk will be drawn through?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, in response to the question of the gentleman from Erie, I am informed by one of the manufacturers of this equipment, The Monitor Dispenser Company, that there is accurate thermostatic temperature control. The system used by the Monitor reduces the temperature of the milk and holds it at the controlled degree, provided the person who is operating that machine takes care of its proper operation by fixing the temperature at the given point.

Mr. WATERHOUSE. Mr. Speaker, in the letter from the city of Altoona, it says in the first place it will require walk-in coolers or large cooling units to store the milk while waiting to be used in the dispensers. Now, I wonder how many restaurants would be equipped to cool the ten gallon can of milk or to hold it while they were waiting to place it in the dispenser. That is so much for the cooling.

In reply to a statement made by our friend, Mr. Readinger, he referred to its lowering the price of milk and also as suggested by a friend on this side, I would only say that I am afraid the gentleman is being a bit penny wise and dollar foolish in regard to this.

Mr. Gleason says that it will allow them to sell milk two and a half cents a quart cheaper. If that were true, that would allow them to sell a glass of milk for about a half cent less; and I do not believe that they are going to charge you nine and a half cents for a glass of milk.

I do not believe that it will increase the sale of milk; I do not believe that it will lower the price of milk. I think it will only lower the quality. It certainly cannot give you a better flavored milk than you were getting before, because before you were getting milk that had been bottled and capped, and if a girl did take the cellophane off the top of a bottle and picked it up with her fingers and poured it into your glass, the milk would not flow over where her fingers had been because it will flow from the throat of the bottle, the inside.

I see many arguments against the dispensing units, but I can see absolutely no good reason for this House passing a bill that is putting a couple of dispensing unit companies into business, so to speak, at the same time tearing down the health standards of the Commonwealth.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I desire to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, will we be allowed to inspect the glasses before the milk is put into them in the restaurants, if this bill passes, for cleanliness?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I am not familiar with what type of inspection is made, but I think that is a very good question. Maybe the gentleman from Westmoreland would like to look at some of the lipstick that is on some of the glasses that are already in the restaurants, in public eating places today, without these health vending machines.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman.

I want to say to the gentleman that I have noticed lipstick on some of the glasses, but I would say that after milk is poured into the glass and served to me at the counter, there could be a lot of dirt in the bottom that I would not know anything about at all. So, therefore, I cannot see how my friend, I. Hope Alexander from the city of Pittsburgh, could be so generous in supporting this piece of legislation when some years ago he tried to pass some legislation that he said was killing the babies of Pennsylvania and it was not nearly as unsanitary, I do not think, as this piece of legislation.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, I did not care to speak on this subject but since my colleague has brought out the name of Dr. Alexander, this is a very different issue entirely.

The hospital associations, Department of Health and the medical society see no injurious thing about this type of machine. I want to let the House know that.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Do not get excited. Mr. Speaker, I resent the booing on this side of the House.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is correct. The gentleman is entitled to be heard.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, I wish to ask a question of the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, will these machines be limited to public eating houses, hotels and such or will they be available to any other place like movie houses, subway stations and what not? I just want to ask that a question of the law.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, as I understand the proposed legislation the restaurant people are interested in it. I do not know how widely the machines will be placed for the public use. The operation of the machines to date has been in hospitals, cafeterias and such places as I have enumerated before. I do not know about subway stations and places such as those mentioned by Mr. Guarnieri.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Dowling, I asked the question for this purpose: I notice that this is an amendment to the Act of 1925 which deals with eating places only. So, I was reasoning and I wish you to state whether I am correct or not in my reasoning.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, my understanding is, without limiting myself actually to it, that it was contemplated that these machines be placed in the places that I have already enumerated.

Mr. GUARNIERI. Mr. Speaker, is it your understanding then that they will be limited to the eating places which were dealt with in the Act of 1925?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, that is my understanding.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I just want to correct a statement that I may have left in my colleague's mind, Mr. Waterhouse, in regard to the price of milk.

I said they could buy it for two and a half cents less a quart, that is, in bulk. When the milk companies bottle it in half pints, it costs them just as much to bottle a half pint as it does a quart, and when they buy these half pints, they are not going to be paying six and seven cents a half pint as they are now and have to sell it at ten cents a half pint. It will be sold at either six or seven cents in the schools, restaurants and so forth. It is not the idea as to price, it is the saving on the bottling of each pint which is four half pints to a quart, so they can buy the milk, even in the half pints, from two to two and a half cents cheaper.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of the bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. DOWLING. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, could you tell me how they are going to make arrangements with these dispensers—supposing milk was put into a dispenser, say today, and there is a possibility that the milk in the dispenser would not be sold that day or possibly for hours the following day; what preventive measure is there in the bill that might make it mandatory to have fresh milk in these dispensers?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, my reply to Mr. Filo is this: I have the utmost confidence in the police power, the inspection that will be made of these machines by the various municipalities. I believe that if the temperature of milk is reduced, then, of course, the milk will sour and probably the first person getting such a glass of milk would make a complaint. But if the machines, as I have been told, are properly regulated and the temperature is kept at a proper degree, the milk will be dispensed in a salable, wholesome form.

Mr. FILO. Mr. Speaker, do you not think that something should be added to this bill that would make it mandatory to remove milk after it was once put into the dispenser, say 24 hours after it was put into the dispenser? I think you may have something there.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, in reply to that I think a very similar problem comes up with ice cream and other milk products. I believe you will have to rest your case on the question of inspection by the authorities, and they will have to carry out those provisions of the law that will insure the public a wholesome and pure glass of milk.

Mr. FILO. Thank you, Mr. Dowling.

Another thing I wanted to add in regard to the statement that Mr. Lovett made about glasses in the city of Pittsburgh having lipstick on them. As you know, the City of Pittsburgh, at the present time, has an A, B, and C rating of restaurants and I can assure you that the restaurants in the City of Pittsburgh have very clean glasses and very clean utensils from which to eat.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Filo, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. FILO. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. Would the gentleman have any objections to confining this bill to the City of Pittsburgh?

Mr. FILO. I am not the sponsor of the bill, I am only finding ways and means to see that this bill is put through and put through in its proper fashion.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

Mr. Speaker, since the gentleman from Allegheny has very sanitary restaurants we in the rest of the state do not have such conditions. Therefore, I think the bill should be passed over and we should offer an amendment to confine it to the cities which have such a classification of restaurants.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

CONGRESSMAN WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair takes great pleasure in welcoming to the Hall of the House a member of Congress from the 16th District, Staten Island, New York, the Honorable James J. Murphy.

SENATE MESSAGES

RESOLUTION FOR CONCURRENCE

The Clerk of the Senate being introduced, presented an extract from the Journal of the Senate, which was read as follows:

In the Senate, June 4, 1951.

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That Senate Bill No. 67, Printer's No. 14, entitled

An Act proposing an amendment to article fourteen of the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by adding thereto a section abolishing county offices in Philadelphia and providing for the performance of county functions by the city of Philadelphia be recalled from the Secretary of the Commonwealth for the purpose of amendment.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the House of Representatives for its concurrence.

On the question,

Will the House concur in the resolution of the Senate?

It was concurred in.

COMMUNICATIONS FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented communications from the Governor returning without his approval

House Bills 73, 466, 568, 569, 647 and 827.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. YEAKEL from the Committee on Rules, reported as committed, House Resolution No. 47.

CONDOLENCE

Mr. WACHHAUS offered a resolution and asked and obtained unanimous consent for its immediate consideration.

The resolution was read, considered and adopted as follows:

In the House of Representatives, June 4, 1951.

The sudden death of O. E. Day, better known as "Barney" Day, on May 16, 1951 shocked and saddened the blind of Pennsylvania and the Nation.

O. E. Day was born May 16, 1904 in Rigdon, Indiana. As a student at Merman College he specialized in chemistry. In 1935, at the age of thirty-one years, while engaged in chemical experimentation, an explosion of the apparatus left him blind and partly deaf.

Mr. Day was profoundly disturbed by the unfortunate accident and spent several years searching for a way to apply his talents so terribly handicapped by his disability. At the Canadian Institute for the Blind in Toronto he received training as a personnel officer for the blind and was appointed a placement officer in 1940 at the Overbrook School for the Blind.

"Barney" Day devoted his abilities to conceiving and designing special aids for the blind and opened new fields of industrial employment for those who are visually handicapped.

In recognition of his vital and indispensable services to the blind, Mr. Day was appointed in 1945 by Governor Edward G. Martin as Chief of the State Council for the Blind in the Pennsylvania Department of Welfare. In such a capacity he initiated many new services for the blind in Pennsylvania.

Mr. Day's selfless devotion to the interests of his fellow blind has stirred the springs of sympathetic cooperation in many groups. The resulting cool waters have brought a wealth of understanding to those who would regard the blind—not as objects of pity and charity—but as individuals of dignity who can stoutly and self-reliantly pursue their destiny in life.

To "Barney" Day the blind of Pennsylvania and elsewhere owe an eternal debt of gratitude for his development of exemplary standards of excellence in the services at their command; therefore be it

Resolved, That this House of Representatives express its poignant sorrow at the premature passing of a great servitor of the blind, O. E. Day, and be it further

Resolved, That this House tender its condolences to the blind of Pennsylvania at their irreparable loss of an inspiring and talented leader; and be it further

Resolved, That the Chief Clerk be instructed to transmit copies of this resolution to Mr. Day's surviving wife, Gladys Shockley Day, and to the Pennsylvania Federation of the Blind in Philadelphia, Pennsylvania.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mr. ANDREWS asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, I am offering one more resolution for inclusion in the archives of the Mausoleum Committee, otherwise known as the Rules Committee.

I would suggest that someday in the midst of its hectic career and its attention to so many nonessentials that it review all the resolutions that have been committed into its keeping. I am quite sure if it did it would find that if it brought some of them out, we would not be in the midst of this present waiting period wondering when in thunder we are going to get somewhere and do something; when we are going to attack the vital problems; when someone somewhere in authority is going to make up his mind where this Legislature is going and when it is going to get there.

The only information that I want is: I would like to know the unallocated balances standing to the credit of the various Departments, Bureaus and Commissions operating in this Commonwealth as of January 1, 1951.

Then I would like to know the amount of the unallocated balances standing to the credit of the various Departments, Bureaus and Commissions operating for and on behalf of the Commonwealth as of May 31, 1951.

I would like to know if there are any Departments which up until 1951 had spent a little over one-third of their total appropriation in eighteen months and have two-thirds left to spend during the last six months of the biennium.

When I get the figures we will be able to determine whether there has or has not been a peculiar acceleration of expenditure during the final six months of the biennium; how many Departments have been absorbing their surplus by buying this or buying that; how much money is going into postage stamps; to what extent the financial situation of the Commonwealth has been juggled during the last six months.

I, therefore, offer this resolution.

RESOLUTION

Mr. ANDREWS offered a resolution which was filed with the Clerk.

TEACHERS OF SAXTON LIBERTY SCHOOL DISTRICT WELCOMED

The SPEAKER. The Chair is pleased to recognize a group of teachers from the Saxton Liberty School District, Saxton, Bedford County. They are here as the guests of the gentleman from Bedford, Mr. Clapper.

SENATE

TUESDAY, June 5, 1951.

The Senate met at 2:00 o'clock, p. m., Eastern Standard Time.

The PRESIDENT (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Chaplain, Rev. L. HERDMAN HARRIS, III, Rector of St. James Memorial Episcopal Church, Titusville, Pennsylvania, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray. Almighty God, who alone gave us the breath of life and alone canst keep alive in us the holy desire Thou dost impart, we beseech Thee for Thy compassion's sake to sanctify all our thoughts and our endeavors as a group of Legislators elected by our people of this State, that we may neither begin an action without pure intention nor continue it without Thy blessing.

Grant that, having the eyes of the mind opened to behold things invisible and unseen, we may in heart be inspired by Thy wisdom, and in work be upheld by Thy strength, and in the end be accepted of Thee as Thy faithful servants, through Jesus Christ, our Saviour. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

The PRESIDENT. A quorum of the Senate being present the Clerk will read the Journal of the preceding session.

The Clerk proceeded to read the Journal of the preceding session, when, on motion of Mr. WALKER and Mr. KEPHART, further reading was dispensed with, and the Journal was approved.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 694, entitled:

An Act authorizing cities, boroughs, towns, and townships to accumulate over a period of more than one year monies required to match State grants; and further regulating the budget taxation and appropriation powers of such political subdivisions therefor.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 654, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the seventh day of July, one thousand nine hundred forty-seven (P. L. 1368) entitled "An act amending, revising and consolidating the laws relating to delinquent county, city, except of the first and second class and second class A, borough, town, township, school district, except of the first class and school districts within cities of the second class A, and institution district taxes, providing when, how and upon what property, and to what extent liens shall be allowed for such taxes, the return and entering of claims therefor; the collection and adjudication of such claims, sales of real property, including seated and unseated lands, subject to the lien of such tax claims; the disposition of the proceeds thereof, including State taxes and municipal claims recovered and the redemption of property; providing for the discharge and divestiture by certain tax sales of all estates in property and of mortgages and liens on such property, and the proceedings therefor; creating a Tax Claim Bureau in each county, except a county of the first class, to act as agent for taxing districts; defining its powers and duties, including sales of property, the management of property taken in sequestration, and the management, sale and disposition of property heretofore sold to the county commissioners, taxing districts and trustees at tax sales; providing a method for the service of process and notices; imposing duties on taxing districts and their officers and on tax collectors, and certain expenses on counties and for their reimbursement by taxing districts; and repealing existing laws," by providing for the collection and distribution of said taxes by the bureau; further regulating the sale of properties turned over to the bureau by county commissioners and taxing districts, and of properties purchased at tax sales by county commissioners under the provisions of said act; imposing certain costs upon the taxing districts, and further providing for the execution of deeds.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 684, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 7 of the act, approved the eleventh day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-five (P. L. 561), entitled "An act to provide for the selection of jurors to serve in the several courts, criminal and civil, of counties of the second class, and defining the qualification of such jurors; providing for the organizations of a commission for the selection of jurors in such counties, and prescribing its powers and duties, and authorizing it to investigate as to the qualifications of prospective jurors; imposing the expense of maintaining and operating said commission upon said counties, and requiring the county commissioners to provide suitable quarters equipment and supplies; authorizing the employment of the necessary clerks and other employees, and providing for a salary board composed of the commission, the county commissioners, and the controller of said counties, to fix the number and compensation of such employees; requiring county officers and boards to furnish information to said commission concerning taxables resident in said county as to their eligibility for jury service; repealing inconsistent legislation; and prescribing punishment for the violation hereof," by further regulating the selection of jurors in counties of the second class.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 866, entitled:

An Act to further amend section 622 of the act, approved the twenty-fourth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206), entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class; amending, revising, consolidating, and changing the law relating thereto," by increasing the allowance for expenses of township officers at annual meeting of the State association.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 252, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 605 of the act, approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571), entitled "An act relating to assessments for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes; creating in each such county a board for the assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by cities; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employees; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds; and eliminating the triennial assessment," by requiring the recorder's record of conveyances to contain complete post office addresses of grantees.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 433, entitled:

An Act to further amend sections 318 and 322 of the act, approved the second day of May, one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (Pamphlet Laws 1278), entitled "An act relating to counties of the second, third, fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; and revising, amending, and consolidating the laws relating thereto," by changing the limits of certain employe contributions and retirement allowances under the employes' retirement fund in counties of the second class and authorizing such counties and the county institution district to make additional appropriations to the aforesaid fund.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 940, entitled:

An Act to authorize counties, cities, boroughs, incorporated towns, townships, school districts, poor districts and county institution districts to file tax and municipal claims not filed within the time specified by law; and to amend such claims when the property affected is not sufficiently described; and to file suggestions of nonpayment and averments of default, or to sue out writs of scire facias on certain tax or municipal claims; and to revive judgments where the lien of such claims or the judgments thereon have been lost; and providing for the reinstatement of the liens of such claims and judgments.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 944, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the twentieth day of July, one thousand nine hundred seventeen (P. L. 1158), entitled "An act to fix, regulate, and establish the fees to be charged and received by constables in this Commonwealth," increasing the fees in certain cases.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 213, entitled:

An Act to further amend section one of the act, approved the twenty-eighth day of June, one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 477), entitled, as amended "An act providing for the payment of the salary, medical and hospital expenses of policemen and firemen by cities, boroughs, towns, and townships who are injured in the performance of their duty; and providing that absence during such injury shall not reduce any usual sick leave period," by adding a presumption of relationship to employment of diseases of the heart and tuberculosis of the respiratory system and providing disability benefits for such conditions.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 757, entitled:

An Act to add Article XVII to the act approved the seventh day of March one thousand nine hundred one (P. L. 20) entitled "An act for the government of cities of the second class" by providing for the establishment of a traffic court in cities of the second class.

He also, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as committed, House Bill No. 702, entitled:

An Act to further amend the act, approved the fourth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-seven (P. L. 519), entitled "General Borough Act" by further regulating the affairs of boroughs, and revising, amending, and changing the law relating thereto.

Mr. YOSKO, from the Committee on State Government, reported as amended, House Bill No. 1101, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Department of Property and Supplies with the approval of the Governor and the Board of Trustees of Allentown State Hospital to sell at public sale and convey a certain tract of land situate in the City of Allentown County of Lehigh and providing for the disposition of the proceeds of the purchase moneys.

Mr. BARR, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 54, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the seventh judicial district.

He also, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 188, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the act, approved the twelfth day of July, one thousand nine hundred thirteen (P. L. 711), entitled "An act establishing a court for the county of Philadelphia; prescribing its jurisdiction and powers; providing for the service of its writs, process, or warrants by the proper officers of the county or city of Philadelphia; regulating the procedure therein, and appeals therefrom, and providing for the expenses thereof," by increasing the number of judges of the Municipal Court of Philadelphia.

He also, from the Committee on Judiciary General, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 346, entitled:

An Act to provide for an additional law judge of the court of common pleas in the thirty-fifth judicial district.

Mr. ROBINSON, from the Committee on Elections, reported as amended, House Bill No. 711, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (a) and (b) of section 16 of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 487), entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in boroughs, towns, and townships as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; requiring the county commissioners of the various counties to act as a registration commission therefor; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, election officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; and imposing penalties," by further providing for hours of registration, and removing certain obsolete provisions.

He also, from the Committee on Elections, reported as amended, House Bill No. 712, entitled:

An Act to further amend subsections (a) and (b) of section 17 of the act, approved the twenty-fifth day of May, one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 849) entitled "An act to provide for the permanent personal registration of electors in cities of the third class as a condition of their right to vote at elections and primaries, and their enrollment as members of political parties as a further condition of their right to vote at primaries; prescribing certain procedure for the conduct of elections and primaries and the challenge and proof of qualifications of electors; and prescribing the powers and duties of citizens, parties, political bodies, registration commissions, commissioners, registrars, inspectors of registration and other appointees of registration commissions, county election boards, elections officers, municipal officers, departments and bureaus, police officers, courts, judges, prothonotaries, sheriffs, county commissioners, peace officers, county treasurers, county controllers, registrars of vital statistics, certain public utility corporations, real estate brokers, rental agents, and boards of school directors; imposing penalties, and repealing existing legislation," by further providing for hours of registration.

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS SENATE

Mr. MALLERY asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the Senate.

Mr. MALLERY. Mr. President, on behalf of the Committee on Corporations, I re-report House Bill No. 206, Printer's No. 219, as committed. This bill was on the Senate Calendar and was recalled by the House, and in re-reporting it I wish to make the statement that if there is any objection on the part of any person of the Senate, why, the bill can be re-referred to the Committee on Corporations.

REPORT FROM COMMITTEE

Mr. MALLERY, from the Committee on Corporations, re-reported as committed, House Bill No. 206, entitled:

An Act to further amend Section 2401 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1206) entitled "An act concerning townships of the first class amending revising consolidating and changing the law relating thereto" by requiring water utility companies to furnish to the township lists of water meter readings, flat-rate bills and other data for the purpose of determining sewer and drainage rates and providing reimbursement for their expenses.

PETITIONS AND REMONSTRANCES

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, I picked up the Philadelphia Inquirer this morning and on page 10 I read an article that is related to a statement made by Edward B. Logan, the Budget Director. The title of this article is "Fund Charge Hit as 'Despicable'."

"State Budget Secretary, Edward B. Logan, today labeled as 'despicable'" the charge of Senator Henry J. Probert, of Montgomery County, concerning an item in the Budget Report, that amounts to about $10,000,000. I want to say to you, Mr. President, that I resent the statements made by the Budget Director even though they were not directed at me. They were directed at a Member of this Senate in the performance of his duties. I think every Member of this Senate has a right to make inquiries concerning the Budget Report prepared by Mr. Logan, and especially so since the Budget Report prepared by Mr. Logan has been under fire since he has been the Budget Director. If anything, the attitude of Mr. Logan might be termed as despicable, and not the attitude of our colleague here in the Senate, Senator Probert.

Mr. President, I have been around Harrisburg for a long time, and I have learned from the records this morning that Mr. Logan has been the Budget Director since January 20, 1931, which is about twenty years now, and recently, at least every time the Legislature meets, it is the same old story. The jigsaw puzzle budget report that he presents to the Legislature is always under fire and always in dispute, and this Session, of course, is no exception. Therefore, why should not we here in the Senate, and in the House as well, question this budget report?

Mr. President, I call your attention to the end of the Martin Administration. Being the chief financial adviser of the Commonwealth, he must have told the Republican Administration leaders that there was to be a $200,000,000 surplus at the end of the Martin Administration, and because of that misinformation that Mr. Logan gave to the Republican leaders, they traveled the length and breadth of this State and told the people of Pennsylvania that there was going to be a $200,000,000 surplus and that because of that $200,000,000 surplus, if Mr. Duff was elected Governor, there would be a reduction in taxes. They also promised the schoolteachers increases in salaries because of that $200,000,000 surplus. Apparently the people of Pennsylvania believed what they were told, and they went to the polls and, of course, they elected the Republican ticket. Mr. Duff was the Governor and then the Legislature met. The Democrats came here to Harrisburg and they asked for the production of that $200,000,000 surplus. It was nowhere to be found. They appointed a special legislative committee to determine where the $200,000,000 surplus was, and after that committee made its report, I am sorry to say that it had to report that the $200,000,000 could not be found and never existed. So, Mr. Logan misled the Republican leaders, the Members of the Legislature, as well as the people of Pennsylvania. Instead of the schoolteachers getting the increase to which they were entitled and the increase that they were promised, they got a part of it and that gave birth to that vicious "tax anything act," one of the most vicious pieces of tax legislation ever to be put on the books in Pennsylvania, and here we are stymied with it today and the same pattern is being followed today.

Mr. President, I am going to read from the Republican Platform, and I blame that on Mr. Logan, too. He is the financial adviser of the Commonwealth. The schoolteachers were promised an increase this time, but now we are told that they would not get the increase unless we pass the income tax bill, but what does the Republican Platform say about taxes? I blame Mr. Logan for that. He is the financial adviser of the Commonwealth, and I am assuming that those that drafted the Republican Platform consulted with him, he gave them information and they relied on him, and he deceived them, and this is the plank of the Platform under taxation:

"Due to the uncertainty of world conditions, the amount of the funds required for the next budget is impossible of prediction at this time. However, there have been favorable changes in the State's financial prospects in recent months. It is reasonably certain that revenues from existing taxes will be higher than expected. Some forms of expenditures, notably Public Assistance, are certain to be less."

Mr. President, then on top of that it recommended that they do away with the soft drink tax because, as I read on further, this is what it says:

"We propose to eliminate the soft drink tax. We are mindful that new obligations have to be financed, but we anticipate that with the increases in revenue and the decreases in expenditures arising from this changed situation, coupled with strict economy and good government, will be sufficient to avoid any additional taxes."

Mr. President, the election is over. Mr. Logan prepares the budget. How he prepares it, I do not know, that he recommends $163,000,000 in new taxes, $119,000,000 of that to be raised by an income tax. He deceives the Administration leaders again.

Mr. President, so far as the schoolteachers are concerned, what did he say? I am assuming that because of information he gave them, the schoolteachers were made this promise.

"We will consider increasing teachers' pay and retirement benefits, additional aid to teachers' colleges, expansion of the Public School Building Authority and further State-aid to local school districts."

Mr. President, that pledge is related to the pledge on taxation where it is said that new obligations have to be financed. That is one of the new obligations, but they were to be financed without any increase in taxes, and I repeat, it is Mr. Logan, and he misinformed the framers of that platform and the Administration leaders here at Harrisburg, as well as the people of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, after the Martin Administration and the $200,000,000 hoax, instead of reducing taxes, as the people of Pennsylvania were told, we got a billion dollar budget here for the first time in the history of Pennsylvania, and the following two years we got another billion dollar budget, and how about two years ago? I remember we fought around here for two or three weeks about the soft drink tax that brought in, I think, $29,000,000, and Mr. Logan insisted that we had to have that money. We had to have the money and we had to levy the tax, and if my memory serves me correctly, about four or five weeks after we left here, out of the blue sky an announcement is made that because of unanticipated revenues we would wind up with a $63,000,000 surplus, which was about three times what the soft drink tax was to bring in. The $63,000,000 went, his whole budget went, and we approved some deficiency appropriations on top of it.

He was not satisfied with running his own department up there. Last year he tried to step into the Attorney General's department and he commenced to construe the law, and he tried to deprive the police of Pennsylvania from their share of the casualty insurance tax by trying to interpret the Act that we passed here two years ago, but he was wrong again because Governor Duff overruled him, and the policemen were paid their money. Then during this last campaign, he gets into another argument on finances with the Auditor General, Mr. Heyburn, and he was wrong again. He has been wrong time after time and that being true, why cannot we, as Members of this Senate, question his budget figures? Of course, we can and we should. It is our duty to do so, without him coming back at us with insulting remarks. I resent, and I am sure every Member of this Senate resents his attitude. Frankly, he ought to be fired and replaced. If he was doing the kind of a job he ought to do, and if he watched the expenditures of the funds that we appropriate here to these various departments, boards and commissions of the Commonwealth, we would not wind up with these deficiency appropriations every two years.

I say to you, Mr. President, that I compiled some statistics here and during the last six bienniums, deficiency appropriations have amounted to about $114,000,000. The Budget Director is supposed to be the watchdog of the people's money. That certainly does not indicate that he is any kind of a watchdog. He is a figure juggler, in my opinion, and for the time I spent here on this Hill, frankly, the budget office is considered a joke, because it does not have the machinery to go a good job. The only thing these departments give to the Budget Director is what they want to give him; they give it to him when they want to give it to him, so that the information he gets is anywhere from three weeks to six weeks after the transaction has been completed. It is a joke, it ought to be abolished, and in my opinion, this accountant general that is recommended by the Joint State Government Commission ought to take its place.

Mr. Logan is trying to tell us that his budget figures indicate the true financial condition of the Commonwealth. I say to you, Mr. President, this is not so because as a result of the resolution that was presented here two years ago, the Institute of Certified Public Accountants came here to Harrisburg and in cooperation with the Joint State Government Commission they made a survey of every department, board and commission of the Commonwealth, and in the report submitted by the Joint State Government Commission, what do they say? They say that because of the kind of system we have here in Pennsylvania, it is absolutely impossible to determine the true financial condition of the Commonwealth. Since that came from a reputable group of men, qualified and experienced, I think we should take their word for what the situation is here in Pennsylvania, rather than the word of Mr. Logan, who has been wrong time and time again.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I appreciate the gentleman's concern over the statement in one of the metropolitan newspapers. I have, of course, discussed this matter with the distinguished gentleman from Montgomery, and I would like to say, in defense of Doctor Logan, that much of what the gentleman from Northampton says cannot be strictly borne out from the record.

First, Mr. President, let me say this. I have had the privilege of being associated with Doctor Logan since January of 1931. There was a hiatus in my association during the administration of Governor Earle which, of course, could be easily understood, and, therefore, my joint tenure of association with Doctor Logan is not one that you could classify as being uninterrupted during the fifteen or sixteen years I have known Doctor Logan. I do not think that here on Capitol Hill there has been a more enthusiastic antagonist of some of his figures or conclusions than have I. At the same time, Mr. President, I have always respected the gentleman as being sincere in the position in which he has taken.

Mr. President, there is no one on Capitol Hill who does not get hurt over the budget. I think Doctor Logan gets hurt with it, too. I think there are times when he takes a look at his prognostications and wishes he could throw them out the window. I think there are times when he is very happy over the results achieved, because time bears out quite a number of his twenty-four months' forecast. Doctor Logan is in a peculiar position, Mr. President. He is the Budget Secretary to the Governor of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania. He occupies one of those nebulous positions where his sole source of concern, his allegiance, if I might use that word, is not necessarily to the Legislative or the Judicial Branch of the Government. It is to the Executive. Doctor Logan's function is to keep the Executive Department advised on the fiscal picture of the Commonwealth, and to the Executive Department Doctor Logan owes his first and his last allegiance. It is not incumbent upon Doctor Logan, and this has been a peculiar travesty in our representative form of government here in which we differ from quite a number of the other States, it is not incumbent upon Doctor Logan to keep the Legislative Branch of Government advised on the fiscal picture of the Commonwealth.

Again, Mr. President, we are in a peculiar position in Pennsylvania because we operate on a biennial session, and we are one of the few great corporations that attempt to forecast their fiscal picture over a twenty-four month period in times such as these.

The Federal Government, for example, Mr. President, never attempts to foresee beyond a ninety day period, and with their budget setup, with their comptroller of the currency, with their legislative fiscal advisers, they are constantly in session so that they can keep their legislation stepped up to meet the current day's problems, because that is how rapidly fiscal pictures are changing, especially on a scope as tremendous as the national picture is bound to be. In most of the States of the Union, Mr. President, they have an annual budget, and if you would survey the records of those states, you would be amazed how frequently they are, on a percentage basis, far wrong in their prognostications for a twelve month period.

Mr. President, I sympathize with Doctor Logan even when I am criticizing him, even when I am finding fault with him and with his figures. I sympathize with him in having to sit down in times when most of the economists, the accountants and the fiscal experts are trying desperately to guess for the next thirty days, he must guess for the next twenty-four months. Now, I do not think there has been any attempt on Doctor Logan's part at any time to deliberately deceive the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania or the Legislature. I know this, and he has been told this repeatedly both on and off the floor of the Senate, that there are times when the facts at the end of a twenty-four month period do not bear out the estimates which the gentleman made at the time the budget was being framed. Now, Mr. President, none of us want to be too unkind in our criticism of the results under those circumstances.

Mr. President, with regard to the Republican Platform, may I say to the gentleman from Northampton, I appreciate the fact that he was not able to be present at the time that breath-taking document was being translated into words. I have the advantage of him there. I was privileged to be present, and I listened to the very learned discussions and the very sincere approach to all of the problems represented in that platform. Mr. President, when it came time to discuss the fiscal side of our platform, Doctor Logan was invited to appear and discuss the matter with us. He very kindly consented to do so, and his advice was asked by the drafters of the platform.

Now, Mr. President, I do not want to say to the gentleman from Northampton that Logan's advice was taken one hundred per cent, because unfortunately my distinguished colleague from Somerset, Senator Hare, and myself, were on that committee, and having some very pronounced views of my own, Mr. President, I had the advantage of Doctor Logan because I was on the committee and he was not. If there is a variance in the platform and Doctor Logan's conclusions, Mr. President, that cannot be blamed on Doctor Logan, because he did not draft the Republican Platform, and he did not draft that particular phase of it.

Now, Mr. President, there is an honest difference of opinion among certain gentlemen of the Senate and the Budget Department as to anticipated revenues in the biennial period which has just closed on May 31st, and in the biennial period in which we are now confronted with the fiscal affairs of this Commonwealth. I am convinced that this is a sincere difference of opinion. I am convinced that there is just as much likelihood, when all of the facts are spread upon the record, that Doctor Logan may be right and that we may be wrong, or vice versa. I appreciate the sincere desire of the gentleman from Northampton to be in possession of all of the facts when he starts to gather together in his own mind the conclusions upon which he is going to base his legislative action; I appreciate the fact that he wants to have those facts so that he can intelligently represent the great county in which he makes his home, but, Mr. President, I want to say in all seriousness to the gentlemen of the Senate that eventually Pennsylvania is going to come to the proper place where we will have sessions at least once a year, rather than attempting to forecast a turbulent fiscal period on a twenty-four month basis. Secondly, Mr. President, I want to say to the gentlemen of the Senate that I have nothing but respect and admiration for Doctor Logan in his attempt to do a very difficult job under very distressing circumstances.

Mr. President, I know that the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Propert, is not the least bit concerned about anything that Doctor Logan may say about his conclusions or personality, just as long as he does not insult his home county, and may I say, Mr. President, in all sincerity that the gentleman from Montgomery, Senator Propert, has been in the political arena a long time. He is not the least bit disturbed about having it dished out to him, because he understands that when you give, you have to be in a position to take it at the same time.

Mr. President, all we are suggesting in this honest difference of opinion is the elimination of personalities, and I think that is a sound approach. We want to sit down with Doctor Logan; we want to have the opportunity, when all of the facts are presented, to have fifty members of the Senate in possession of those facts so that we can intelligently solve a problem that is not the personal problem of any gentleman sitting on this floor. It is a problem that belongs to the ten million people of Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. President, it is not a question of whether or not Ed Logan is right or wrong, and it is not a question of whether or not Senator Propert is right or wrong and it is not a question of whether or not the personal opinions of the gentleman from Westmoreland, the Minority Floor Leader, or the distinguished gentleman from Northampton, Senator Yosko, are right or wrong. The whole question, Mr. President, is whether or not we are going to be able to resolve a trying situation to a successful, pleasant conclusion that will redound to the benefit of the people of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Mr. President, I agree with the gentleman from Northampton. Perhaps these accounting bills which were very carefully drafted by the Joint State Government Commission, after a very careful study by very competent certified public accountants, may give us the opportunity of arriving at a factual conclusion that will be more clearly understood by those of us who are not blessed with an accounting education. If the gentleman of the Senate will continue to approach this from an unselfish, nonpartisan basis, I feel confident that we will arrive at the proper conclusions, because I have confidence in the sound mature judgment of this distinguished group that makes up the Senate of Pennsylvania, but, Mr. President, let us not get ourselves into the position where the Legislative Branch of our government is fighting a civil war with either the Judicial or the Executive Branch, and let us not invite criticism from either the Executive or the Judicial Branch by attempting to usurp their powers. The Senate of Pennsylvania is on its way to establish itself as an important contributing factor in the molding of government for the Commonwealth, and I do hope that every Member of the Senate will see to it that every ounce of his energy and ability is exerted to bringing that about.

Mr. YOSKO. Mr. President, the distinguished Majority Leader made some reference to difficulties that other States are having in the preparation of their budgets. I do not say that some States do not have some difficulties in the preparation of their budgets, but I do say that there is more harmony between the fiscal officers and the legislature in most of the other States than here in Pennsylvania, because of the closer spirit of cooperation between the fiscal officers in other States and the legislature. I think I can say that with some degree of authority, because I have been and still am the Executive Director of the National Association of State Auditors, Controllers and Treasurers of the United States.

Mr. President, when this budget argument started, I thought maybe it would be a good idea to make a little survey, something that I could get in writing as proof of what they do in other States in preparation of their budget, so that when I made some statements in connection with it I would be talking from reports that were sent to me, signed and verified, and all that sort of thing, which I propose to do, not today but in a short time. I made up a questionnaire and I asked the fiscal officers of the forty-eight states to reply to that questionnaire, to answer the questions, and one of the questions was, "What new taxes, if any, were levied in your State to meet budget requirements for the current period?" I wanted to get what new taxes were levied. I will give you a report on that, but I do not believe there are more than about four States in the Union that need new taxes for the next period in the respective States, not more than four.

Mr. President, I am certainly happy that the distinguished Majority Leader early in the Session expressed himself as being in favor of holding hearings for which he was reprimanded, I understand, and all that sort of thing, and I am not going to go into it, but he is right. We, the Members of the Legislature, ought to sit in on hearings when these departments, boards and commissions of the Commonwealth make their budget requests. I have a question here, and I will give a report on it as soon as I get a chance to compile these statistics. "Must each agency of your State government substantiate its budget request at a public hearing?" Now, Mr. President, as the result of that, I am sure the survey will indicate that the answer is in the affirmative.

Another question was, "Does your State operate on a cash basis or accrual basis?" and I will give you the result of that. I will turn this over to any Member of the Senate who wants to look at it. I am sure that after they see and learn how things are done in other States, that if we would inaugurate a similar system here in Pennsylvania, perhaps these battles that have been going on here Session after Session will be eliminated.

Mr. President, we were down in New Jersey here a short time ago in connection with this. I made reference to that a half dozen times. I made reference to it because I was greatly impressed with the system they have there, and I think the other Members of this Committee that were down there were greatly impressed by the system they had down in New Jersey, and I want to say to you that that is one of the things that we need here. We need a system and we do not have it, and the quicker we get a system, the better off all of us are going to be and the better off this State will be.

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, the Majority Leader used some very fine expressions in defense of Mr. Logan, and he used these expressions, that we should have a nonpartisan approach to the budget, and that we should be for Annual Sessions. Then, he turns around and states that in our way of government in Pennsylvania, the Legislature is not informed on fiscal policy. Well, we cannot take the budget controller and make him give us the same reports that he gives to the Governor.

Now, Mr. President, I do not see how any person could have the ability or can use the ability we have in getting the facts on our budget until we make use of an outside public certified accountant concern. We cannot give it the time, we do not have the knowledge and I think in order to carry out this budget the way we should, we should immediately make available to the Members of the Senate the services of certified public accountants who can make a study of each department.

Mr. President, I was told as late as last night that many of our departments are still overmanned. In fact, I was informed by a former department head, whose head has been removed, cut off, in the last election, that the number of political appointments made in his department got to be so large that he insisted that all future appointments should come from the Governor's Office. He also said he did not want to be responsible for any investigation in his department by the overloading of that department with political votes. Now, that seems to be the general tendency in the last election.

I have reasons to believe this gentleman, because I think he was a very good administrator, and I do think that we are attacking the Administrative. We are asserting our rights as Legislators, and I heard the Majority Leader in many of his discourses on the work of the Senate state that he believes the Senate should accept its responsibility, being a part of this government, the Legislative Branch, and it was their duty to see that the figures brought in here were proved. I heard him in public meetings talk about the dignity of the Senate, how it should be retained, and I am really surprised to hear him so meekly defend a budget controller who did not just merely dispute the figures of our associate Member of the Senate, but smeared him, using the technique of the communist, so to speak, by smearing him in a very good communistic way. I am really surprised that Mr. Logan has lowered himself that far, and that smear hurts every Member of the Senate.

Mr. President, I do not think that any Member of the Senate is using his connections in business in getting to the right figures of this budget. I think every Member of the Senate is honest in his effort to try and get the exact figure, and I am really surprised and disappointed in the gentleman from Allegheny County that he would agree—I should not say agree, but that he would console the Budget Director for being in such a nervous state that he would have an outburst, and I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny County to go back to the Budget Controller and see how many publicity men on the pay roll wrote that statement of the Budget Controller, because I do not believe he wrote it himself. The wording of the statement of the Budget Controller read a great deal like the handouts which are coming out of the administrative offices at the front.

Now, Mr. Walker, I hope you are not going to become so meek in your action and hold up the Senate, so we can get the dignity back in the Legislative Branch, which you yourself have tried to express to the public while you ran and while you talked before the different organizations, which I have, the civic organizations in Allegheny County. I am really shocked to see you become so meek, because it is not like you to stand up there and take the part of the Administrative Branch which is trying to make us go lower, lower, and lower. When we are in possession of those facts, I know then we can meet on the same basis as Mr. Logan, who I admit is a wizard at figures, but I would like to just close, Mr. President, with an old story that I have heard a long, long time ago, which says, "Figures never lie, but liars often figure."

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, may those of us in meek positions say something in defense of the meek? I have been called everything since I entered the political arena, but this is the first time I have ever heard of "the meek John Walker." Never would the gentleman from the south side of Pittsburgh sell a package like that back home.

Mr. President, it is not a question of being meek and it is not a question of defending Dr. Logan's figures. I am not being meek when I defend Dr. Logan. I think Dr. Logan is trying just as sincerely as Senator Holland to do a good job. May I say to Senator Holland, Mr. President, that the easiest thing in the world is to criticize the opposition, but it is tough, Mr. President, when you are criticizing your own team and, Mr. President, when I criticize Dr. Logan's figures I do so sincerely. Nevertheless, I still admire and respect Dr. Logan, I still hope to retain his friendship, and I feel that Dr. Logan has as much respect for my figures—maybe he doesn't believe in them as well as I do, but it is not a question of being meek and it is not a question of trying to take sides with personalities. There is an honest difference of opinion existing among certain of us who are on the Majority side of this aisle, but, Mr. President, we still continue to have an abiding respect for those who are differing with us, as well as we have a respect for those who are siding with us. Under no circumstances, Mr. President, do we propose to have this difference of opinion resolved into a civil war in the Republican Party. Dr. Logan has been the budget adviser of a good many Governors and every time he has had figures with which I did not agree, I have said so, privately and publicly. Mr. President, that is a prerogative which is reserved to any individual in the Commonwealth, especially if he is fortunate enough to hold public office, and no amount of dragging the bait across the top of the waters by the distinguished gentleman from Allegheny County, Senator Holland, will deviate us one iota from the accomplishment of the common purpose.

Mr. DENT. Mr. President, now that all the differences on the other side have been patched up, maybe we can get down to the main problem. I do not think any of us care whether there is a civil war in the Republican ranks or not. There is a difference between a civil war, though, and a revolution, and that ought to be clearly emphasized when we talk about the Republican situation in Pennsylvania today. However, that is their business. They are the custodians of their party; they are the custodians of their party's welfare, and so far as I am concerned, I want no part of it. We have enough trouble of our own.

However, Mr. President, getting back to basics, it might be interesting if you study this budget and look at it a little bit. A man can be accused of being in error without in any way attacking his integrity. For instance, if a person takes five minutes and looks at pages 39 and 40, you will see a tax that is identical, the only difference being that one, under one set of figures, it is called an ordinary or regular tax, and under another set of figures it is called an emergency tax. The degree of taxation is one and a half times, or, rather, half again as much under the regular tax, as under the emergency tax, and yet in the estimates made by—I have to say Logan because we have no other name to use. It is not particularly a fight on Logan as an individual, but you know in the fighting game, Mr. President, if you keep getting knocked out you are not the champion any more, and Logan has been knocked out to my knowledge every biennium since I have been here upon the figures that he has given and upon the figures we have given.

Mr. President, I know that we are in the Minority and I know that what we say does not carry too much weight, but if you will look at those figures in his estimate for 1951-1953, in the one instance he said there will be an increase of $116,000, and in the other instance, just one side of the page over to the other, he gives an estimate of $445,000 as the difference.

Now, Mr. President, if you have a tax of ten per cent on an item and it is called a regular tax, and you have a tax of five per cent on the same item under the title of an emergency tax, certainly in making an estimate of that tax you would take the same percentage point if you wanted to give to the Governor (and I understand he is the Governor's agent and not ours) a true picture of the fiscal problem in the Commonwealth.

Mr. President, early in the days of this Session we asked for certain figures. We have not received them to date. Now, there has been a rumor out that the Governor feels that he can last longer than the Members of the Legislature can. Well, that may be true; I do not know. I do not believe the Governor would say a thing like that unless, in the heat of a discussion, he might make a remark of that nature, but I do not think that he meant that he was going to force us, the Members of the General Assembly, into the position of taking his program. Now, if this General Assembly cannot have some knowledge of the budget items, some idea of the fiscal problems, if we have no agency in this Commonwealth where we can reach out and get figures from, then what good are we when it comes to passing legislation relating to the budget? I recommended early in the Session to the General Assembly that if we are not going to have a say in the make-up of the fiscal problems of the Commonwealth, that it would be best that we accept the Governor's recommendations, vote for them and go home, but if we are to be an independent arm of the government of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, then we must tear down the figures given to the Governor by his Budget Director.

Mr. President, Senator Yosko called attention to the fact that for four years in this Commonwealth there was a tax placed against the people, known as the 'soda pop tax, and at no time in the four year' period was the money received from the soda tax needed to meet the budget. That is why I am against the income tax. The moneys are not needed to meet the budget. However, if you give carte blanche to the various department heads, if you say to them, "Budgets do not mean anything so far as you are concerned; you can come in, you wait until six legislative days remain before your department becomes bankrupt and then you throw into the legislative hopper a twenty-two million or a sixteen million dollar deficiency appropriation," and the Legislature, with its mouth gagged and its hands tied, has to make your deficiency appropriation to keep from having a breakdown of government, then, naturally, you need $119,000,000. You could use $219,000,000, and I say to the Members of the Senate, Republicans and Democrats alike, you can give them $119,000,000, you can give them $200,000,000, and by the time you come back two years from now they will have it spent and it is not contained in the budget.

Let us pass the budget just as it is if you so desire, but let us put a restriction upon it. Make the departments live within their budgets the same as you do in a business enterprise, unless the board of directors are called in, and the board of directors in this instance are the Members of the General Assembly. They always shy away from that. They do not want a Special Session because it is too costly. It would cost a half million dollars, so to save a half million dollars we let them spend something like twenty-five million, and sixteen million and twenty-two million, and if my figures are anywhere near right, it would be about $63,000,000 of surplus moneys over and above the budget passed by the General Assembly.

Now, Mr. President, if the budget does not mean anything, if it is only a guise through which the Legislature passes taxes upon the people, then let us say so. Let us understand each other right out in the open, and so far as it being partisan, let me say this. Ever since I have been Floor Leader on the Minority Side, I have offered the cooperation of the Minority on the budget of Pennsylvania. In 1947, when we bitterly fought the soda pop tax, the increases in the sales taxes on the various items in Pennsylvania, Governor Duff said, "Why don't they offer a program?" We did offer a program, and I can say to the Members of this Senate today that if this program would have been accepted at that time, this General Assembly would not be faced with the problem that it is faced with today.

Mr. President, I said then and I repeat now, that I would not then and I will not now, under any set of circumstances, vote for a tax bill that will make the veteran pay for his own bonus. There are other items of taxation which were pointed out on this Senate floor where the veteran himself could not have participated in the wealth gaining activities that went on during the War when he was overseas fighting for us, and I said those are the activities that ought to be taxed to pay the bonus. I said it then and I repeat it now, and that means, for the information of the Senate, and I think I speak for the twenty Democratic members, that we are opposed to a sales tax, a general sales tax, and we are opposed to a general wage tax which would put the man who bore the gun right up in the front trenches, bearing the cost of the load of carrying the bonus payments.

They talk about this program, and say that the bonus payments are the cause for an increased tax program. Mr. President, the reduction in relief alone is sufficient to carry the bonus payments for the next biennium. The reduction in the Schuylkill River Project and in the public housing in Pennsylvania is sufficient to meet the needs for the schools as they are contained in the budget. I said early in the Session, and I repeat again, that it was a tragedy to tax the people $18,800,000 more than what the Council for Civilian Defense said they would need as administrative and executive expenses and for meeting the necessary stock piles, and to take this $18,800,000 out of the pockets of the people and put it in escrow is contrary to the Constitution of this Commonwealth and contrary to good economics and sound government.

Mr. President, today I read in the paper where the House Majority Leader, Mr. Smith of Philadelphia, has introduced a bill for $20,000,000 for civilian defense. Mr. President and Members of the Senate, what are we supposed to say to our people when they ask us questions, and they say, "Why did you vote for this appropriation?" Under the system that we are now operating under in Pennsylvania, the only thing we can say is, "That is what the Governor said he needed in January; that is what the Governor demanded in June."

I understood that they were going to name a new head of Civilian Defense, which has been done, and that this man was experienced. I am a member of that Commission and I voted in the Commission, too, against the $20,000,000 appropriation. How can you justify taxing the people of this Commonwealth to take money and put it in a bank? That is not the purpose of government. We are not a savings institution; we are an institution that is duty bound under the Constitution to only pass the necessary taxation to meet the requirements of the period for which we are legislating, and that, as I understand it, is a biennium.

Mr. President, you cannot keep doing what has been going on in Pennsylvania for the past twelve years. You cannot keep putting into the budget millions of dollars over and above the requirements and allowing the departments to run wild, especially right before election, adding thousands upon thousands of employees and then finding themselves obligated after the election to keep them. They become more or less permanent, and then at the next election more thousands are added on and they all end up in a bill for increased taxes.

Fundamentally, the problem in Pennsylvania can be traced here to the election campaign for Governor the last two times. Some say, "Well, if you were in power, you would do the same." Maybe so and maybe not. I wonder how long it will be before the people of Pennsylvania test that question and find out whether or not we would do it, and if we would do it, then I will go back to the words of President Roosevelt and say to both parties, "A plague on both your houses," because you cannot keep this up and you cannot allow the things to happen that are happening in Pennsylvania today. There is no excuse for the Members of the Legislature being here the first week in June of the year 1951, and no further on in our deliberations than what we are today. I have put resolutions in, members of the Democratic Party have put resolutions in, we have stood on the floor and petitioned, begged, and, yes, even threatened, trying to get the information that would give us some kind of a base from which to work. Now many men know how much money has come into the Commonwealth under C.N.I.? How many of you know that there is an underestimation of at least $50,000,000 in the next biennium? You say, "Well, what if you are wrong?" If I am wrong, we can meet again and correct it, but if Logan is wrong and you get $50,000,000, the $50,000,000 will be spent and there will be no correction, because the $50,000,000 then will become a necessary budget item for the next two years.

Mr. President, I tried to tell Governor Duff that if he kept passing taxes beyond his needs, that it would eventually end up as necessary expenses of the government, and the succeeding bienniums would be faced with the problem of meeting the expenses that he added to government, and he cannot absolve himself from the blame because Jim Duff added more to the cost of Pennsylvania's government than any other Governor since the beginning of time in Pennsylvania.

Now, Mr. President, these things are true and you are not going to tax the people of Pennsylvania, with our consent, $150,000,000 in the next biennium when you cannot prove that you need it. What is so secretive about the budget? What is so holy about it that we cannot delve into it and find out what happens here? Why is it that every two years they say, "We want so many million dollars more in taxes, and there is the budget that we will use as an excuse for wanting that money," and every time we go to open up the budget and try to pull from it some error that is obvious, we are told that it is easy to criticize. "You are on the other side; you are in the Minority." Well, criticism has its place. This two party system of government of ours would not last one generation if you did not have a militant, fighting minority.

There are those that condemn Senator Taft in Washington because he is always probing, always questioning, always fighting. You have never heard a word of criticism from me about those activities. I criticize him, yes, on some things, the same as others do when they do not believe in the same policy that he stands for on matters that deal with our foreign affairs and so on, but so far as his criticism of the Federal Administration's spending, so far as his criticism of the Federal Administration's job holding, as it were, you have never heard a word of criticism out of me, because I think that that is the duty of the Minority, and just as we have, year after year in Pennsylvania, criticized and lost every election, so Taft has criticized and the Republican Party has lost every election, but that does not mean that he is wrong, nor does it mean that we are wrong. It means that we are strengthening this institution that we all brag so much about, and rightfully so. It means that we are a two party system of government, handled, if you please, and managed, by politicians, and remember what I say here today that the minute politicians leave the scene in America, so soon will your democracy be destroyed, because it is upon the broad shoulders of the politicians that this democracy finds its strength. There cannot be no other answer to it, because in every nation where political minorities, political criticisms have been outlawed, those nations have fallen by the wayside. This Country will not fall by the wayside so long as there is a voice able and willing to take the opposite view. When we are wrong, we will be roundly criticized. We will accept that criticism, but we cannot stand forever in this Senate accepting carte blanche the recommendations that we know by historical fact have been wrong, and wrong and wrong. You cannot do that year after year without inviting a breakdown.

Mr. President, you cannot pass legislation allowing every community to place any tax that it wants to place upon the people, and then turn around and come into the State and place an additional set of taxes on. The time has come when curtailment must be the answer to some of this stuff. Any person that thinks that they cannot save an additional twenty-five or thirty million dollars in the relief administration of this State has not looked into the relief problem. I want some of you some time to take the number of relief cases in Pennsylvania and divide that number into the amount of money that is spent for administration, and I will guarantee that the cost of administration will buy a new pair of shoes every month for every kid on relief in the State of Pennsylvania, and it is so firmly entrenched.

Mr. President, when the Governor named a young lady, whom I understood to be a political figure in Delaware County, the Secretary of Public Assistance, I had hoped that maybe a politician, with his practical viewpoint of government, would get into the picture over there and see to it that we would be able to accumulate some savings for the Commonwealth, but what has happened? What has happened? They used to say in the old days, "No matter who you named to the Court of St. James as an Ambassador, within three months he would be wearing knee britches." That is what happened to us. No matter who we named to the Secretary's job in the Department of Public Assistance, the first thing we know they are in the association.

Why, Mr. President, I was told that it was not too much to have ten per cent of the total figure of relief spent for administration. Ten per cent of $300,000,000, ten per cent of $286,000,000, ten per cent of $254,000,000; these are the figures of the administrative cost. Why do I have to receive two or three times a month a fancy painted booklet telling me how nice they are treating the aged, and also give encouragement to the people that are on relief that better grants are coming, just wait and see.

Mr. President, relief is the last extreme, relief is charity; it is the last extreme where we find that individuals have no desire to go to work. Ought not that case be one that demands investigation? I have a letter where a woman writes to me and says that she is receiving $72.50 a week for herself and six children, and that it is not enough for them to live on. All she can buy is food. She cannot buy clothing, and if it would not be for two sons in the army sending her money, she could not buy clothing for those children. I do not want to embarrass this person by telling her name, because it so happens that years ago in grade school she was in my classroom, but, Mr. President, there are many thousands of Pennsylvania workers, working in the industries of this Commonwealth, with six or more children who do not make $72.50 a week. Seventy-two dollars and fifty cents a week by her own admission, and it is not enough money! Maybe it is not, I do not know. Maybe they cannot get along, but I will tell you one thing, that if it took that rate of expense to raise a family when we were kids in my home—there were twelve of us, incidentally—you would not be bothered with me here today, because we would have starved to death long ago.

You just cannot keep doing that. I do not care whether you have thirty votes or fifty votes on the other side, you cannot keep doing it. You cannot keep adding hundreds of millions of dollars to the tax problem without any restraint upon the spending, and I am going to say this, that unless you do something in that relief department, the $60,000,000 that the Governor has cut from its budget will be added back onto its expenditures. Do any of you know at what rate you are spending money over there right now at the highest period of employment in the history of Pennsylvania? We are now in the period of highest employment within the history of this Commonwealth, and you are still spending, Mr. President, on the last figures, around $8,000,000 a month.

Now, Mr. President, if we have to spend that when we have the period of employment that we have now, I do not want to be a Member of the General Assembly when employment drops and you start to pay the bill for 800,000 people on relief instead of 175,000. Another thing that I have tried to call your attention to, under the guise of relief you have this great expenditure and this great army, this great army of investigators. Westmoreland County has 175 families on relief. One hundred seventy-five families in Westmoreland County on relief, but how do they work this thing? I will tell you how they work it. They take the categorical reliefs, which do not belong in that department at all and ought to be right where they came from, the Department of Welfare, they take the categorical reliefs and they put those categorical reliefs, such as the blind, widows, and so on, in the same pocket with those that are on direct public assistance.

Now, Mr. President, here is how it works. If a fellow is blind, if he is blind today, I would say that his chances of being blind a month from now would be pretty good or pretty bad, whichever way you look at it, and yet by having this blind person on the roll, that investigator makes so many investigations a month. They are all put into the same pool and the investigators are investigating the blind, who need no investigation. He is also investigating the aged. If a man is seventy-five years old today, Mr. President, is there anything going to happen that they would have to go back and see if he is seventy-five a month later? That is the thing that is killing the goose that is laying the golden egg, book work, paper work.

Mr. President, I heard a lecturer say once that the thing that would destroy, if anything destroyed the Russian Government, the Communistic Government, would be the records that they keep, and I will tell you right now if the Department of Public Assistance records are any indication, it can very well be destroyed tomorrow. Why, the book that is carried by the relief investigator would challenge the mentality of any normal person to try to get from him instructions on how to go about their duties. It is twice as thick as a Sears and Roebuck catalogue, and half as interesting.

Mr. President, the Majority Leader said that they were going to get some information. I understand that they will get that information. Would it be asking too much to share it with us? If we are wrong, we would like to know in advance. We do not want you to get on the floor and take the figures that you are going to look at, and say, "Why, these are the figures that we got," and I will tell you right now that unless we get them, I will not agree that the figures are right.

That is very tempting; he made an offer. He said if I quit now, he will give me the figures. Mr. President, I quit now.

REPORTS FROM COMMITTEES

Mr. WOLFE. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. WOLFE, from the Committee on Military Affairs and Aeronautics, reported as committed, Senate Bill No. 692, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 1 of the act, approved the twenty-second day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 837), entitled, as amended, "An act providing for and requiring in certain cases preference in appointments to and retention in public position or on public works for honorably discharged persons who served in the military or naval service during any war in which the United States engaged; and in certain cases for the widows and wives of such persons," by further defining the word "veteran" to include all persons who served in the armed forces since the twentieth day of June, one thousand nine hundred fifty and who are honorably discharged therefrom.

Mr. STEVENSON. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to make report from committee at this time.

The PRESIDENT. Is there objection? The Chair hears none.

Mr. STEVENSON, from the Committee on Local Government, reported as amended, Senate Bill No. 655, entitled:

An Act to amend the title and act approved the twenty-first day of May, one thousand nine hundred forty-three (P. L. 571) entitled "An act relating to assessment for taxation in counties of the fourth, fifth, sixth, seventh and eighth classes; designating the subjects, property and persons subject to and exempt from taxation for county, borough, town, township, school, except in cities and county institution district purposes; and providing for and regulating the assessment and valuation thereof for such purposes; creating in each such county a board for assessment and revision of taxes; defining the powers and duties of such boards; providing for the acceptance of this act by cities; regulating the office of ward, borough, town and township assessors; abolishing the office of assistant triennial assessor in townships of the first class; providing for the appointment of a chief assessor, assistant assessors and other employees; providing for their compensation payable by such counties; prescribing certain duties of and certain fees to be collected by the recorder of deeds; and eliminating the triennial assessment," by further regulating the assessment and valuation of real property for local taxation purposes; further defining the duties of assessors and chief assessors; changing the time for the preparation and inspection of the assessment roll and duplicate assessment roll, notice of appeal and hearings on appeals; prescribing duties of and fees to be collected by municipal officers who issue building permits; imposing duties on taxables, making improvements on land and grantees of land; and prescribing penalties.

BILLS SIGNED

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) announced that the Chief Clerk having reported that the following bills had passed both houses of the General Assembly and the same being correct, the titles were publicly read as follows:

House Bill No. 524, entitled:

An Act relating to criminal prosecutions; permitting defendants to make motions in arrest of judgment on the ground that the evidence is insufficient to sustain the charge and providing for the effect thereof.

House Bill No. 776, entitled:

An Act to amend Section 506 of the act, approved the seventeenth day of May, one thousand nine hundred twenty-one (P. L. 789), entitled, as amended "Insurance Department Act of 1921," by requiring notice of dissolution of stock or mutual fire insurance companies, association or exchanges to be given to policyholders or members.

House Bill No. 1040, entitled:

An Act authorizing the Secretary of Property and Supplies to sell and convey a tract of land situate in the Township of Cecil, Washington County, Pennsylvania; providing for reversion to the Commonwealth.

House Bill No. 1081, entitled:

An Act to further amend clause (b) of Section 507 and clause (c) of Section 2403 of the act, approved the ninth day of April, one thousand nine hundred twenty-nine (P. L. 177), entitled "Administrative Code of 1929," by making special provision for the purchase of steel to be used in the manufacture of vehicle registration plates.

House Bill No. 1223, entitled:

An Act appropriating certain moneys in the Motor License Fund to Cities, Boroughs, Towns, and Townships of the Commonwealth for certain purposes and for a limited time, conferring powers and imposing duties on the officials of such political subdivisions and on the Department of Highways.

Whereupon,

The President (Lieutenant-Governor Lloyd H. Wood) in the presence of the Senate signed the same.

RESOLUTION REFERRED TO COMMITTEE

URGING THAT THE JOINT STATE GOVERNMENT COMMISSION BE DIRECTED TO STUDY THE EFFECTS OF TRUCK WEIGHTS ON HIGHWAYS AND ROADS

Mr. HOLLAND offered the following resolution which was twice read and referred to the Committee on Highways:

In the Senate, June 5, 1951.

Whereas, The problem of increasing existing authorized truck weights on the highways and roads of this Commonwealth is a controversial issue at each session of the legislature and has been for years; and

Whereas, The General Assembly's debate of this important problem so far has produced no solution, but has unfortunately resulted only in the unfair labelling of each Member as partisan either of the trucking industry or the railroad industry; and

Whereas, Such an undesirable impasse is the more unreasonable when it is realized that judgment on so controversial a matter actually belongs not with laymen—as the Members of the General Assembly are in this case—nor with the financially interested trucking and railroad industries but with technical experts—the road-builders and engineers who alone have the skill, experience and knowledge to determine how much weight, stress, and strain our highways and roads can bear; and

Whereas representatives of ten states, the District of Columbia, The Federal Bureau of Public Roads, and the Automotive Association have been conducting exhaustive tests to establish proper weight limits, load distributions and speeds in order to avoid damage to public highways and danger to traffic; and

Whereas, The General Assembly can conscientiously do its duty in passing legislation relating to truck weights only when it receives advice and counsel from the aforementioned highway experts as to the facts; now therefore be it

Resolved (if the House of Representatives concur), That the Joint State Government Commission is hereby directed to study the problem of the effects of weight on the highways and roads of this Commonwealth to find what truck weights can be permitted commensurate with safety and economy, and in so doing to gather and compile all the available facts on the matter; and be it further

Resolved, That for such purpose it shall consult with road experts—builders, contractors, and engineers representing Federal, State and interested political subdivisions. It shall also make or cause to be made tests and investigations to obtain actual evidence in extension of expert opinion, and obtain results of all tests made or being made to decide proper weights of trucks; and be it further

Resolved, That the Commission shall report its findings together with accompanying proposed legislation to effectuate the same to the General Assembly by February 1, 1953.

SENATE RESOLUTION

CONDOLENCE OF THE SENATE EXTENDED TO THE NEPHEW OF THE LATE DENNIS CARDINAL DAUGHERTY

Messrs. BYRNE and McCREESH offered the following resolution which was twice read, considered and agreed to:

In the Senate, June 5, 1951.

Whereas, God, in His all devine wisdom, has seen fit call home Dennis Cardinal Daugherty, and

Whereas, the dearly beloved Archbishop lived in a manner that enriched the lives of those of all faiths, and

Whereas, his goodness and charity have long pointed the way to the unalterable duty of man's obligations to man, now

Be It Resolved, that this Senate does make known its sense of loss in the passing of this great Churchman and American, and that the Secretary of the Senate send a copy of this Resolution to Most Reverend J. Carroll McCormick, Auxilliary Bishop of Philadelphia, nephew of the late Dennis Cardinal Daugherty.

Section 5 The provisions of this act shall become effective the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one Provided That all certificates of registration heretofore issued to any individual shall continue to be effective for the balance of the period for which issued and the provisions of the act hereby amended shall remain in force as to such certificates until they expire The amendments made by this act shall not apply in the case of any violation committed prior to the effective date hereof

And said bill having been read at length the third time, and agreed to,

And the amendments made thereto having been printed as required by the Constitution,

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. HOLLAND. Mr. President, before this bill is voted on, I would like to call the attention of the Members of the Senate that yesterday at the hearing of the G. I. Schools, the Department of Public Instruction stated that they did not have the facilities to properly police the G. I. Schools because they do not have sufficient employees. I wondered whether if they could not protect the veterans in the G. I. Schools, how they could protect the public in issuing permits for funds for so-called charity institutions.

Mr. President, I am also informed that every department on the Hill turned down this bill; that is, they do not want their department to be in the bill, and as a last resort the Department of Public Instruction was put in I think it is a more serious matter and should be given a little bit more consideration than just passing it from one department to another, and then one department admits, under the G. I. Bill of Rights for schools in Pennsylvania, that they failed miserably in carrying out the policing and investigation of the G. I. schools.

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, for the information of the gentleman from Allegheny, Senator Holand, there was a recommendation made quite some time ago on the transfer of this particular phase of governmental operation from the Department of Welfare. The first recommendation was made, Senator, to transfer it to the Department of Revenue because of the fact that in these applications there frequently was a fee involved. The Department of Revenue explained that all of this licensing is handled by the Department of Public Instruction.

Now, Mr. President, there are several bureaus in the Department of Public Instruction, and I appreciate his concern over whether or not the Department of Public Instruction will be in a position to handle this new responsibility. It will not go into the same bureau as that particular bureau which handled the licensing of veterans schools or the G. I. schools. There is no other department involved except the Department of Revenue, which entered into the picture as a preliminary discussion.

The various component heads felt that it would be much better located in Public Instruction than anywhere else, and that is why the change was made. If the gentleman will refer to the bill itself, he will notice that when the bill was originally introduced, the responsibility was placed in Revenue. While the bill was in Committee, it was learned by conferences by the Chairman of that Committee, who is a colleague of ours from Allegheny County, that it would be much more efficiently and effectively manned in Public Instruction, and that is why it was placed there. The Committee felt confident it would be properly administered in that particular department. I assure him it is our sincere hope that it will not fall into the category as suggested by him.

Shall the bill pass finally?

BILL OVER IN ORDER

Mr. WALKER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent that Senate Bill No. 219, on third reading, entitled:

An Act to provide for the coverage of certain officers and employes of the Commonwealth and its political subdivisions under the old-age and survivor insurance provisions of Title II of the Federal Social Security Act as amended creating the State-Federal Social Security Board and conferring powers and imposing duties upon the Board authorizing the Board to enter into agreements with the Federal Security Administrator and with political subdivisions under certain terms and conditions providing for the Commonwealth's contribution under agreements with the Federal Security Administration and for the collection and payment of employer and employee contributions authorizing interstate cooperation in certain cases creating a Contribution Fund and making appropriations.

TUESDAY, June 5, 1951

The House met at 12:00 noon EST.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

PRAYER

The Reverend Michael Pasto, guest Chaplain, rector of St. Donato's Church, Philadelphia, guest of the lady from Philadelphia, Mrs. Varallo, offered the following prayer:

Let us pray O gracious Lord grant good health and strength to these Thy sons, our Governor and the Representatives to fulfill their burdensome duties. Send them O Lord, Thy wisdom, illuminate their minds with the Holy Spirit, that they may establish fruitful laws for the benefit of the citizens of this State.

Grant unto them strength to achieve perfection in the process of government, that they may serve as an example to all states of the world. Give them light, that they may easily distinguish truth from falsehood, good from evil, and that they may not succumb to the imaginary promises of atheistic communism whose aim is the blackest slavery.

On this day we also ask that Thou grant eternal rest to a distinguished son of this State: His Eminence Dennis Cardinal Dougherty, Archbishop of Philadelphia.

In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Ghost. Amen.

JOURNAL APPROVED

PERMISSION TO ADDRESS HOUSE

Mrs. VARALLO asked and obtained unanimous consent to address the House.

Mr. Speaker, at the invitation of the Department of Welfare the five women members of the House of Representatives who are on the Welfare Committee toured and visited the mental institutions for women in Pennsylvania.

I have before me our report of that tour signed by the five women members of the House Welfare Committee. I would like the unanimous consent of the House to read the report for the information of the House membership.

Our group visited the Harrisburg State Hospital and Laurelton State Village, in Laurelton, Pennsylvania, for women only, with the purported intent to know them better and to become more familiar with what is happening in our mental hospitals, both as to activity and progress, not only in these two institutions, but with the many others throughout the State.

The Harrisburg State Hospital is the first mental institution in the state of Pennsylvania, and it is headed by Dr. Howard K. Petry. Under his leadership this hospital is in reality a model. We have not seen a hospital that impressed us so favorably as this one.

The Laurelton State Village Hospital is headed by a woman physician, Dr. Effie C. Ireland. The hospital under her leadership deserves high praise and commendation; seeing that patients receiving the best possible care and service. She is doing a magnificent job.

These hospitals exist for the care of patients whose illness prevents their living in the community; with the constant aim to return as many of them to their homes as possible.

It is worthy of note the interest the physicians of the medical staff of these hospitals undertake to institute new things, such as being one of the first to use malarial therapy, insulin shock, electro shock, and any of the newer forms of medical treatment. The Occupational Therapy Department where numerous groups of patients are engaged daily in classes learning to use their hands and, at the same time are being helped to recover through activity and interest in their work. We have seen exhibits of handcraft, costume jewelry made of shells, ceramics, paintings, rug-weaving, needle work, stuffed animals. In the kitchen the men patients were baking bread, pies and cakes; and in the field indulging in agricultural activities.

Being led through the various wards at the Harrisburg State Hospital we entered one that was packed with beds. We would say that there must have been about 160 beds in this one room with no space in between so that one could pass through them. Continuing into another ward, a much sadder note was sounded when Dr. Petry announced that these patients are the 'forgotten mothers' who have no visitors. Here we were faced with the realities of life—complete abandonment of "Mothers" by their own families; such ungratefulness and heartlessness as to dispel totally the existence of their mothers, and not to ever visit them, thus placing the entire burden of their maintenance upon the Commonwealth. It reminded me of an old Italian proverb which I learned while touring Italy: "One mother can take care of ten children but ten children cannot take care of a mother." Moving further our attention was directed to a building in the vicinity of the hospital, at about a distance of approximately 200 feet. There stood a privately owned building termed by the hospital personnel as the "nuisance building." It is used by the owner as a gathering place for all types of meetings, dances, bingo, etc. Their doings carry on until the wee hours of the morning with their loud music, loud talking and singing, thus keeping the patients restless and with loss of sleep throughout the night.

If it is possible to purchase the property and eliminate this so titled "nuisance building" we highly recommend this action. Continuing with our tour Dr. Petry told us of one of their patients who had recently died at the age of 91. He had been in the institution for 50 years; and that with the many new treatments and new medicines that they have been administering to them, most of their patients lives have been prolonged, and live to a very old age. This brings forth the problem here in Pennsylvania, of the old people which have increased double since the last generation, and which bears reading this worthy 'editorial' appearing in the Philadelphia Inquirer on May 28, 1951, titled:

Help for the Elderly

The measure now before the State Legislature authorizing the Joint State Government Commission to conduct a study of the needs of the aged in Pennsylvania, focuses official and public attention upon a serious social problem.

Since 1940 the number of Pennsylvanians over 65 has grown by 33 per cent and now approaches a million persons, of whom one in ten is on relief. In fact, old age assistance cases now make up almost half the caseload of the State Department of Public Assistance.

Foreboding as such figures are, they give only a hint of the real problem, for many of those on relief are in dire circumstances through no fault of their own, other than that they have lived longer than was usual a generation ago. Moreover, our medical scientists are, as they ought to be, bending every effort to increase the present life span, while in contrast the rest of our society holds to arbitrary discriminations barring older persons from useful existence.

The tendency to ignore this contradiction as it builds toward a crisis is dangerous. The plight of those of advanced years requires, for one thing, readjustment of accepted employment practices which may only be possible through special legislation.

In any case, present practice of assigning most older persons, whether able-bodied or not, to permanent, unproductive dependence upon public or private charity is unjust and wasteful. An official study ought to be a step toward its elimination.

Statistics of the Department of Welfare show:

Recovery of new admissions to State mental hospitals is as high as 58%.

Ratio of physicians to patients is now one physician to every 251 patients as compared to only one physician to 321 patients in 1946.

Ratio of nurses to patients is now one nurse to 61 patients as compared to 116 patients four years ago.

Number of attendants has improved from 1 to 18 patients to one to 10 patients.

The Department of Welfare has under its care over 37,100 mentally ill and over 8,200 mental defectives and epileptics overcrowding is admitted.

Today in America Mental Health has become the number one problem. We have found no reason to complain for any lack or insufficient interest towards expanding this most important effort for services of prevention, prompt treatment, and care. Mental Health has to do with everybody's everyday life. Public interest in Mental Health has increased sharply, and our own Department of Welfare is being filled with requests from clubs and organizations, particularly women, all over the State to satisfy the growing demand for public information on this subject of universal interest.

To relieve the strain on the present facilities and insufficient personnel, and with what appears a never ending race to catch up with the overcrowding, we urge our State Government to continue the great program which has been established—by additional construction projects; by revamping and remodeling; by providing facilities; and by staffing the new building; which brings forth the Statement made by Governor Fine on Mental Health Week, May 2nd to 8th, and I quote:

I urge the citizens of Pennsylvania to become better informed on the activity and progress of state and community mental health facilities, and to appreciate for further action that a healthy united nation rests upon the individual family that is united by healthy relationships.

Signed: MARY A. VARALLO, JOSEPHINE C. COYLE,
MARION L. MUNLEY,
SUSIE MONROE,
MARIAN E. MARKLEY.

I call this report to the attention of all the members.

ANNOUNCEMENT

The SPEAKER. Immediately upon the calling of a recess there will be a Republican Caucus in the new House caucus room and a Democratic Caucus in the old House Caucus room. Members are requested to proceed promptly to their Caucuses and to return at the appointed time so that the work of the House may be completed.

RECESS

The SPEAKER. If there is no objection, the Chair will declare a recess for forty-five minutes. The Chair hears none, and a recess is declared.

AFTER RECESS

The time of recess having expired, the House was called to order.

The SPEAKER (Herbert P. Sorg) in the Chair.

COMMUNICATION FROM THE GOVERNOR

The Secretary to the Governor being introduced, presented a communication in writing from His Excellency the Governor, which was read as follows:

APPROVAL OF HOUSE BILLS Nos. 1022 and 1023

Commonwealth of Pennsylvania,
Governor's Office, Harrisburg, June 4, 1951.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1022, Printer's No. 259, entitled "An Act to amend sections 1 and 7 of the act approved the twenty-ninth day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 244) entitled 'An act creating a Local Government Commission to study and report on functions of local government their allocation and elimination the cost of local government and means of reducing it and the consolidation of local government and making an appropriation' by providing for the expenditure of any biennial appropriation made to the Local Government Commission."

JOHN S. FINE.

June 4, 1951.

To the Honorable, the House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania:

I have the honor to inform you that I have this day approved and signed House Bill No. 1023, Printer's No. 260, entitled "An Act making an appropriation to the Local Government Commission to continue its work," in the sum of $1,000. I withhold my approval from the remainder of said appropriation because at this time sufficient State revenue has not been provided to meet the expenses of government for all of the next biennium.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

Mr. POLEN. I would like to ask the gentleman if he would tell us what the amendments to Section 1 do.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Rigby, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. RIGBY. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Allegheny County, Mr. Corr.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Rigby yields to the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Corr. Will the gentleman permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. CORR. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Corr, what the amendments to Section 1 does?

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, the amendments proposed by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rigby, to go into them into detail would take too long as there are ten typewritten pages.

For the purpose of answering the question of the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen, if I may do so broadly, let me say all the amendments proposed by Mr. Rigby, that is, all phases of bill 334 such as the freeze clause, raising the minimum, extra reimbursement for joint school districts and mergers of school districts, the amendments do not affect bill 334 as far as those phases are concerned, but it changes the basic reimbursement for instruction as provided in House Bill 1080, with which Mr. Polen is familiar.

PARLIAMENTARY INQUIRY

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to a parliamentary inquiry.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will state it.

Mr. POLEN. If the amendments are agreed to by sections when we vote on adopting amendments, will we be voting on the sections as they are agreed to, or will we have to vote on each section?

The SPEAKER. The amendments to each section must be voted on first, and then on the section if it is amended.

Mr. POLEN. Under the circumstances, Mr. Speaker, I will just reserve the right to speak on all of the amendments at the conclusion, if that is agreeable, to oppose them.

The SPEAKER. Is the gentleman aware of the fact that all of the amendments are to Section 1. The gentleman is in order to speak on all of the amendments.

Mr. POLEN. I was not, Mr. Speaker, but I see now that they all are to Section 1.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to further interrogate the gentleman from Allegheny Mr. Corr?

Mr. POLEN. Not at this time, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. Does the gentleman desire to debate the amendments to Section 1?

Mr. POLEN. Yes, Mr. Speaker.

The SPEAKER. The Chair recognizes the gentleman from Washington, Mr. Polen for that purpose.

Mr. POLEN. Mr. Speaker, I rise to oppose these amendments. Though I understand the problems of the school district of the City of Pittsburgh and other districts similarly situated, however, the formula that we now use in the reimbursement is one of the best I think that has been devised. If we would adopt these amendments that have been presented—I am not going to go into detail in the different provisions, but I would say this briefly to the Members of the House—while this reduces the local effort, I believe these amendments from four to three mills it also reduces the subsidy base from $3850.00 in House Bill 334 to $3450. When the formula is worked out he will find that it will substantially reduce the amount that will be paid by the Commonwealth in reimbursement to the average school district.

I think, to pass these amendments, while it would be of benefit to the City of Pittsburgh and to certain other districts, it would create a chaotic condition in the finances of a greater number of the school districts of Pennsylvania.

For that reason I ask the Members of the House to vote down these amendments.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, I have a short statement prepared by the Directors of the Pennsylvania Economy League who worked on these bills, and to go into all the statistics would take too long a time. I would like the privilege of reading, first, two or three short paragraphs and then asking that the remainder be inserted in the record.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman will proceed.

Mr. CORR. First, before reading the paragraphs, I would like to briefly state our problem in Pittsburgh.

Under the present bill it will be necessary to raise two million dollars in additional taxes in order to keep our school program functioning properly. We have reached the limit as far as taxes on real estate are concerned. We are now levying eleven and three quarter mills, and without the help of this Legislature we cannot put any additional burden on real estate.

At this time we have in committee bill 1080 which we feel will alleviate the situation to a certain extent. So when I read these remarks I want you to understand while we are on 334 some of these arguments were prepared in presenting the other bill 1080.

These amendments provide for a change in the formula for the distribution of the State school subsidies by lowering the local effort millage from four mills to three mills, keeping the maximum for 1950-1951 payable in 1951-1952 at $3450 and increasing the maximum subsidy thereafter in line with the provisions of House Bill 334.

There are 338 school districts containing forty-seven percent of all the teaching units in the Commonwealth which would receive a larger proportional increase in subsidies. These 338 districts have been on the short end of state subsidies for several years. One hundred and twenty-eight of these districts received a minimum of $800 per teaching unit while many other districts receive as much as $3200 per teaching unit from the state.

These amendments would be a step in the direction of ironing out some of the inequities that have existed for the past five years. There are some school districts in Pennsylvania which are receiving almost their entire current expense costs from the State funds, while other school districts receive only a small fraction of their cost from the State.

Since the Commonwealth mandates teachers' salaries in school programs, it is inequitable for the state to provide 90 percent of the local school costs to some districts and as little as ten percent to other districts. Furthermore there is evidence to show that boosting the maximum subsidy higher and higher is discouraging rather than encouraging consolidation, because it is to the financial advantage of many school districts to remain small and inefficient.

Looking back over the last five years we find in 1946-1947, the minimum subsidy per teaching unit was $600. It is now $800. The minimum, therefore, has been increased only thirty-three and one third percent. On the other hand the maximum subsidy was eighteen hundred; it is now $3350. The maximum therefore has been increased 86 percent.

Furthermore many school districts felt in 1946 and 1947 that the spread between the $600 minimum and the $1800 maximum was too large. Today the spread between the $800 minimum and a maximum of $3350 is even greater and results in more striking inequities.

Reduction of the local effort millage and the subsidy formula merits consideration from another point of view. In 1945 the local effort millage was set at five mills. In 1947 it was six mills. In 1949 it was dropped to four mills. From 1945 to July 1, 1950 however the county assessments of real estate were used as a basis of calculating the state school subsidies. For 1949-1950 subsidies payable in 1951, the Commonwealth shifted to market values as determined by the State Equalization Board in computing school subsidies, but the local effort millage has retained at four mills.

It is apparent that four mills on market value is equal to more than ten mills on assessed valuations. Therefore districts with relatively high market values were discriminated against further in the shift to the market value basis. If four mills local effort on assessed valuation was equitable then the millage on market values should be 1.6 mills instead of four mills or even three mills proposed by these amendments.

These amendments, by lowering the local effort millage in the subsidy formula, would reduce the inequity that exists under the present law and would provide a fairer distribution of the state's school subsidies. Your support is earnestly requested.

A Discussion of Possible Changes in State Reimbursement to School District

There are two elements in the State reimbursement formula which are the determining factors in arriving at the amount received by each school district. One is the maximum reimbursement, and the other is the local effort. The local effort in turn is dependent upon the amount of market valuation of taxable property behind each teaching unit. Because market values per teaching unit vary considerably between the different school districts, the importance of the local effort differs correspondingly.

In the past, revisions of the State reimbursement formula have been directed toward increasing the maximum reimbursement. The substitution of the State Tax Equalization Board figures for the local assessment figures provided for a reduction in the local efforts from six mills on the assessed valuation to four mills of the market value. But as experience indicates, this reduction in the local effort apparently was not enough to offset the higher market value figures in many districts.

Hence, for districts with considerable amounts of taxable property behind each pupil, the present reimbursement formula has meant either no increases in State grants, or potential future losses. It would, therefore, be to the benefit of those districts if greater emphasis were placed on the reduction of the local effort rather than increases in the maximum reimbursement.

The basic facts are that it would cost the State approximately $5½ million for each $100 increase in the maximum reimbursement per teaching unit and about $22 million for each one-mill reduction in the local effort. In other words, an increase of $400 in the reimbursement is equivalent to a one-mill decrease in local effort insofar as the total cost to the State is concerned.

Any district which has a reimbursement fraction for 1950-51 of less than .5224 gains more by a decrease in local effort rather than by an increase in the maximum reimbursement using the same amount of State funds. Naturally, the smaller the reimbursement fraction, the larger the value of one mill in local effort.

For example, the districts which have a reimbursement fraction of .2500 have a market valuation per teaching unit of $628.125. Hence, in their case a reduction of one mill in the local effort is worth $628 per teaching unit. Therefore, if the State were to spend the same amount of money on a one-mill reduction of the local effort millage instead of a $400 increase in the maximum reimbursement, it would mean a gain of more than 50 percent in the reimbursement per teaching unit.

An analysis of all school districts in Pennsylvania shows that there are 399 districts that would receive more in State subsidies if the same amount of State funds were expended on a reduction of one mill in the local effort instead of an increase of $400 in the maximum reimbursement per teaching unit.

However, 16 of those 399 districts have no reimbursable teaching units; consequently, while the reimbursement fraction indicates a possible gain, these districts actually would not be involved. Furthermore, there are 45 districts, in the group which receives the minimum reimbursement, whose market value per teaching unit is so high that the reduction of one mill in the local effort would still leave them with less than the present $800 minimum. Assuming that the minimum is continued, those districts would not gain or lose by this change.

These 338 districts, though small in number (only 15 percent of the total of the 2,531 districts in the State), contain 25,526.4 reimbursable teaching units, which is approximately 47 percent of the total reimbursable units in the State. It should be restated again that 45 districts with 943.6 reimbursable teaching units would not be affected by a reduction of one mill in the local effort. Hence, the increased State aid would apply only to 338 districts with 24,582.8 reimbursable units. Based on the 1950-51 reimbursable teaching units, these districts stand to gain a total of $4,453,489 if the reduction in the local effort is used instead of increased maximum reimbursements.

The analysis of these districts by counties shows that there are seven counties where the majority of the districts containing more than a majority of the reimbursable teaching units within those counties would gain. They include Allegheny, Bucks, Chester, Delaware, Montgomery, Philadelphia, and Pike.

There are five other counties where less than the majority of the districts would gain, but these districts contain a major portion of the reimbursable teaching units. They include Berks, Dauphin, Erie, Lehigh, and Northampton.

Seven other counties would be affected to a lesser degree but would involve some of the larger school districts in those counties. They include Beaver, Butler, Crawford, Cumberland, Lancaster, Monroe, and Westmoreland.

Attached is a summary of the districts involved, classified into six major groups by standard reimbursement fraction intervals. This tabulation shows the number of districts involved, the number of reimbursable teaching units, and the gain in State aid for these districts. Another summary by counties (including only the 19 counties mentioned above) shows the total number of districts in the county, the number of districts gaining, the total number of reimbursable teaching units in the county, and the number of reimbursable units in the districts gaining by this proposed formula, as well as the amount of increased State aid.

The figures in these two summary tables include only the districts which would gain by this proposal. In order to get the complete picture for each one of the 19 counties involved, it would be necessary to compute the same information for all districts in each of the counties. Such an analysis was made for Allegheny County, where it is found that 62 districts show a gain of $1,212,239. The remaining 55 districts would receive lesser amounts totalling $157,261, or a net gain of the combined districts of Allegheny County of about $1,055,000.

Aside from the fact that the shift of emphasis from an increase in the maximum reimbursement to a decrease in the local effort would benefit districts with about 47 percent of the total reimbursable teaching units, it should be pointed out that further increases in the maximum reimbursement may get to the point where the maximum reimbursement will be greater than the actual current expenditures per teaching unit in some districts.

An analysis of 80 school districts in Western Pennsylvania, all of which operate a complete elementary and secondary program, shows that there are five districts that spend less than $3,850 per teaching unit in current expenditures. If the maximum reimbursement were raised to the $4,200 advocated by the P. S. E. A., five more districts would fall into that category, or a total of ten out of 80.

For districts which operate only elementary programs, the cost would, of course, run proportionately lower. This is another reason why it would be more advisable to apply any further increases in State aid in the reduction of the local effort instead of the increase in the maximum reimbursement.

Another factor which would support the desirability of emphasizing the reduction in the local effort instead of an increase in the maximum reimbursement deals with the encouragement for joint school operations. One of the arguments cited in support of establishing a joint school system has been the fact that the State appropriations were usually greater under joint schools than under separate operation. This had considerable merits when the maximum reimbursement was at $2,450. With the increase in the maximum reimbursement to $3,350 for the current year and to $3,450 for the following school year, this gain has lessened considerably. Further increases in the maximum reimbursement will tend to eliminate this advantage and hence, remove an argument in favor of joint school operations. The continuation of small inefficient high schools should be encouraged.

A study made by Mr. Walter G. Clark, County Superintendent of Schools of Tioga County, shows that in the eight joint school systems operating in Tioga County, with the increase in the maximum reimbursement to $3,450, much of the financial advantage that had been held two years earlier was lost. In fact, in the case of some districts even with the $3,450 base, the individual school district received almost as much as the members of a joint school system, and would receive considerably more if the maximum reimbursement is raised to $4,200.

* Note: With a 1 mill reduction, the Districts marked by an asterisk (*) will remain at the minimum of $800.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, I merely want to admit that we on the Committee are agreed that the City of Pittsburgh School District definitely has a problem. But I want to point out to the membership of this House if we try to correct their problem by the method suggested by the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Rigby, by reducing the local effort one mill you are going to place a burden of $21 million on someone. Now if we do nothing but simply reduce that local effort one mill, that burden will rest entirely with the Commonwealth. We will need $21 million additional monies. By taking the reduction of $400 from the maximum subsidy you are taking away from the average school district of this Commonwealth the sum of approximately $21 millions.

For that reason, Mr. Speaker, I ask that the membership vote down these amendments.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, I would like to answer the gentleman, Mr. Helm.

In regard to the $21 million or $22 million, the basic facts are that it would cost the state approximately five and a half million for each $100 increase in the maximum reimbursement per teaching unit or $22 million to increase the maximum four hundred thousand. That is under the present bill from $3450 to $3850.

On the other hand it would cost about $22 million for each one mill reduction in the local effort. In other words an increase of four hundred in reimbursement is equivalent to one mill decrease in the local effort insofar as the total cost to the state is concerned. These amendments and the amount required in bill 334 cost the state approximately the same amount. They balance each other. There is no cost of $22 million by these amendments.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. Moran and Cochran.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Moran, Hunter and Jenkins.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the Amendments?

Mr. ANDREWS. For the purpose of the record, Mr. Speaker, I think there should be some brief statement as to the purpose of the amendment upon which the House is to vote.

Mr. CORR. Mr. Speaker, these amendments are practically the same as those voted down previously.

They provide for the retention of the freeze clause and the other clauses, but they split the difference between $3850 and $3450 and ask for $3650 and instead of the four mills local effort provide for three and one-half mills. That is the only difference. It is a compromise between our original House Bills 1080 and 334.

Mr. HELM. Mr. Speaker, the explanation of the gentleman from Allegheny, Mr. Corr, is absolutely correct and the amendments should be defeated for the same reason as stated previously.

Mr. SARRAF. Mr. Speaker, before you announce the calling of the roll I wish the House to understand that this means a great deal to Pittsburgh.

It means, since we have an appointed board, that the taxpayers of Pittsburgh, in spite of the fact that they are contributing to the state and getting this inadequate and improper return, must through you and I, the Legislature, obtain $2 million, and the only place we find that they can tap is our real estate in Pittsburgh. This is a very important issue.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the amendments?

The SPEAKER. Are there objections to the same roll call being used as for the prior amendments? Is there objection? The Chair hears none, and consent is granted.

The yeas and nays were required by Messrs. Moran and Cochran and were as follows:

Amend Sec. 2, page 24, lines 18, 19 and 20, by striking out all of said lines.

Amend Sec. 2, page 25, lines 1 and 2, by striking out both of said lines.

Amend Sec. 2, (Sec. 2503), page 25, line 6, by striking out the bracket before the word "or."

Amend Sec. 2, (Sec. 2503), page 25, line 6, by inserting a bracket before and after the word "high."

Amend Sec. 2, (Sec. 2503), page 25, line 8, by striking out the bracket after the word "instruction."

Amend Sec. 2, (Sec. 2503), page 26, line 6, by inserting after the word "school" the following "joint schools."

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The third section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. HELM offered the following amendment:

Amend Sec. 3, page 27, line 11, by striking out the figure "3" and inserting in lieu thereof "2."

It was agreed to.

The title was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the title?

Mr. HELM offered the following amendment:

Amend Title, page 1, lines 1 and 2 of Title, by striking out the words "subsections 5 and 6 of section two thousand five hundred one and section two thousand five hundred two of."

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I desire, as I indicated previously, to say what I have to say about the educational program at this time.

I appreciate the efforts of the Committee on Education. It has had a difficult task. It has worked hard at that task. It has had to strike a compromise and balance.

It seems that there is a three-fold base of support for the program which has been submitted. The Governor's Office, the PSEA and the Directors Association, and that having arrived at a decision, an agreement, no one is privileged to disturb that tripod, because if anything is done to change the basic agreement that has not been arrived at on this floor the program is in danger, might even fall.

The debate today on the bills presented, shows how completely we have failed as yet to grapple with the basic problems which our educational situation, our school program presents.

I say to you, as you all know, that the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania operating through its General Assembly has never been as generous and as considerate to the City of Philadelphia as it has been to the rural districts. And I say to you that the formulae that we have framed, largely determined in many instances by the powerful organization known as the School Directors Association, has prevented us from outlining a formula that does justice to Pittsburgh.

When we take into consideration the financial contributions made to the school districts by the cities of Philadelphia and Pittsburgh and compare their contribution ratably, we find that they have for years been carrying the burden of many districts that have consistently failed to meet their obligations—their obligations to the children, their obligations to the Commonwealth.

Now it is a serious bit of business when we find that a rural minority which has not in many instances been mindful of its obligations becomes the determining factor in framing the formula through which our public school system is financed. And all of this is due to a basic misconception upon the part not only of the school directors generally but of the general public.

There is a feeling that the Commonwealth assists the school districts. That is not the legal theory, it is not the constitutional theory. It is the Commonwealth that tells the school districts the measure of the support that they should give the Commonwealth itself in maintaining the school system, because the obligation of maintaining the school system lies not primarily with the school district but with the Commonwealth itself. And it is on that basis that the Commonwealth says to the district "This is the measure of your support to our school system."

I am very sorry, indeed, that in our salary schedule we have not made a more basic approach to the fundamental problem, that faces those in charge, those responsible for the management of our school districts; and that basic fundamental thing is to make certain that there is fit into the bottom of our teaching structure the right kind of young men and women prepared to make teaching a profession.

You know and I know that when a young man or a young woman in these days is planning a career, a measure of prime importance is the initial salary. And the young man who may want to become an educator, who may want to make teaching a career, looks at $2400 and says: "If I get married, how long will my wife have to work before I will be able to support her?" And you do not get in your teaching structure the kind of people that you get if you have the sort of a salary schedule that would feed into the bottom talent, devoted talent.

I would gladly have urged upon the Members of this House a minimum of at least $2600. I am not so much concerned about the maximum, because if you have a proper minimum the maximum will take care of itself. And this bill is deficient. It does not meet the needs of the times. It does not carry the responsibility but it names $2400 as a minimum mandated by the state for those who would become members of our teaching force.

I have pointed out the need for getting a proper place to start, and it is not a question of a few million; it is a question of making our formula for the reimbursement of teaching costs locally and our salary schedule a realistic one.

As far as the Directors of Pennsylvania are concerned, we have many persons of enlightenment, of devotion to the cause of education, but all the progress that we have made in raising educational standards in this Commonwealth has been made in the face of persistent and consistent local opposition upon the part of the school directors of Pennsylvania, taken as a body. Their views have given us a structure that penalizes many districts for the benefit of districts local in their nature that have persistently milked the Commonwealth.

Had it not been for the fact that it would have been necessary to revise the teachers' salary bill clear down the line, change the number of increments and so forth, I would have offered an amendment to the teacher's salary bill fixing $2600 at least as the minimum; and I would have been prepared to stay here and ask the members of my party to stay here until we were certain that that minimum had been financed. I have watched with great interest the progress of events which formulates a $93 million program, proclaiming throughout the Commonwealth, "Upon this ground we stand." The teachers of Pennsylvania advocated a program that will cost approximately $93, or $91 or $92 millions, and I have watched that program dwindle until it becomes something like $55 millions—I may not be exactly correct.

Now who is trying to fool whom? Was the PSEA crazy when it framed its initial program? Was it taking a bargaining position? Was it feeding the teachers guff? Was it unrealistic? Who has the right of it? Who determines, and at what conferences was it finally determined that $55 or $45 millions was the figure?

Unfortunately, there is nothing that I can do about it. I am told that if I disturbed this bill I would endanger the program. Then the teachers would say: "You were not our friend. You disturbed the arrangement which our leadership had made." But for and on behalf of myself, and for and on behalf of my party I protest against the $2400 minimum. And for and on behalf of my party and myself, I protest against the fact that we have not evolved a formula which deals justly with Philadelphia, which deals justly with Pittsburgh and which deals justly with the rural districts. We go out of here penalizing Philadelphia, penalizing Pittsburgh and rewarding many of the school districts of Pennsylvania that should be penalized for their incompetence and their ineptitude.

Mr. SOLLENBERGER. Mr. Speaker, we have listened to a very able address from the gentleman from Cambria. Some of the statements he made are unquestionably right and correct and no one denies that. But I feel that an explanation should be made on at least three different points that he brought out so that the Members of the House will understand that the discrimination was not quite as much as you might think.

I have never been known in my fifteen years in the House to talk against good school legislation and against increases for schools. I have not been blamed for that except in a very derogatory manner. But this is one time that I have to defend the action of the leadership in these fifteen years.

As regards Pittsburgh, I want to state here that the three gentlemen who have come in from Pittsburgh relative to their districts are gentlemen. I use the word advisedly and correctly. They are here discussing the problem of Pittsburgh. They have a perfect right to do so. They are only asking for what the people of Pittsburgh would want them to ask. Let us give them due credit for that. I would do the same thing, were I a member of the board in Pittsburgh or a member of the administrative staff.

Let us take up this thought of discrimination. From 1921 on to about 1945, or 1943, we operated the schools under the Edmunds Act and it was the number of teachers you had in the system that put you in a certain classification, whereby you could receive state appropriation. If you would add one more teacher to the staff, you could go from the 51,000 to the 49,000 and then you received a nice appropriation from the state beyond what you did the prior year.

The School Commission was organized and in order to stop that, and have the district pay the amount that each should be paying on a rightful and a proper basis, we changed that from the old Edmunds Act to the pupil-teacher ratio. That was set then at 30 for the grades and 22 for the secondary. When that was done it stopped padding of payrolls. Whether it be in the rural district or in a large city, that was not discrimination. That was definitely putting schools where they belonged, both from the standpoint of the boards of directors and the standpoint of the superintendent and administrative staff. That was one thing that was not discrimination. It was doing the proper thing so that they could not pad the payrolls for the purpose of receiving more state aid.

Then a second move was made when we heard so much about assessments and tax collections. A few years ago we passed a law that set up a Tax Equalization Board, and their findings gave a further picture that we will be proud of in the years that lie ahead. And that is that we have and are having better assessments today, more equalized assessments. For twenty-five or thirty years I have heard it; ever since I have been down here, telling us that is what we want. Now we have it and now we are finding objection to that. I realize that the findings of the board are not perfect as yet. They have been in office too short a time; they cannot be. But nevertheless I believe the courts have upheld them in every case that was taken to the courts. I think that is correct; I am not certain of it.

So, it seems to me, when they did that they were not discriminating. It did not matter whether it was the city of Philadelphia or the city of Pittsburgh or the poorest township in this Commonwealth; it was based on exactly the same type of procedure. To me that is not discrimination; that is definitely setting a level and putting the groundwork where it belongs so that the local boards can operate according to the findings of the State Equalization Board.

I want to say for the school directors, naturally they make mistakes the same as the teachers do, and the same as the legislators do; but I must say in this state this year we have had marvelous cooperation from the State School Directors' Association. They have gone along; when they differed with us they said so, and rightfully so. They should do that. But they have gone along on the program.

Now as regards the $2600, I must make this statement here. We were not against $2600 so far as some of us were concerned. But let us not forget that in the agreements here we agreed on the basis of House Bills 333 and 334, and in that the salary was asked for by the Pennsylvania State Educational Association and voted upon on December 27, 1950 as a minimum of $2400. When that was done it was all right. We have the authority as legislators to change that, but we felt that if they were satisfied and the school directors felt that they could pay that extra $400 in most of the beginners' cases, and $200 where it was a Master's degree, then there was no reason why we should not all go along and keep it at $2400.

The argument that was presented that they may be worth more and that it may be a very fine basis for better people, that argument we do not disagree with. That is quite obvious. As to which amount of money that is paid and which this bill calls for, I believe that the statistical data show this, that this biennium is $203,000,000 of state money for the public schools, and the proposed amount is $273,450,000. That is an increase of $70,000,000.

I was not able to attend the conference at which that amount was arrived at, I cannot answer those questions, but I do know that according to the statistical data it is $70,000,000, and though we would have liked to have had more we are mighty pleased that we got $70,000,000, as they say today, from a law-making point of view.

Little change was made in the bill, very little. The 180 day clause was stricken out. There was much objection to it. Otherwise, the bill stands pretty much as the original bill stood, with some minor changes.

I believe that is a fair and honest answer to Mr. Andrews or anyone interested in his line of argument. We appreciate his kindness and also his feeling in raising the minimum, but we felt that we just could not do that on the basis of the writing of the bills originally, plus the lack of more to be paid back home. That is what we were interested in as much as we were in the salaries. If we could subsidize the 2539 school districts so that each would receive its share all would be treated fairly under the proposed bills.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the bill on second reading as amended?

It was agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 15, entitled:

An Act prohibiting political subdivisions from imposing wage income or occupation taxes on non-residents and abolishing such taxes heretofore imposed

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

BILL RECOMMITTED

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I move that this bill be recommitted to the Committee on Municipal Corporations for the purpose of further study.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the motion?

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. Hamilton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia Mr. Hamilton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAMILTON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to inquire as to the gentleman's reason for making this motion to recommit?

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, there is a general misunderstanding concerning House Bill 15. Apparently there are many who think it only applies to the City of Philadelphia. But if it should be enacted it will affect sixty-five boroughs, nine cities and five townships. I believe it is extremely important to weigh every borough, city and township in this Commonwealth as far as House Bill No. 15 is concerned.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to ask Mr. Hamilton if he knows when House Bill 15 was introduced into this Assembly?

Mr. HAMILTON. I do not know the exact date, Mr. Speaker, but it must have been the early part of the session, but I am not sure of the exact date.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, I would like to advise the gentleman that it was on February 4th. Does the gentleman know when this bill was reported out of Committee?

Mr. HAMILTON. That date was approximately May 15th, if I remember, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. ROBERTSON. To be accurate, Mr. Speaker, it was May 23rd. Does the gentleman feel that a bill that has been in Committee for a period of over three months should have been studied by the Members of the House and the members of the Committee?

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, I am not a member of that particular Committee, therefore I am not too certain of the amount of study that was given to the bill, but I do feel in view of the fact that there are so many parts of our Commonwealth affected, we should make absolutely certain that they realize the import of this bill.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, one further question. Does the gentleman indicate that the action on the part of the Municipal Corporations Committee from which this bill was reported was not substantially correct, and that the Committee reported bills out without thoroughly discussing and reading the bills? Is that the indication of the gentleman.

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, the members of the Municipal Corporations Committee are the finest, the most competent and the most intelligent members that I have ever been privileged to associate with, but we are all subject to making hasty decisions occasionally, and perhaps if we go a little slow it will be better for the members of the Committee as well as the entire House.

Mr. ROBERTSON. Mr. Speaker, for the information of the House, this bill was put into the hopper on the 4th of February and remained in the Municipal Corporations Committee until May 23rd. That is a period of very close to four months. I do not think anybody here, including the gentleman from Delaware, would intimate that there were any machinations or anything of that type that went on in the committee.

He admits that the members of the Committee are the finest gentlemen in the House. He also admits that this bill was studied by the Committee and reported out of the Committee.

I submit, Mr. Speaker, that this bill has been thoroughly studied; everybody in the Committee who was at the meeting probably had a chance to discuss and go over this bill. To report it back for further study would be useless.

I ask that the Members of this House vote down the motion. I second Mr. Boorse's request for a roll call.

Mr. ROSE. Mr. Speaker, I have listened to the interrogation by the gentleman from Delaware and the replies by the gentleman from Philadelphia with a great deal of interest.

I can see the logic of the views of the gentleman from Philadelphia. In spite of the fact that this bill has been nesting in Committee for a considerable length of time, I think most of the members of that Committee did not ascertain the views of the fiscal officials not only of Philadelphia, but of the other communities affected by this bill.

I certainly join with the gentleman from Philadelphia in asking that this bill be referred back to the Committee so that the Committee can ascertain the views of those who are primarily concerned with the fiscal problems of the communities affected by this piece of legislation, and so that they can inform the members of that Committee of the effect that this legislation will have on their financial programs.

Mr. BOLTON. Mr. Speaker, this motion offered by my colleague from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton, is the absolute negation of the committee system of government.

As our esteemed Majority Leader has pointed out at great length on many occasions, the committee system must be maintained in order to keep this Legislature on an even keel.

The Committee on Municipal Corporations is headed by its Chairman, Mr. Boorse, from Montgomery County, one of the oldest and most respected Members of this House. I am quite sure that the Members of this House will agree with me in my statement that anything that is put out by Mr. Boorse and that Committee has been thoroughly considered, and is well worthy of the attention of the House.

I join with the gentleman from Delaware, Mr. Robertson, in requesting the Members of the House to vote down this motion.

Mr. LOVETT. Mr. Speaker, I arise to oppose the motion to recommit. I would like to interrogate the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Philadelphia, Mr. Hamilton, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. HAMILTON. I shall, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. The gentleman said to have this bill recommitted "for further study," is that correct?

Mr. HAMILTON. That is correct, Mr. Speaker.

Mr. LOVETT. In the gentleman's honest opinion—and let us be fair about it—is that his real intention in recommitting this bill?

Mr. HAMILTON. Mr. Speaker, that is my honest conviction.

Mr. LOVETT. I thank the gentleman.

For many years I have found fault with the committee system in Pennsylvania, and today I must find fault again.

I have heard a lot of praise about the integrity of the Committee, about the ability of the Committee, the qualifications of the individuals of the Committee, and that the Committee has seen fit to report to the House a very simple bill that needs no study whatever.

I say even the most dense of us knows full well what this bill does. As the gentleman has stated, it does affect not only Philadelphia; it affects the entire state of Pennsylvania, and particularly the borough from which I come. We have a wage tax too. I opposed the wage tax in Pennsylvania. I hope I am not discussing the merits of this bill.

The SPEAKER. The gentleman is getting very close.

Mr. LOVETT. Well I say again, let us be fair. I feel down in my heart that this bill is not being recommitted for further study. I think the majority of the men in this House feel that this bill is not being recommitted for further study. Since it does affect the entire state of Pennsylvania, and we have representation here from the entire state of Pennsylvania, I think the measure now before us should remain here, and that the men who represent those districts that are affected by this legislation should stand up and be counted either for or against this bill. I ask you to vote down the motion to recommit.

On the question recurring,

Will the House agree to the motion?

The yeas and nays were required by Mr. Boorse and Mr. Bolton.

A verification of the roll was requested by Messrs. Bloom, Robertson and Clendening.

So the question was determined in the affirmative and the motion was agreed to.

Agreeably to order.

The House proceeded to the second reading and consideration of House Bill No. 589, entitled:

An Act to amend section one thousand one hundred forty-four of the act approved the tenth day of March one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 30) entitled "An act relating to the public school system including certain provisions applicable as well to private and parochial schools amending revising consolidating and changing the laws relating thereto" by further providing for additional increments for holders of college certificates or Masters' Degrees

The first section was read.

On the question,

Will the House agree to the section?

Mr. CLAPPER offered the following amendments:

Amend Section 1, (Section 1144) page 2, line 15, by inserting after the word "Any," the following: "temporary."

Amend Section 1, (Section 1144), page 2, line 15, by inserting after the word "Degree" the following: "at the time of his initial employment in the public schools of this Commonwealth."

Amend Section 1, (Section 1144), page 2, lines 17 and 18 by striking out the word "in" in line 17 and the words "the public schools of this Commonwealth," in line 18.

They were agreed to.

The section was agreed to as amended.

The title was read and agreed to.

And said bill having been read at length the second time and agreed to as amended.

Ordered, To be transcribed for third reading.

Jones, P. F.,

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No 556, as follows:

An Act to amend Section 625 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise he penal laws of the Commonwealth" by authorizing municipalities to grant special permits for the discharge of flobert rifles and other types of firearms in such municipalities for particular purposes

Section 1 Section 625 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-nine (P. L. 872) entitled "An act to consolidate amend and revise the penal laws of the Commonwealth" is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 625 Discharge of Flobert Rifles etc in Cities and Boroughs Whoever discharges on the streets or alleys of any city or borough a flobert rifle air gun spring gun or any implement which impels with force a metal pellet of any kind shall upon conviction thereof in a summary proceeding be sentenced to pay a fine not exceeding fifty dollars ($50) and in default of the payment of such fine and costs shall be sentenced to imprisonment not exceeding thirty (30) days This section shall not be construed to prohibit any municipality from granting special permission to the chief of police or persons designated by him to discharge on the streets or alleys of such municipality a flobert rifle air gun spring gun firearms or any implement which impels with force a metal pellet of any kind for a particular purpose

On the question,
Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,
Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I would like to interrogate the sponsor of this bill.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Franklin, Mr. Barkdoll, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. BARKDOLL. Mr. Speaker, I yield to the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Dauphin, Mr. Dowling, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I shall.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, will the gentleman please explain for the information of the Members of this House, what a flobert rifle is?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I am informed by a firearms expert, Mr. Gleason of Lycoming County, that it is a gun which propels a bullet with a spring that is stronger than the spring that is used in the average air rifle type of gun such as a BB gun. I believe the flobert rifle has really a European origin, but many of these guns have been brought into this country following World War II.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, what size pellet and what is the killing power of this rifle?

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I would prefer to yield on that question to Mr. Gleason of Lycoming County, who is a firearms expert.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Gleason, permit himself to be interrogated?

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I will.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I am only trying to find out the power of these rifles, and if Mr. Gleason is an expert I will ask him what size pellet this rifle shoots and what would be the killing power compared to the .22 rifle at short range.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I do not know that I am an expert on guns. I have monkeyed with them a little since coming into this world. I have grown up with them, but I do not consider myself an expert. I will answer the gentleman's question.

A flobert rifle is a rifle that has either a heavier spring or a compressed air gun that throws a pellet about—some of them about the same caliber as a .22. I have in mind the Benjamin rifle and the Benjamin pistol. You can either shoot a pellet or a metal dart and from here to Mr. Maxwell you could kill a man, with one of them very easily, if you hit him in the head. Does that answer your question?

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, I thank the gentleman. That answered my question perfectly.

A short time ago there was quite a fuss raised over BB guns being discharged in municipalities where there was a chance of people being struck with them. Now we have a bill that will permit a gun that is equal in killing power to the .22 rifle to be discharged in municipalities. So, therefore, Mr. Speaker, I think this is a very bad and dangerous bill, and I think the Members should know that and vote accordingly.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, I would like some expert information from the expert on the other side of the House, Mr. Gleason.

The SPEAKER. Will the gentleman from Lycoming, Mr. Gleason, permit himself to be interrogated.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, I will have the gentleman fire and fall back.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, at forty feet, with one of these guns, could you ping a rabbit that was eating your cabbage.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, if you point it right, yes.

Mr. ANDREWS. Mr. Speaker, well then I am for it.

Mr DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, at the time this bill was before the Committee, there was some apprehension about the use of this gun. We finally offered amendments to the bill providing that only a chief of police or a person designated by him could do this shooting. It was the consensus of opinion of the Committee that the guns should be placed in the hands only of someone who was qualified to use that gun.

I am informed by the sponsor of this bill that pigeons have been destroying some prominent buildings in this district and that really is the reason for this bill. It will not be indiscriminately used because the council or the chief of police should see to it that the person who uses the gun is thoroughly competent in its use.

Mr. MAXWELL. Mr. Speaker, the gentleman's explanation still does not justify the fact that a high powered gun of this type is going to be used where there are a lot of people. I have seen a lot of chiefs of police who could not hit a bull with a handful of rice; and yet they are going to let them wander around the city pot-shooting up in the buildings at pigeons and things. So, it is still a bad bill.

Mr. DOWLING. Mr. Speaker, I do not wish to prolong this discussion, but I would like to bring to the attention of Mr. Maxwell that on these very Capitol grounds where this building is located, guns are discharged to kill pigeons, and I have not been informed of any accident having taken place in that manner.

Mr. GLEASON. Mr. Speaker, all this bill does is to give the chief of police a choice. As the gentleman from Westmoreland said, some of them cannot hit anything with a pile of rocks, so that is why this bill is drawn up so they can give somebody else the privilege who can hit something.

Under the law now, if anybody in a city, town or borough goes out and shoots at a pigeon that is cluttering up the buildings, he is liable to a fine. Say his neighbor does not like that fellow and he has him arrested, there is not any way he can be protected because under the law it says he cannot fire a gun in a borough, town or city. So it is just allowing this man, whoever is given permission by the chief to use it. It does not say just a fobert rifle, air gun or what; he can shoot a shot gun. It is not going to hurt anything when it is shot up there in the air—or even a rifle against a building. I do not think they are going to use high powered rifles unless elephants start flying and then that would be bad. I do not see where there is anything wrong with this bill. I would like to see it passed for the sponsor.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

The majority required by the Constitution having voted in the affirmative, the question was determined in the affirmative.

Ordered, That the Clerk present the same to the Senate for concurrence.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 680, as follows:

An Act to further amend Sections 4 and 5 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 596) entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" by increasing the amount of pension in certain cases increasing the contributions required from certain employes and establishing certain minimum and maximum pensions

Section 1 Section 4 and 5 of the act approved the twenty-eighth day of May one thousand nine hundred fifteen (P. L. 596) entitled "An act requiring cities of the second class to establish a pension fund for employes of said cities and regulating the administration and the payment of such pensions" as last amended by the act approved the fourteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-nine (P. L. 1361) are hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 4 (a) During the lifetime of the said person he or she shall be entitled to receive a pension from the fund set aside for the purpose fifty per centum of the amount which would constitute the average rate of pay at which he or she was employed during the last five years of his or her employment by the said city. Said pension shall be paid in monthly payments. Provided That if any pension be granted to a person who has not been a contributor to the pension fund as herein provided during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to [not less than two nor more than four per centum of his or her pension] upon continuing a monthly payment to the fund equal to the last amount due and paid monthly while in active service said person shall be entitled to the pension above mentioned notwithstanding he or she has not attained the age for retirement at the time of his or her separation from the service of such city but said pension shall not commence until he or she has attained such age. Provided That any employee who has heretofore or shall hereafter be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his or her position or employment and who has been in the service of the city for a period of twenty-five (25) years or more and who has made payments into the pension fund for a period of twenty (20) years or more and who has reached the age of fifty (50) years shall upon application to the board of pensions receive the pension or compensation fixed by this act during the remainder of his or her life. Should any employee however become totally and permanently disabled after fifteen years of service he or she shall be entitled to the said pension. Provided That if any employee who has served less than fifteen years becomes totally and permanently disabled by reason of injury sustained in the actual performance of duty such employee shall be entitled to the said pension. Proof of total and permanent disability shall consist of the sworn statement of three practicing such amount as he or she would have been required to contribute had he or she contributed during such period as required by this act until such time as his or her contribution shall have extended during a period of twenty years. Should any person be dismissed for reasons other than misconduct after having served as an employee for fifteen years or more but less than twenty years such employee shall have the right to elect to keep in the fund all contributions heretofore made to the fund and to continue making monthly payments to such fund in an amount equal to the amount last due and paid monthly while an employee. When such payments continue until the former employee has contributed to the fund for a total of at least twenty years or until reaching the age of retirement whichever is the longer such person shall be entitled to receive a pension proportional to the pension which would have been received had the employee completed twenty years of service prior to dismissal such proportion to be computed on the ratio which the employee's actual time of service in months bears to twenty years. Should any person so employed after twenty years of service be dismissed voluntarily retire or be in any manner deprived of his or her position or employment before attaining the age fixed for retirement by this act physicians designated by the board that the employee is in a permanent condition of health which would totally disable him or her from performing the duties of his or her position or office. Once a year the board of pensions may require a disability pensioner to undergo a medical examination by three physicians appointed by the board and should such physicians thereupon report and certify to the board that such beneficiary is no longer incapacitated and should the pension board concur in such report the pension to such beneficiary shall be discontinued.

(b) The pension paid to any [one] employee pensioned prior to the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one shall not be less than [eighty] one hundred dollars nor exceed one hundred and twenty-five dollars per month and shall not be computed on rate of pay in excess of two hundred and fifty dollars per month. The pension paid to any employee pensioned after the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one shall not be less than one hundred dollars nor exceed one hundred seventy-five dollars per month and shall not be computed on rate of pay in excess of three hundred fifty dollars per month.

(c) Any employee who is a member of the pension fund on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and who shall retire or be pensioned thereafter and whose average salary for the last five years of his or her employment by the said city has been two hundred dollars a month or more but less than two hundred and fifty dollars per month shall have his or her pension computed on fifty-ve per centum of his or her average salary during the aforesaid five-year period of time. And provided further That any employee who is a member of the pension fund on the first day of June one thousand nine hundred fifty-one and who shall retire or be pensioned thereafter whose average salary during the last five years of his or her employment with the said city has been two hundred and fifty dollars per month or more shall receive a pension of not less than one hundred thirty-seven dollars and fifty cents per month. In the event of the death of any person receiving a pension under this act there shall be paid to such person or persons as he or she have designated in writing and filed with the board of pensions as his or her beneficiary or to his or her estate a lump sum representing the difference if any between the total contributions paid into the pension fund by him or her as an employee and the total pension payments received by him or her during his or her lifetime but such lump sum shall be paid only when such total contributions exceed the total pension payments made.

Section 5 The city employees shall after the passage of this act pay unto the board of pensions monthly an amount equal to not less than two nor more than four per centum of their monthly salaries or wages as fixed by the board of pensions in no event however paying at a rate greater than [twelve] fourteen dollars per month which shall be applied to the purposes of this act. Payment of the monthly amount or contribution herein mentioned shall cease and be discontinued at the time the beneficiary received the pension herein provided if such beneficiary has so contributed to the pension fund during a period of twenty years. If at the time the beneficiary received the pension herein provided he or she shall not have been a contributor to the pension fund during a period of twenty years such person shall be required to pay unto the board of pensions an amount equal to [not less than two nor more than four per centum of his or her monthly pension] such amount as he or she would have been required to contribute had he or she contributed during such period as required by this act until such time as his or her contributions shall have extended during a period of twenty years. If for any cause an employee contributing to the pension fund shall cease to be an employee of any such cities of the second class before said employee becomes entitled to the pension conferred by this act the total amount of the contributions paid unto the pension fund by such employee shall be refunded to him or her in full without interest unless he or she has less than full pension rights under the provisions of section four of this act and elects at once to exercise such rights by keeping such contributions in the fund and making such further payments as may be required. Provided however If any such employee shall have returned to him or her the amount contributed as aforesaid and shall afterwards reenter the employ of such city said employee shall not be entitled to the pension designated until twenty years after said reemployment unless he or she shall return to the pension fund the amount withdrawn in which event the period of twenty years shall be computed from the time the said employee first entered the service of said city. In the event of the death of any such employee before the said employee becomes entitled to the pension aforesaid the said total amount of contributions aforesaid shall be paid over to such person or persons as he or she shall have designated in writing and filed with the board of pensions as his or her beneficiary or to his or her estate.

Section 2 The increases in pension payments provided by this amending act shall be deemed cost-of-living increases and shall not be construed as a permanent and binding obligation of the Pension Fund which will in perpetuity entitle present and future beneficiaries under the fund to secure pension payment predicated upon such increases. Such increased pension payment shall be subject to revision by the General Assembly in the event of a decline or a rise in the cost of living costs result in decreasing the pension payments in effect prior to the effective date of this amending act.

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Areaeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of House Bill No. 870, as follows:

An Act to further amend section 1 and to add section 5 to the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. L. 129) entitled "An act to empower boroughs and cities to establish a police pension fund to take property in trust therefor and regulating and providing for the regulation of the same" by fixing minimum retirement allowances and providing benefits for surviving spouse in cities of the first class

Section 1 Section 1 of the act approved the twenty-fourth day of May one thousand eight hundred ninety-three (P. L. 129) entitled "An act to empower boroughs and cities to establish a police pension fund to take property in trust therefor and regulating and providing for the regulation of the same" as last amended by the act approved the second day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 2795) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 1 Be it enacted &c That the several cities of this Commonwealth incorporated by general or special laws shall establish by ordinance a police retirement fund to be maintained by an equal and proportionate monthly charge against each member of the police force which shall not exceed annually three and one-half per centum of the pay of such member and by annual appropriations made by the city which fund shall be under the direction of councils or committed to the direction of such officers of the city as may be designated by councils and applied under such regulations as councils may be ordinance prescribe for the benefit of such members of the police force as shall receive honorable discharge therefrom by reason of age or disability and the families of such as may be injured or killed in the service but such retirement allowances as shall be made to those who are retired by reason of the disabilities or age shall be in conformity with a uniform scale

The annual appropriation made by the city each year shall be sufficient when added to the contributions made by members of the police force during such year and income from investments to pay in full the retirement allowances payable during such year

Such ordinance may prescribe a minimum period of continuous service not less than twenty years and a minimum age of fifty years after which members of the force may be retired from active duty and such members as are retired shall be subject to service from time to time as a police reserve until unfitted for such service when they may be finally discharged by reason of age or disability

Payments made under the provisions of this section shall not be a charge on any other fund in the treasury of the city or under its control save the police retirement fund herein provided for The basis of the apportionment of the retirement allowance shall be determined by the rate of the monthly pay of the member at the date of death honorable discharge or retirement and shall not in any case exceed in any year one-half the annual pay of such member computed at such monthly rate or in cities of the first class be less than seventy-five dollars ($75.00) a month

Section 2 Said act is hereby amended by adding after section 4 thereof a new section to read as follows

Section 4 In any city of the first class any married person retiring under the provisions of this act may at the time of his or her retirement elect to receive in lieu of the retirement allowance provided by this act a reduced retirement allowance during his or her lifetime and a retirement allowance after his or her death payable to his or her surviving spouse to be designated by him or by her at the time of retirement equal to fifty per centum of his or her reduced pension Provided That such person so retiring shall have been married to his or her spouse for not less than five years prior to the date of retirement

The reduced retirement allowance of such person making such election shall be equal to ninety per centum of such retirement allowance for each full year if any that his or her spouse is under the age of fifty at the date of such retirement but shall in no case be less than seventy-five per centum of the retirement allowance provided by this act

The retirement allowance to be paid to such surviving spouse shall begin on the first day of the month in which the death of the deceased spouse occurs or on the first day of the month following the surviving spouse's attainment of the age of fifty whichever is the later and shall continue to and terminate upon the death of such surviving spouse unless such surviving spouse shall remarry in which event the payment of his or her survivor's pension shall thereupon be terminated

If during the lifetime of any married person in a city of the first class who has retired under the provisions of this act and who has elected to receive a reduced pension the spouse whom he or she has designated to be his or her surviving spouse shall die then on the first day of the month next succeeding the date of the death of the designated spouse the reduced pension which is being received by such person shall be increased to an amount equal to the full pension which he or she would have received if the election and designation under the provisions of this section had not been made

And said bill having been read at length the third time, considered and agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

(q) "Date of Investment" shall mean the date of commitment in the case of a commitment to invest

(r) [(q)] If any investment is made in a manner not authorized by this act the officers directors and trustees making or authorizing such investment shall be personally liable for any loss occasioned thereby

Section 6 Section 410 the first paragraph and clause (6) of subsection (a) and subsections (d) and (e) of section 410A as respectively amended and added by the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 334) are hereby amended or further amended to read as follows

Section 410 Uniform Policy Provisions No policy of life or endowment insurance except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener shall hereafter be [issued or] delivered [by any stock or mutual life insurance company] in this Commonwealth unless it contains in substance the following provisions or provisions which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner are more favorable to the policyholder

(a) A provision that all premiums shall be payable in advance [either at the home office of the company or to an agent of the company upon delivery of a receipt signed by one or more of the officers of the company who shall be named in the policy]

(b) A provision that the insured is entitled to a grace either of thirty days or one month within which the payment of any premium after the first year may be made subject at the option of the company to an interest charge not in excess of six per centum per annum for the number of days of grace elapsing before the payment of the premium during which period of grace the policy shall continue in full force but in case the policy becomes a claim during the said period of grace before the overdue premium or the deferred premiums of the current policy year if any are paid the amount of such premiums with interest on any overdue premiums may be deducted in any settlement under the policy

(c) A provision that the policy shall be incontestable after it has been in force during the lifetime of the insured two years from its date of issue except for non-payment of premiums [and for engaging in military or naval service in time of war without the consent in writing of an executive officer of the company] and that at the option of the company provisions relative to disability benefits [in the event of total and permanent disability] and provisions which grant additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means may also be excepted

(d) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued and in such case the policy shall contain a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(e) A provision that if the age of the insured or of any other person whose age is considered in determining the premium has been misstated the amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age or ages

(f) A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the third policy-year the company will annually determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the [owner of the policy] party entitled to elect such option shall have the right to have the dividend arising from such participation paid in cash or applied [to the payment of premium or the purchase of paid up additions to the policy as the policyholder] in accordance with any one of such other dividend options as may be provided by the policy [may elect] If any such other dividend options are provided the policy shall further state which option shall be automatically effective if such party shall not have elected some other option

In lieu of the foregoing provisions the policy may contain a provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that beginning not later than the end of the fifth policy-year the company will determine the portion of the divisible surplus accruing on the policy and that the [owner of the policy] party entitled thereto shall have the right to have the current dividend arising from such participation paid in cash and that at periods of not more than five years thereafter such apportionment and payment at the option of [the policyholder] such party shall be had

Renewable term policies of ten years or less may provide that the surplus accruing to such policies shall be determined and apportioned each year after the second policy-year and accumulated during each renewal period and that at the end of any renewal period or renewal of the policy by the insured the company shall apply the accumulated surplus as an annuity for the next succeeding renewal term in the reduction of premiums

(g) A provision specifying the options if any to which the policyholder is entitled in the event of default in a premium payment

(h) A provision for a loan value at any time [while the policy is in force] after three full years' premiums have been paid and while no premium is in default beyond the grace period for payment

(1) In the case of any policy issued prior to the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Nonforfeiture Law) it shall be provided that the company will advance on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the whole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to or at the option of the owner of the policy less than the reserve at the end of the current policy year on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto and that the company will deduct from such loan value any existing indebtedness on the policy and any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy-year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy-year which provision may further provide that such loan may be deferred for not exceeding six months after the application therefor is made A company may in lieu of the provision hereinabove permitted for the deduction from a loan on the policy of a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto insert in the policy a provision that one-fifth of the entire reserve may be deducted in case of a loan under the policy or may provide therein that the deduction may be the said two and one-half per centum or the one-fifth of the said entire reserve at the option of the company

(2) In the case of any policy issued on or after the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) [it shall be provided] the loan provision shall provide that the company will advance on proper assignment or pledge of the policy and on the sole security thereof at a specified rate of interest a sum equal to or at the option of the [owner of the policy] party entitled thereto less than the cash surrender value at the end of the current policy year as required by section four hundred and ten A of this act and that the company [will] may deduct from such loan value (in addition to any indebtedness deducted in determining such value) any unpaid balance of the premium for the current policy year and may collect interest in advance on the loan to the end of the current policy year The company shall reserve the right to defer such loan except any made to pay premiums to the company for six months after application therefor is made This subsection (h) shall not apply to term insurance

(i) A provision for a non-forfeiture benefit and cash surrender value

(1) In the case of any policy issued prior to the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) a non-forfeiture benefit shall be provided in event of default in premium payments after premiums shall have been paid for three years which shall secure to the owner of the policy a stipulated form of insurance the net value of which shall be at least equal to the reserve at the date of default on the policy and on any dividend additions thereto specifying the mortality table and rate of interest adopted for computing such reserves less a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the amount insured by the policy and of any existing dividend additions thereto and less any existing indebtedness to the company on the policy. Such provision shall stipulate that the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within one month from date of default for a specified cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid and may stipulate that the company may defer payment for not more than six (6) months after the application therefor is made. This provision shall not be required in term insurance of twenty years or less.

(2) In the case of any policy issued on or after the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) a non-forfeiture benefit and cash surrender value shall be provided in accordance with said section.

(j) table showing in figures the loan value if any and the options if any available under the policy each year upon default in premium payments during at least the first twenty years of the policy and if the proceeds of the policy are payable in installments [or as an annuity] which are determinable prior to maturity of the policy a table showing the amount of the [installment or annuity payment] guaranteed installments.

(k) A provision that the holder of a policy shall be entitled to have the policy reinstated upon written application therefor at any time within three years from the date of default in premium payments unless the policy has been duly surrendered or the extension period expired upon the production of evidence of insurability satisfactory to the company and the payment of all overdue premiums and any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy with interest at the rate of not exceeding six per centum per annum compounded annually.

(l) A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death.

Any of the foregoing provisions or parts thereof not applicable to single premium or non-participating policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein. Provided however That the policies of an insurance company organized under the laws of any state or foreign government may contain when [issued] delivered in this Commonwealth any provision which may be prescribed by laws of the state or government under which the company is organized and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth may when [issued] delivered in any other state territory or foreign country contain any provision required by the laws of such state territory or foreign country to be contained in policies [issued] delivered therein. A clause in any policy of life insurance providing that such policy shall be incontestable after a specified period shall preclude only a contest of the validity of the policy and shall not preclude the assertion at any time of defenses based upon provisions in the policy which exclude or restrict coverage whether or not such restrictions or exclusions are excepted in such clause.

Section 410A Standard Non-Forfeiture Law (a) In the case of policies issued on or after the operative date of this section as defined in subsection (g) no policy of life insurance except as stated in subsection (f) shall be [issued or] delivered in this Commonwealth unless it shall contain in substance the following provisions or corresponding provisions which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner are at least as favorable to the defaulting or surrendering policyholder

(6) A statement of the method to be used in calculating the cash surrender value and the paid-up non-forfeiture benefit available under the policy on any policy anniversary [with] beyond the last anniversary for which such values and benefits are consecutively shown in the policy a statement that the cash surrender values and the paid-up non-forfeiture benefits available under the policy are not less than the minimum values and benefits required by or pursuant to any statute of the state in which the policy is delivered an explanation of the manner in which the cash surrender values and the paid-up non-forfeiture benefits are altered by the existence of any paid-up additions credited to the policy or any indebtedness to the company on the policy and if a detailed statement of the method of computation of the values and benefits shown in the policy is not stated therein a statement that such method of computation has been filed with the insurance supervisory official of the state in which the policy is delivered.

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable by reason of the plan of insurance may to the extent inapplicable be omitted from the policy.

The company shall reserve the right to defer the payment of any cash surrender value for a period of six months after demand therefore with surrender of the policy.

* * * * *

(d) The adjusted premiums for any policy shall be calculated on an annual basis and shall be such uniform percentage of the respective premiums specified in the policy for each policy year excluding any extra premiums charged because of impairments or special hazards that the present value at the date of issue of the policy of all such adjusted premiums shall be equal to the sum of (i) the then present value of the future guaranteed benefits provided for by the policy (ii) two per cent of the amount of insurance if the insurance be uniform in amount or of the equivalent uniform amount as herein-after defined if the amount of insurance varies with duration of the policy (iii) forty per cent of the adjusted premium for the first policy year (iv) twenty-five per cent of either the adjusted premium for the first policy year or the adjusted premium for a whole life policy of the same uniform or equivalent uniform amount with uniform premiums for the whole [of] life issued at the same age for the same amount of insurance whichever is less. Provided however That in applying the percentages specified in (iii) and (iv) above no adjusted premium shall be deemed to exceed four per cent (4%) of the amount of insurance or level amount equivalent thereto. The date of issue of a policy for the purpose of this subsection shall be the date as of which the rated age of the insured is determined.

In the case of a policy providing an amount of insurance varying with duration of the policy the equivalent [level] uniform amount thereof for the purpose of this subsection shall be deemed to be the level amount of insurance provided by an otherwise similar policy containing the same endowment benefit or benefits if any issued at the same age and for the same term the amount of which does not vary with duration and the benefits under which have the same present value at the inception of the insurance date of issue as the benefits under the policy. Provided however That in the case of a policy providing a varying amount of insurance issued on the life of a child under age ten the equivalent uniform amount may be computed as though the amount of insurance provided by the policy prior to the attainment of age ten were the amount provided by such policy at age ten.

All adjusted premiums and present values referred to in this section shall be calculated on the basis of the Commissioners 1941 Standard Ordinary Mortality Table for ordinary insurance and the 1941 Standard Industrial Mortality Table for industrial insurance and the rate of interest not exceeding three and one-half per centum

* * * * *

(3½%) per annum specified in the policy for calculating cash surrender values and paid-up non-forfeiture benefits. Provided however That in calculating the present value of any paid-up term insurance with accompanying pure endowment if any offered as a non-forfeiture benefit the rates of mortality assumed may be not more than one hundred and thirty per centum (130%) of the rates of mortality according to such applicable table. Provided further That for insurance issued on a substandard basis the calculation of any such adjusted premiums and present values may be based on such other table of mortality as may be specified by the company and approved by the Insurance Commissioner.

(e) Any cash surrender value and any paid-up non-forfeiture benefit available under the policy in the event of default in a premium payment due at any time other than on the policy anniversary shall be calculated with allowance for the lapse of time and the payment of fractional premiums beyond [the last preceding policy anniversary] the beginning of the policy year in which the default occurs. All values referred to in subsections (b) (c) and (d) may be calculated upon the assumption that any death benefit is payable at the end of the policy year of death. The net value of any paid-up additions other than paid-up term additions shall be not less than the dividends used to provide such additions. Notwithstanding the provisions of subsection (b) additional benefits payable (i) in the event of death or dismemberment by accident or accidental means (ii) in the event of total and permanent disability (iii) as reversionary annuity or deferred reversionary annuity benefits (iv) as [decreasing] term insurance benefits provided by a rider or supplemental policy provision to which if issued as a separate policy this section would not apply and (v) as other policy benefits additional to life insurance and endowment benefits and premiums for all such additional benefits shall be disregarded in ascertaining cash surrender values and non-forfeiture benefits required by this section and no such additional benefits shall be required to be included in any paid-up non-forfeiture benefits.

Section 7 The first paragraph and the last four paragraphs of Section 410 B of said act as added by the act approved the seventeenth day of July one thousand nine hundred thirty-five (P. L. 1116) are hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 410 B Uniform Provisions for Contracts of Annuities and Pure Endowment Contracts [On and after January first one thousand nine hundred thirty-six no] No annuity or pure endowment contract shall be [issued or] delivered in this Commonwealth [by any stock or mutual life insurance company] except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener [unless and until a copy of the form thereof has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him Except] and except in the case of a reversionary annuity otherwise called a survivorship annuity or an annuity contracted by an employer in behalf of his employees [no annuity or pure endowment contract shall be so issued or delivered in this Commonwealth] unless it contains in substance the following provisions:

Any of the foregoing provisions or portions thereof not applicable to nonparticipating contracts nor to contracts for which a single stipulated payment to the company is made shall to that extent not be incorporated therein and any such contract may be [issued or] delivered in this Commonwealth which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the holder of the contract than hereinbefore required.

Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent a life insurance corporation which issues life insurance on a participating basis from issuing annuities reversionary annuities or pure endowments on a non-participating basis.

Any such contract or any application endorsement or rider form used in connection therewith issued in violation of this section shall nevertheless be held valid but shall be construed as provided in this section and when any provision in such contract application endorsement or rider is in conflict with any provision of this section or with any other statutory provision the rights duties and obligations of the company of the holder of the contract and of the beneficiary or annuity thereunder shall be governed by the provisions of this section. The provisions of this section shall not apply to contracts of reinsurance nor to contracts for deferred annuities or reversionary annuities included in life insurance policies.

[For the purposes of this section application forms rider forms and endorsement forms for use in connection with any such contract excepting riders or endorsements relating to the manner of distribution of benefits or to the reservation of rights and benefits under any such contract and used at the request of the individual holders of such contracts shall be deemed to be parts of such contracts and shall require the approval of the Insurance Commissioner. No rider and no endorsement except as stated above shall be attached to or printed or stamped upon any such contract issued or delivered in this Commonwealth until the form of such rider or endorsement has been filed with the Insurance Commissioner and formally approved by him.]

Section 8 The first paragraph and clause (c) of Section 411 of said act as amended by the act approved the fourth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 1634) are hereby further amended to read as follows:

Section 411 Prohibited Policy Provisions No policy of life insurance shall be [issued or] delivered in this Commonwealth [by any stock or mutual] life insurance company organized under the laws of any other State or country or be issued by any stock or mutual life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth except policies of industrial insurance where the premiums are payable monthly or oftener if it contain any of the following provision:

* * * * *

(c) Any provision by which the policy shall purport to be issued or to take effect more than six months before the original application for the insurance was made [if thereby the assured would rate at an age younger than his age at date when the application was made according to his age at nearest birthday]

* * * * *

Section 9 Section 412 of said act is hereby amended to read as follows:

Section 412 Application for Insurance Insurable Interest No policy [or agreement for insurance] of life insurance shall be [issued by any stock or mutual life insurance company] delivered in this Commonwealth except upon the application of the person insured. A person liable for the support of a child may take out a policy of insurance on such child and persons copartnerships associations and corporations may insure the lives and health of officers directors principals partners and employees without the signing of a personal application as hereinbefore required. Any person may insure his own life for the benefit of any person copartnership association or corporation but no person shall cause to be insured the life of another unless the beneficiary named in such policy or agreement of life insurance whether himself or a third person has an insurable interest in the life of the insured if a policy of life insurance has been issued in conformity with this section no transfer of such policy or any interest thereunder shall be invalid by reason of a lack of insurable interest of the transferee in the life of the insured or the payment of premiums thereafter by the transferee. The term "insurable interest" is defined as meaning in the case of persons related by blood or law an interest engendered by love and affection and in the case of other persons a lawful economic interest in having the life of the insured continue as distinguished from an interest which would arise only by the death of the insured

Section 10 Section 420 of said act as amended by the act approved the sixth day of April one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 149) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 420 Exchange Alteration and Conversion of Policies Any life insurance company may at the request of a policyholder exchange alter or correct any policy of life or endowment insurance or annuity policy contract or any other policy benefits additional thereto issued by it for or into any policy [conforming (a)] which conforms with the laws in force [when the first mentioned policy was issued if the rewritten policy bears the date thereof or (b) with the laws in force when said exchange alteration or conversion is effected if the rewritten policy bears a then current date Provided however If such rewritten policy bears the date of said original policy] on the date of the original policy if the rewritten policy is by its terms made effective as of such date or which conforms with the laws in force on a subsequent date as of which the rewritten policy is by its terms made effective If the rewritten policy is made effective as of a date earlier than the date on which the exchange alteration or conversion occurs (a) the rewritten policy If evidence of insurability is required in conjunction with an exchange alteration or conversion to a policy on a plan requiring a lower premium rate or to a policy to which benefits or features are added differing from those in the original policy may provide that the date on which the exchange alteration or conversion occurs shall be used in determining the applicability of an incontestability clause in the rewritten policy to the right of the company to contest such exchange alteration or conversion or in determining the applicability of a clause in the rewritten policy limiting liability in the event of suicide of the insured and (b) the amount of insurance under said rewritten policy shall not exceed the amount of insurance under said original policy or the amount of insurance which the premium paid for the original policy would have purchased if the rewritten policy had been originally applied for whichever amount is the greater Nothing contained in section three hundred and forty-six or in clause (c) of section four hundred and eleven of this act shall be construed as prohibiting any such exchange alteration or conversion of policies as provided by this section

Section 11 Section 420C of said act as amended by the act approved the first day of May one thousand nine hundred forty-five (P. L. 334) is hereby further amended to read as follows

Section 420C Uniform Industrial Policy Provisions [From and after the first day of January nineteen hundred and thirty-eight no] No policy of industrial insurance shall be [issued or] delivered [to take effect] in this Commonwealth [or be issued by a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth] unless the same shall contain in substance the following provisions

(a) A provision that the insured is entitled to a grace of four (4) weeks within which the payment of any premium after the first may be made except that where premiums are payable monthly the insured shall be entitled to a grace of one month or 30 days During such period of grace the policy shall continue in full force but in case the policy becomes a claim during said grace period before the overdue premiums are paid the amount of overdue premiums may be deducted in any settlement under the policy

(b) A provision that the policy shall constitute the entire contract between the parties but if the company desires to make the application a part of the contract it may do so provided a copy of such application shall be endorsed upon or attached to the policy when issued and in such case the policy shall contain a provision that the policy and the application therefor shall constitute the entire contract between the parties

(c) A provision that the policy shall be incontestable

after it has been in force during the life-time of the insured two years from its date of issue except for nonpayment of premium [and except for violation of the conditions of the policy relating to naval or military service in time of war and except as to provisions and conditions] and that at the option of the company provisions relating to disability benefits [in the event of total and permanent disability] and those granting additional insurance specifically against death by accident or accidental means may also be excepted

(d) A provision that if the age of the insured or of any other person whose age is considered in determining the premium has been misstated the amount payable or benefit accruing under the policy shall be such as the premium would have purchased at the correct age or ages

(e) A provision that the policy shall participate in the surplus of the company and that the company will annually determine the portion of any divisible surplus accruing on the policy and indicating the conditions under which the company shall apportion such dividends to the policyholder or the party entitled thereto

(f) A provision for a non-forfeiture and cash surrender value

(1) In the case of any policy prior to the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) a non-forfeiture benefit shall be available in event of default in premium payments after premiums have been paid for three full years and shall be a stipulated form of insurance effective from the due date of the defaulted premium the net value of which stipulated form of insurance shall not be less than the reserve on the policy (exclusive of reserves if any for provisions relating to benefits in the event of specific types of disability or provisions granting additional insurance specifically against death by accident and for provisions granting other benefits in addition to life insurance) at the end of the last completed quarter of the policy year for which premiums have been paid and on any dividend additions thereto if any (the policy to specify the mortality table and rate of interest and also the method of valuation if other than net level premium adopted for computing such reserves) less a specified maximum percentage (not more than two and one-half) of the maximum face amount insured by the policy and of dividend additions thereto if any and less any existing indebtedness to the company on or secured by the policy Provided however That the said percentage or other rule of calculation so stated as to permit determination of the value shall be specified for each year for which required values are not included in the policy And provided A company may in lieu of the provision herein permitted for the deduction from the reserve of a sum not more than two and one-half per centum of the maximum face amount insured by the policy and of any dividend additions thereto insert in the policy a provision that a deduction of one-fifth of said reserve may be made or said two and one-half per centum of the maximum face amount insured or one fifth of said reserve at the option of the company Provided further That after premiums have been paid for five full years the policy may be surrendered to the company at its home office within four weeks of the due date of the defaulted premium for a specific cash value at least equal to the sum which would otherwise be available for the purchase of insurance as aforesaid And provided further That the company may defer payment of such cash value for not more than six months after application therefor is made In the event that such cash or other non-forfeiture value is not requested within the required period it shall be provided that a stipulated form of insurance shall automatically become effective

(2) In the case of any policy issued on or after the operative date of section four hundred and ten A of this act (the Standard Non-forfeiture Law) a non-forfeiture benefit and cash surrender value shall be provided in accordance with said section

payment period but not to exceed the first twenty (20) years of the policy and providing that the company will furnish upon request an extension of such table beyond the years shown in the policy

(h) A provision that the policy if not surrendered for its cash value or if the period of extended insurance has not expired may be reinstated upon written application therefor within one year from the date of default in payment of premiums upon payment of all overdue premiums and the payment or reinstatement of any other indebtedness to the company upon said policy and at the option of the company interest thereon at a rate not to exceed six per centum per annum compounded annually and upon the presentation of evidence satisfactory to the company of the insurability of the insured

(i) A provision that when a policy shall become a claim by the death of the insured settlement shall be made upon receipt of due proof of death

(j) A form number and title on the face of the policy clearly and correctly describing its form

Any such policy may be [issued or] delivered in this Commonwealth which in the opinion of the Insurance Commissioner contains provisions on any one or more of the several foregoing requirements more favorable to the policyholder than hereinbefore required. The policies of an insurance company organized under the laws of any other state or foreign government may contain when [issued] delivered in this Commonwealth any provision which may be prescribed by the laws of the state or government under which the company is organized not contrary to the provisions heretofore prescribed and the policies of a life insurance company organized under the laws of this Commonwealth when [issued] delivered in any other state territory or foreign country may contain any provision required by the laws of such state territory or foreign country to be contained in the policies [issued] delivered therein

Any of the foregoing provisions or parts thereof not applicable to non-participating policies shall to that extent not be incorporated therein and the provisions of this section shall not apply to policies issued or granted pursuant to the non-forfeiture provisions prescribed in [subsection] clause (f) of this section. A clause in any policy of industrial life insurance providing that such policy shall be incontestable after a specified period shall preclude only a contest of the validity of the policy and shall not preclude the assertion at any time of defenses based upon provisions in the policy which exclude or restrict coverage whether or not such restrictions or exclusions are excepted in such clause

Section 12 The first paragraph of Section 420D of said act as added by the act approved the twenty-first day of May one thousand nine hundred thirty-seven (P. L. 769) is hereby amended to read as follows

Section 1109 Common Trust Funds

* * * * *

B If the instrument under which a trust company or bank and trust company acts as fiduciary whether such fiduciary capacity arose before or is created after this act takes effect shall limit or restrict the investment of moneys of the estate in assets of the class authorized by law as legal investments the trust company or bank and trust company may in its capacity as sole fiduciary or with the consent of any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity invest and reinvest moneys of the estate in any such common trust fund maintained by the trust company or bank and trust company provided the assets composing such fund consist solely of assets of the class authorized as legal investment for funds held by fiduciaries

If the instrument under which a trust company or bank and trust company acts as fiduciary whether such fiduciary capacity arose before or is created after this act takes effect shall authorize the investment of moneys of the estate in a common trust fund or in investments other than those designated by law as legal investments or shall authorize the trust company or bank and trust company either alone or in conjunction with any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity to exercise its or their discretion with respect to the investment of moneys of the estate of the trust company or bank and trust company may in its capacity as sole fiduciary or with the consent of any person acting with it in a fiduciary capacity invest and re-invest moneys of the estate in any such common trust fund maintained by the trust company or bank and trust company. Any such common trust fund consisting solely of moneys of estates contributed thereto by the trust company or bank and trust company pursuant to authority contained in any such instruments creating the fiduciary capacity to invest moneys of the estates in a common trust fund or in investments other than such legal investments or pursuant to such discretionary power with respect to the investment of moneys of the estates as contained in any such instruments creating fiduciary capacity may be composed of investments other than those of the class designated by law as legal investments for funds held by fiduciaries including common and preferred stocks

Bonds secured by mortgages and securities of the class authorized by law as legal investments for fiduciaries shall be deemed proper investments for any such common trust funds. Provided however That no investment for a common trust fund shall be made or maintained in bonds secured by mortgages which would cause the total amount of investment for such fund in bonds secured by mortgages to exceed forty per centum of the value of all the assets comprising such fund

No moneys of any one estate in excess of [fifty] one hundred thousand dollars shall be invested in any one or more of such common trust funds as may be maintained by a trust company or bank and trust company. In applying this limitation if two or more trusts are created by the same settlor or settlors and as much as one-half of the income or principal or both of each trust is presently payable or applicable to the use of the same person or persons such trusts shall be considered as one

Ordered, That the Clerk return the same to the Senate with information that the House of Representatives has passed the same without amendment.

Agreeably to order,

The House proceeded to the third reading and consideration of Senate Bill No. 212, as follows:

A Supplement to the act approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred thirty-one (P. L. 1352) entitled "An act providing for joint action by the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey in the administration operation and maintenance of bridges over the Delaware River and for the construction of additional bridge facilities across said river authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into agreement with the State of New Jersey creating a Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission and specifying the powers and duties thereof including the power to finance the construction of additional bridges by the issuance of revenue bonds to be redeemed from revenues derived from tolls collected at such bridges transferring to said commission all powers now exercised by existing commission created to acquire toll bridges over the Delaware River and making an appropriation" authorizing the Governor to enter into a supplemental compact or agreement on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey amending the agreement entitled "Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey creating the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission as a body corporate and politic and defining its powers and duties" as heretofore amended to enlarge the jurisdiction and power of said commission with respect to the acquisition construction rehabilitation improvement maintenance leasing and operation of bridges across the Delaware River including approach highways the financing thereof and the fixing charging and collecting of tolls for the use of such bridges

Section 1 The Governor is hereby authorized to enter into a supplemental compact or agreement on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania with the State of New Jersey amending the agreement entitled "Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey Creating the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission as a body corporate and politic and defining its powers and duties" which was executed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by its Governor on the nineteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four and on behalf of the State of New Jersey by its Governor on the eighteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four as amended by the Supplemental Agreement which was executed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by its Governor on the eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred forty-seven and was executed on behalf of the State of New Jersey by its Governor on the third day of July one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven such supplemental compact or agreement to be in substantially the following form

"Supplemental agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey amending the agreement entitled 'Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey creating the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission as a Body Corporate and Politic and Defining Its Powers and Duties' as heretofore amended by extending the jurisdiction and powers of the commission

Whereas The Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission (hereinafter referred to as the 'commission') was created by a compact or agreement entitled 'Agreement between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey creating the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission as a body corporate and politic and defining its powers and duties' executed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by its Governor on the nineteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four pursuant to an act of its General Assembly approved the twenty-fifth day of June one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one (P. L. 1352) as last amended by an act of said General Assembly approved the eighteenth day of May one thousand nine hundred and thirty-three (P. L. 827) and executed on behalf of the State of New Jersey by its Governor on the eighteenth day of December one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four pursuant to an act of its Senate and General Assembly approved June eleventh one thousand nine hundred and thirty-four (Chapter 215 Laws of 1934 R S (1937) 32 8-1) to which compact or agreement the consent of the Congress of the United States was given by section 9 of an act of the Congress approved August 30 1935 (Public No. 411 74th Congress 49 Stat 1051 1058) and

Whereas Said compact or agreement was amended by a supplemental agreement executed on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania by its Governor on the eighth day of July one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven pursuant to an act of its General Assembly approved June thirteenth one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven (P. L. 592) and executed on behalf of the State of New Jersey by its Governor on the third day of July one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven pursuant to an act of its Senate and General Assembly approved June thirteenth one thousand nine hundred and forty-seven (Chapter 283 Laws of 1947) to which supplemental agreement the consent of the Congress of the United States was given by an act of the Congress approved August 4 1947 (Public No 355 80th Congress 61 Stat 752) and

Whereas It is necessary to protect the investment made by the commission in the bridge now under construction between the City of Trenton New Jersey and the Borough of Morrisville Pennsylvania and the investments made by said Commonwealth and said State in the approach highways connected with said bridge and in order to finance additional bridges over the Delaware River and thereby facilitate the flow of traffic between said Commonwealth and said State now therefore

The Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey do hereby solemnly covenant and agree each with the other as follows

Section 3 The Governor is hereby authorized to apply on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania to the Congress of the United States for its consent and approval to such supplemental compact or agreement

Section 4 The provisions of this act shall not be construed to repeal any of the provisions of the act approved the 12th day of June 1931 (P. L. 575) entitled "An act providing for joint action by Pennsylvania and New Jersey in the development of the ports on the lower Delaware River and the improvement of the facilities for transportation across the river authorizing the Governor for these purposes to enter into an agreement with New Jersey creating the Delaware River Joint Commission and specifying the powers and duties thereof including the power to finance projects by the issuance of revenue bonds transferring to the new commission all the powers of the Delaware River Bridge Joint Commission and making an appropriation" and its amendments or supplements or apply to or affect in any manner any agreement made between the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania and the State of New Jersey pursuant to the provisions of said acts

Section 5 If any provision of this act or the application thereof to any person or circumstance is held invalid such invalidity shall not affect other provisions or applications of the act which can be given effect without the invalid provision or application and to this end the provisions of this act are declared to be severable

Section 6 This act shall take effect immediately but the Governor shall not enter into the supplemental compact or agreement hereinabove set forth on behalf of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania until passage by the State of New Jersey of a substantially similar act embodying the supplemental compact or agreement between the two states

On the question,

Will the House agree to the bill on third reading?

It was agreed to.

On the question,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Mr. PETROSKY. Mr. Speaker, I believe the House is due an explanation inasmuch as this bill has been held up at my request for the past several weeks. Therefore, I will attempt, in making a protest to this bill to bring to light to the membership of the House the necessity of some information which the membership of the House does not have on legislation, particularly so as to Senate Bill 212.

After hearing a few things in relation to Senate 212, I endeavored to get a sufficient amount of information whereby I could cast my vote upon this measure, knowing the entire import of the legislation before us. With my own limited facilities, and not having a research staff to probe into some of the problems that this legislation brings up, I was not able to get the information I desired.

However, as a suggestion to the membership of the House, I would be happy to co-sponsor a resolution with any Member on the majority side, and suggest we have the Joint State Government Commission, which everybody admits is an arm of this Legislature and is a worthy body that does a good job, investigate situations such as this and give their findings to this legislative body at the time when it meets to consider this legislation.

I am going to vote against the bill, due to the fact that I do not have sufficient information on it. I am not going to endeavor to hold up the bill further due to the fact that I am given to understand that the Turnpike Commission needs this bill in order to effect its program which may be needed in the very near future.

Inasmuch as I do not have information that could be secured by a study by the Joint State Government Commission, I cannot approach the problems that I originally intended to approach on this measure, so I want to register my protest against Senate Bill 212.

Mr. KELLER. Mr. Speaker, I would like to make a brief statement and some explanation in regard to Senate Bill No. 212.

Senate Bill 212 amends the compact of 1931 which created the Delaware River Joint Toll Bridge Commission.

This bill extends the jurisdiction of that Commission from the New York State line down to the boundary between Bucks and Philadelphia Counties. It gives the Commission, if the Governors of Pennsylvania and New Jersey approve, the power to take over the Tacony-Palmyra Bridge and operate it for the benefit of the two states.

It also gives the Commission, if the highway departments agree, power to build approach highways leading to the bridges. It also gives the Commission power to finance several bridges in one bond issue. It also makes it possible for the Commission to cooperate with the Pennsylvania and New Jersey Turnpike Commissions to affect a junction at a bridge crossing the Delaware. It also protects the commissions investment in the present Morrisville Bridge.

This very bill has been approved by the New Jersey State Legislature and needs the approval of the Pennsylvania Legislature, so that these things might be carried out.

Therefore I ask the House to vote for this bill.

On the question recurring,

Shall the bill pass finally?

Agreeably to the provisions of the Constitution the yeas and nays were taken and were as follows:

Section 104 Construction of Act Generally to Preserve Existing Situations The provisions of this act so far as they are the same as those of existing laws are intended as a continuation of such laws and not as new enactments. The repeal by this act of any act of Assembly or part thereof shall not revive any act or part thereof heretofore repealed or superseded nor affect the corporate existence of any city heretofore incorporated. The provisions of this act shall not affect any act done liability incurred or right accrued or vested or affect any suit or prosecution pending or to be instituted to enforce any right or penalty or punish any offense under the authority of such repealed laws. All ordinances resolutions regulations and rules made pursuant to any act of Assembly repealed by this act shall continue with the same force and effect as if such act had not been repealed. Any person holding office or position under or by virtue of any act of Assembly repealed by this act shall continue to hold such office or position until the expiration of the term thereof subject to the conditions and tenure attached to such office or position prior to the passage of this act.

Section 105 Constitutional Construction The provisions of this act shall be severable and if any of its provisions shall be held to be unconstitutional the decision so holding shall not be construed to affect the validity of any of the remaining provisions of this act. It is hereby declared as the legislative intent that this act would have been adopted had such unconstitutional provisions not been included therein.

Section 106 Construction of References Whenever in this act reference is made to any act by title or otherwise such reference shall be construed to apply to and include any codification wherein the provisions of the act referred to are substantially reenacted.

Section 107 Cities to Which Act Applies This act shall apply to (a) all cities which have been incorporated under or which have accepted the provisions of the act of Assembly approved the twenty-third day of May one thousand eight hundred and seventy-four (P. L. [two hundred thirty] 230) entitled "An act dividing cities of this State into three classes regulating the passage of ordinances providing for contracts for supplies and work for said cities authorizing the increase of indebtedness and the creation of a sinking fund to redeem the same defining and punishing certain offenses in all of said cities and providing for the incorporation and government of the cities of the third class" and the amendments thereto (b) all cities which have been incorporated under the provisions of the act of May twenty-third one thousand eight hundred and eighty-nine (P. L. [two hundred seventy-seven] 277) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation and government of cities of the third class" and the amendments thereto (c) all cities which have been incorporated under the provisions of the act of Assembly approved June twenty-seventh one thousand nine hundred and thirteen (P. L. [five hundred sixty-eight] 568) entitled "An act providing for the incorporation regulation and government of cities of the third class nomination and election of municipal officers therein and repealing consolidating and extending existing laws in relation thereto" and the amendments thereto (d) all cities formed by the consolidation of boroughs having voted separately to become cities in accordance with the provisions of the act approved May twenty-fourth one thousand nine hundred and seventeen (P. L. [two hundred sixty-two] 262) entitled "An act to enable two or more boroughs that are contiguous or in close proximity to be united and to become one city wherever each of said boroughs shall have heretofore voted or shall hereafter vote to become a city of the third class under laws now enacted or which may hereafter be enacted and wherever each of said boroughs has duly received or shall hereafter duly receive letters patent constituting it a city of the third class but where sufficient time shall not have elapsed after the granting of such letters patent for the holding of a municipal election providing for the consequences of such consolidation the government of such consolidated city the payment of the indebtedness of each of the united territories and the enforcement of debts and claims due to and from each and fixing the jurisdiction over the said consolidated city in the courts of the county in which the majority of its inhabitants shall reside" and (e) all cities incorporated under the provisions of this act as therein provided.

Section 108 Effective Date This act shall go into effect on the first day of July one thousand nine hundred and thirty-one. This reenactment revision amendment and consolidation of the laws relating to cities of the third class shall become effective on the first Monday of January one thousand nine hundred fifty-two.

Section 109 Publication of Notices Whenever under the provisions of this act advertisement notice or publication is required to be published in one newspaper such publication shall be made in a newspaper of general circulation as defined by the Newspaper Advertising Act of May sixteen one thousand nine hundred and twenty-nine (P. L. [one thousand seven hundred eighty-four] 1784) printed in the city if there is such a newspaper and if not then in a newspaper circulating generally in such city. If such notice is required to be published in more than one newspaper it shall be published in at least one newspaper of general circulation defined as aforesaid printed if there be such a newspaper or circulating generally as above provided in the city. When such notice relates to any proceeding or matter in any court or the holding of an election for the increase of indebtedness or the issue and sale of bonds to be paid by taxation such notice shall also [in counties of the second third fourth and fifth classes] be published in the legal newspaper of any designated by the rules of court of the proper county for the publication of legal notices and advertisements unless such publication be dispensed with by special order of court. (c) Annexation of Part of a Borough

Section 525 Petition for Annexation of Territory in a Borough Ordinance of City Territory in a borough contiguous to a city or separated therefrom by a river or stream may be detached from the borough and annexed to the city in the following manner

A petition signed by owners of the land in the territory proposed to be detached and annexed and described in the petition shall be presented to the borough authorities who if they find that the petition is signed by either a majority of freehold owners or by the owners of two-thirds of the area of the territory described and that the assessed valuation of the territory described is not in excess of five per centum of assessed valuation of the borough may by ordinance detach the described territory subject to the acceptance of the detached portion by the city of the third class and upon notice from the council of the borough that it has ordained the detachment of the described territory of the borough for the purpose of having it annexed to the city [of the third class] the city may by ordinance annex the portion of the borough so proposed to be detached.

Section 526 Filing of Plans Upon such annexation by ordinance a plan of the territory annexed shall be filed by the [borough] city council in the office of the county commissioners and with the clerk of the court of quarter sessions and thereupon the detachment and annexation shall be effective. Provided however That if there be no delay through litigation or causes beyond the control of the councils the plan shall be filed as herein required within [ninety (90)] thirty days after the [presentation of the petition to] passage of the annexation ordinance by the city council and if the proceedings are not thus completed they shall be void in their entirety and of no effect. A copy of the plan filed shall be likewise forwarded to the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth.

(d) Indebtedness and Public Property when Borough or Township is Annexed

Section 535 Apportionment of Indebtedness of Borough or Township Taxes to be Uniform All the indebtedness of each borough or township annexed to a contiguous city under the provisions of this act as well as the indebtedness of the city to which the same is annexed shall be paid by the city as enlarged by such annexation and all territory included within the limits of the same shall be liable for the payment of the floating and bonded indebtedness and the interest thereon of all the territory included within such enlarged city and all taxes thereafter levied therefor shall be uniform throughout the territorial limits of such city.

Section 536 Property of Annexed Territory to Become Property of City All of the public property owned by any such borough or township annexed to any city shall become and remain the public property of the said city.

(e) Apportionment of Indebtedness when Part of a Township or Outlying Lots are Annexed

Section 540 Adjustment of Indebtedness when Part of Township is Annexed Where any part of any township or outlying lots thereof are annexed to any city the township officers of that part of the said township not annexed and the city council of the said city shall make a just and proper adjustment and apportionment of all public property owned by the said township at the time of said annexation both real and personal including funds as well as indebtedness if any to and between the said township and the city. In making such adjustment and apportionment of the property and indebtedness the township and the city shall be entitled respectively to share in a division of the property and indebtedness in the proportion that the assessed valuation of the land remaining in the township bears to the assessed valuation of the land annexed. Provided however That where indebtedness was incurred by the township for an improvement located wholly within the annexed part of the township the whole of such indebtedness shall be assumed by the city and where any part of any such improvement is located within the annexed part of the township the part of such indebtedness representing the part of the improvement located within the territory annexed shall be assumed by the city and the adjustment and apportionment of any remaining debt and the public property of the township shall be made as above provided. The adjustment and apportionment as made shall be reduced to writing and duly executed and acknowledged by the proper officials and filed in the office of the clerk of the court of quarter sessions of the county in which said city is located. A copy of such adjustment and apportionment shall be forwarded by the city clerk to the Department of Internal Affairs of the Commonwealth.

Section 541 Appointment of Commission Contents of Report In case the said council of the said city and the township's authorities cannot make such amicable apportionment and adjustment of their property and indebtedness within six months after any such annexation then in that case the said council or any officer of said township may present a petition to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the said city is located. Whereupon the said court shall appoint three disinterested commissioners residents and taxpayers of said county not residing in the said city nor in the said township who after hearing due notice of which shall be given to the city and township interested by publication once in one or more newspapers at least twenty days before said hearing in accord with the provisions of section one hundred and nine of this act shall make report to the court making an apportionment and adjustment according to the provisions of this act of all the property as well as indebtedness if any to and between the said city and the said township said report to state the amount if any that shall be due and payable from the city to the township or from the township to the city as well as the amount of indebtedness if any that shall be assumed by the city or township or both of them.

Section 542 Notice of Filing of Report Exceptions Confirmation The commissioners shall give the city and the township at least five days' notice of the filing of their report. Unless exceptions are filed thereto by the city or by the township within thirty days after filing thereof the same shall be confirmed by the court absolutely. Any sum awarded by the report to the city or to the township shall be a legal and valid claim in its favor against the city or township charged therewith and the amount of debt if any apportioned to any city or township shall be a legal and valid claim against such city or township charged therewith. Any property real or personal given and adjudged to the city or the township shall become and be the property of the city or the township to whichever one the same is given and adjudged. Upon such report being confirmed such claim or indebtedness charged against any city or township may be collected in the same manner as a judgment is collected against any city or township.

Section 543 Compensation of Commissioners Costs The commissioners shall be allowed five dollars per day for each day actually spent by them in the performance of their duties together with their actual necessary expenses. All costs and expenses of such proceedings shall be apportioned by the court to and between the said city and the said township as it shall deem proper.

Section 544 Disposition of Exceptions Appeal In some exceptions are filed to the report of the commissioners the court shall dispose of the same taking testimony if deemed advisable and the decision of the court thereon shall be final and binding on the several cities and townships unless an appeal is taken within thirty days to the Superior or Supreme Court as in other cases.

Section 545 Jurisdiction when Territory is in Two or More Counties In cases where a city or township is situated in two or more counties the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the city is located shall have exclusive jurisdiction over the matter but the same shall be heard by a judge not a resident of either of the judicial districts affected who shall be called to preside specially in the matter and in such cases the court shall appoint the commissioners hereinbefore provided for from both or [all] from three of such counties.

(f) Apportionment of Indebtedness when Part of a Borough is Annexed

Section 550 Apportionment of Indebtedness Decree of Court The court of quarter sessions [of the proper county] having jurisdiction of the city in cases where any part of a borough is annexed to a city upon a petition of the borough or city may hear evidence and consider the indebtedness and assessed valuation of the borough and the city and the assessed valuation of the territory annexed and may enter a decree making such adjustment of the indebtedness and the manner and time of the payment thereof as to the court may seem meet and proper

Section 551 Collection of Taxes Assessed Prior to Annexation Any taxes assessed prior to the going into effect of the proceedings shall be paid to the borough and the collection and enforcement thereof shall be as though the land had not been detached

(g) Wards

Section 560 Distribution of Annexed Territory Among Wards New Wards Ward Officers Within thirty days from the effective date of any annexation the city council shall cause a petition to be presented to the court of quarter sessions of the county in which the said city is located praying for the distribution of the annexed territory among the wards of the said city or for the creation of a new ward or wards out of the same and to make such order or decree as may be necessary to constitute such ward or wards an election district or election districts or add to or create new election districts in a ward or wards to which such territory is attached and the said court shall in case of the creation of a new ward or wards appoint the election and other officers of the same and name the place or places of holding the first election in the said ward or wards for ward officers and for that purpose may order a special election if said court shall deem the same necessary to be conducted in the manner provided by [law for conducting municipal election] the Pennsylvania Election Code The officers elected at such special election shall hold their respective offices until their successors elected at the next succeeding municipal election shall be duly qualified Any decree of court creating a new ward or wards shall be entered in full upon the records of said court and certified copies thereof under the seal of the court shall be delivered by the clerk of said court to and be filed by the city clerk of the city and the secretary of the school district in which said ward or wards become located The clerk of the court of quarter sessions shall likewise certify copies thereof to the Secretary of the Commonwealth and to the Department of Internal Affairs
